BROOKLYN COMMUNITY BOARD 6 YOUTH SERVICES/EDUCATION COMMITTEE'S

ROBERT ACITO AWARD FOR YOUTH INVOLVEMENT

2017 APPLICATION FORM

Former District Manager Robert Acito who served from 1980-1993 had in his lifetime demonstrated a strong commitment to the young people of his district. Therefore, the CB6 Youth/Human Services/Education Committee has chosen to honor Bob's memory by selecting an adult member of the community who by volunteering their time has demonstrated a deep concern for children.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Nominees must be an adult;
- They must volunteer in or sponsor programs or activities that benefit the youth of Brooklyn Community Board 6; and
- They must receive no stipends for their acts;
- Board Members and District Office staff are ineligible

APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR NOMINATORS:

- Complete the Nomination Form on the back of this application.
- Make sure you sign the completed form.
- Make sure your form is postmarked no later than April 7, 2017. You may also fax [(718) 624-8410] or hand deliver your form to the District Office by that date.
- Only volunteers will be considered eligible for this award.
- All applications will be reviewed by a subcommittee of the CB6 Youth/Human Services/Education Committee. The subcommittee will select the recipient of the Robert Acito Award for Youth Involvement. The decision of the subcommittee is final.
- Recipients will be notified in April and will be expected to attend the CB6 general meeting at 6:15 pm on Wednesday, May 10, 2017 to receive their award.
