

NYC CIVILIAN COMPLAINT REVIEW BOARD

The NYC Civilian Complaint Review Board is the nation's largest independent oversight entity of the largest police force in the country.

The CCRB investigates, mediates, and prosecutes complaints of misconduct against members of the NYPD.

The Agency is governed by a 15-member board with five seats appointed by the Mayor, five appointed by the NYC City Council, three designated by the Police Commissioner, one appointed by the Public Advocate, and the Chair is appointed jointly by the Mayor and City Council.

What Types of Allegations are Within the CCRB's Jurisdiction?

The CCRB investigates abuses of:

Force

Authority

Discourtesy

Offensive language

IMPORTANT UPDATE

as of January 1st 2024

On September 9, 2023 the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) announced citywide budget cuts. As a result, the CCRB is no longer able to fully investigate certain cases within its jurisdiction. After careful consideration, effective January 1, 2024, the CCRB suspended investigating:

- Failure to provide RTKA cards with no other allegations;
- Refusal to provide name or shield number with no other allegations;
- Discourteous words or actions with no other allegations;
- Threats with no action with no other allegations;
- Refusal to process a civilian complaint with no other allegations;
- Property seizures with no other allegations;
- Forcible removal to hospital with no other allegations;
- Untruthful statements with no other allegations;
- Any complaint that has only the above referenced allegations.

The CCRB will resume investigating these cases as soon as the city allocates sufficient funding to do so.

If a complaint contains one of the above allegations in addition to other allegations that still fall within CCRB jurisdiction, every allegation in the complaint will still be investigated.
