

SERVICE UPDATE

After-Hours Variance Processing + Payments

Beginning September 19, we are consolidating the After-Hour Variance (AHV) permit processing and payments. The Manhattan Borough Office will process these applications and accept the fee payments at the customer service windows on the third floor, under the current “J” After-hours ticket.

AHV Renewals

Registered contractors and tradespeople may renew AHV permits online by using eFiling. To use this service, register with eFiling at nyc.gov/buildings. Users can complete the AHV renewal form online, pay by credit card and print the new AHV permit. Only users registered as a contractor or tradesperson are eligible to use this renewal service.

To learn more, visit the After-Hours Variance page in the Applications and Processing section of the Department’s website at nyc.gov/buildings.
