

Homeless Services Community Outreach Day

Saturday, January 30th

10 AM–4 PM

Tompkins Square Library

331 East 10th Street, Manhattan

Please join The New York Public Library and the NYC Department of Homeless Services for a Community Outreach Day.

This day-long event will provide access to programming and resources including:

- SUS Homebase
- Employment services
- Veterans' benefits
- Urban Justice Centre
- Manhattan Outreach Consortium
- Mainchance Drop-In Center
- IDNYC information
- The Moth Community Storytelling Program
- Free refreshments and swag bags
- And more!

The event will also feature the unveiling of “Through the Eyes of the Homeless” at the Tompkins Square Library, which will be on display in the Community Room for the coming month. This exhibition, a collaboration between Heart Gallery NYC and DHS, utilizes photography to empower and raise awareness of individuals within the NYC homeless population.

For more information, please contact Tyler Smith, Library Manager at 212-228-4747. All public Library programs are free of charge.
