CCRB to Hold Public Hearing on Proposed Rules like Investigating Bias-Based Policing and Self-Initiating Complaints

The CCRB will allow for public comment on its proposed rule changes during its July board meeting.

NEW YORK – Tomorrow, the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) will host its monthly board meeting updating the public on Agency news. The meeting will also consist of a section dedicated to public comment on the CCRB’s proposed rule changes. The changes will, among other things, allow the agency to self-initiate complaints, investigate bias based policing, racial profiling and improper use of Body Worn Cameras, simplify the language related to dispositions, and make the investigative process more transparent. On the CCRB website, find memorandums detailing specific rule changes and the proposed rules.

You can download testimony in response to the CCRB’s proposed changes below:

- Bronx Defenders

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
