Meeting called to order at 7:23 p.m.

1. The NCOs from Sector Adam briefed on the items below:
 - a. Motorcycle thefts are up, it is recommended that you lock the bikes or store them in a driveway
 - b. Car break-ins are still occurring, don't leave anything valuable showing, from a jacket to loose change especially around Bronx Park East strip
 - c. Honda Accords are still being targeted for their rims and tires, be aware of double parked vans, if you see something, say something
 - d. License plates thefts- keep an eye on your plate
 - e. Check fraud now expanding to businesses. Two businesses targeted recently in our area
 - f. Mailbox theft/fishing still an issue
 - g. Car thefts occurring, victims going to the store and leaving their car running
 - h. Homicide occurred a few hours before the meeting, not much information available
 - i. Homeless man on Morris Park Avenue was offered clothes and services from the NYPD

- j. Marijuana law relaxed, not enforcing it as an arrest in most incidents
 - k. Speakers are no longer being confiscated for loud music complaints
 - l. Successful Eid event at Brady Playground
2. The committee reviewed the letter that was being sent to the elected officials requesting NYPD security cameras.
 3. 1500 Waters Pl update: The reports were analyzed by NYPD and another meeting is scheduled for July or August.

Next Public Safety Committee meeting is tentatively scheduled for September 18, 2018
