Job Description

The NYC Department of Homeless Services (DHS) seeks a Housing Specialist (Community Coordinator) for the Flatlands Residence within the Family Services Division. The selected candidate will provide for the provision of housing placement services to shelter residents in accordance with regulatory mandates and agency standards. S/he will be responsible for ensuring that a continuum of care exists within the program components. The selected candidate will be responsible for managing a caseload of housing ready clients through the CARES database, and assisting the clients with securing independent housing. S/he will develop and maintain relationships with brokers and realtors to find suitable housing options for clients. S/he will also accompany clients to meet with landlords, brokers, agents, and to Supportive Housing interviews to assist in navigating the rental process.

Qualification Requirements
