

TUBERCULOSIS IN NEW YORK CITY, 1953

C O N T E N T S

	Page
Tuberculosis morbidity and mortality, New York City	2
New cases of tuberculosis reported	4
Cases according to race	5
Source of report	6
Prevalence of tuberculosis by health center districts	7
In hospitals, sanatoria and ambulant	8
Tuberculosis register	9
Old and new cases during year	9
Age and sex of cases in register	9
Health center districts and type of care	10
Tuberculosis hospital facilities	11
TB beds, patient census, Dec. 31, 1953	12
Patient census, tuberculosis hospitals, since 1930	12a
Hospitalization for tuberculosis, New York City residents, 1947-1953.	14
Type of care	15
Clinic patients, private physicians cases	16
Trends in forms of treatment	17
Patients leaving against advice	19
Total discharged alive or dead from hospitals	20
Hospital mortality rates	21
Condition on admission	23
Condition on discharge	24
Cost of tuberculosis	25
X-ray examinations for tuberculosis	30
New steps by the City of New York	34
Tuberculosis mortality	37
Health center districts	38

ADDENDA:

TUBERCULOSIS

- New cases and deaths, 1952 and 1953
 - United States, Upstate New York, State of New Jersey
 - Large American cities
- Beds (1953), new cases and deaths (1952)
 - Each state and the United States
- Hospitals, public and private, beds and average census
 - United States, 1942-1953
- Mortality among residents, by race, 50 American cities, year 1950
- Hospital beds in North and South American countries
- Hospital beds, deaths and B.C.G. immunization
 - Selected countries of the world, mainly for years 1950-1952

* * *
* *
*

v. 11501.