Businesses licensed by the Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) must comply with all relevant local, state and federal laws. Copies of New York City licensing and consumer protection laws are available in person at DCA's Licensing Center, located at 42 Broadway, 5th Floor, New York, NY, by calling 311, New York City's 24 hour Citizen Service Hotline, or by going online at www.nyc.gov/consumers. License application requirements for employment agencies are available at www.nyc.gov/html/dca/html/licenses/034.shtml.

By signing this agreement, Respondent agrees to cease all illegal unlicensed activities and immediately apply for the required license. If Respondent is not required to be licensed by DCA, Respondent agrees to cease all illegal activities. This payment agreement will include interest calculated at 1.5% per month added to the remaining principal.

If DCA does not receive one of the Respondent's scheduled payments subsequent to the initial payment within 5 days of its due date, DCA will add a $50 late charge to the amount owed, due at the next scheduled payment. Associated interest charges will also apply to said late charge.

If Respondent is late making a second payment during the life of a pay-out agreement or becomes 30 days past due, Respondent will be assessed a second charge of $100 and the agreement balance will automatically be accelerated, the entire balance thus becoming due immediately.

If Respondent's check for any payment in a pay-out agreement is returned by the bank for insufficient funds, Respondent will be assessed a bounced check charge (100% of the bank charge assessed to DCA) and the agreement balance will automatically be accelerated, the entire balance thus becoming due immediately.

Respondent agrees that if Respondent defaults on any payment provided for herein and if Respondent is a licensee of DCA, Respondent's license(s) will be automatically suspended. Respondent further waives any right to a hearing pursuant to Section 20-104(e), Chapter 1 Title 20 of the Administrative Code based upon such default.

If full payment of the fine amount is received by the Department within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of settlement, the 1.5% interest will be waived.

In the event that payments are received for this agreement after the decision has been vacated and the matter has been remanded for a new hearing, such payments will be held by the agency pending the outcome of the new hearing. The respondent will not be subjected to late fees if the decision is vacated. Upon issuance of a new decision, or if the respondent settles the charges rather than attending the hearing, the respondent will be notified of any fine modification and will receive a refund if payments received exceed the new fine amount.
