* Cases resolved by the police department in a particular year often stem from CCRB referrals from earlier years.

** The police commissioner did not impose a penalty against an officer who was found guilty after trial stemming from a case the CCRB referred in 2005. Therefore, the total number of penalties for cases the department closed in 2005 (341) is lower than the total number of officers (342) against whom the department took disciplinary action.

Table 33: Average Days for the Police Department to Close Substantiated CCRB Cases* 2005 - 2009

CCRB	2005		2006		2007		2008		2009

*The time it takes the NYPD to resolve substantiated cases is measured from the date that the CCRB physically transferred the case file to the department until the last day of the month in which the department closed the case. The department does not inform the CCRB of its actual disposition date—just the month in which it closed the case. In addition, when the Department Advocate's Office refers a case to a commanding officer for the imposition of a command discipline, the NYPD considers the case closed and reports that closure to the CCRB. It is subsequent to this closure date that the commanding officer decides upon a penalty consistent with the level of command discipline proscribed by the Department Advocate's Office. For cases that proceeded to administrative hearings, the time it takes for judges to render written decisions is included in calculating the department's closure time.
