

Tax Day was April 18. However, you can still file your 2016 tax return for free online (nyc.gov/taxprep) or at an NYC Free Tax Prep site, see below for more information. If you owe the government money, be aware that late filing penalties apply.

File your taxes safely and for free in person at your local NYC Free Tax Prep site.

Tax Preparation Service Options

- In Person: At these sites, an IRS certified VITA/TCE volunteer preparer will help you file your taxes. Sites offering this service have varying income eligibility requirements, please refer to site details. For most sites, you must earn $54,000 or less with children or $30,000 or less without children.
- Drop-off Service: At these sites, you can drop off your tax documents and pick up the completed return later. Sites offering this service have varying income eligibility requirements, please refer to site details. For most sites, annual income of $54,000 or less.
- Assisted Self-Preparation: At these sites, an IRS certified VITA/TCE volunteer preparer will help you do your own taxes online. You must earn $64,000 or less annually and have a valid email address to use this service.

Note: Some NYC Free Tax Prep sites have special services if:

- You are self-employed.
- You are applying for an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number.
- You are a senior over age 60 with pension or retirement-related questions.
- You need to file or change your return from a previous tax year.

Sites are sorted by borough.
