Boldest Hit Home Run at Cyclones Game

On Thursday, August 20, Correction Officers and their families came to the MCU Stadium on Coney Island to take part in Correction Officer Night at the Brooklyn Cyclones game. The officers took turns throwing out the ceremonial first pitch three at a time. DOC was welcomed to the park by Brooklyn Borough President Eric Adams and the DOC Ceremonial Unit presented the flag while Officer Evelyn Gainous sang the National Anthem. Topping off a perfect night, the Cyclones won in extra innings.
