Job Description

The NYC Department of Homeless Services, Division of Family Services seeks 1 Community Coordinator to serve as Permanency Specialists in Transitional Services. The primary function of the Permanency Specialist is to provide families in shelter with multifaceted, on-site assistance to ensure that they achieve and remain stable in permanent housing. Permanency Specialist will use their own interpersonal and time management skills to effectively serve a large number of families in temporary shelter with varying needs. The selected candidate will have a strong working knowledge of the various New York City agencies, nonprofit partners, and diverse challenges that low-income families face. Under general supervision and with wide latitude for independent action, the Permanency Specialist duties will include but not be limited to the following: work closely with families identified upon entry into shelter as needing additional support to ensure exit and stability in permanent housing, including short and long-term interventions i.e. education, employment, aftercare; facilitate team decision-making meetings with various stakeholders, including family members and friends and shelter staff to plan for permanency in the community; work closely with providers, including housing specialists, case workers and social workers to expedite housing permanency; provide training and support for shelter providers; build and facilitate relationships between the Permanency Support Unit, other DHS units, sister agencies, and external partners and CBOs that can support families' needs; report regularly to a Program Administrator concerning the progress of each family on assigned caseload and make recommendations to Program Administrator to move individual families towards permanency; and document and assess client needs and progress.

Qualification Requirements

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college and two years of experience in community work or community centered activities in an area related to the duties described above; or
2. High school graduation or equivalent and six years of experience in community work or community centered activities in an area related to the duties as described above; or
3. Education and/or experience which is equivalent to "1" or "2" above. However, all candidates must have at least one year of experience as described in "1" above.
