Know what starts your asthma.
Inform your doctor about symptoms.
Control frequent symptoms by using long-term control medicines and staying away from tobacco smoke and other triggers.
Keep regular doctor’s visits & ask for a written “Asthma Action Plan.”

Talk to your doctor or call 311 for more information.