

Junior Division

1st Place: Storming Steppers - NIA/New Voices – Brooklyn – Female Empowerment

The ladies of Storming Steppers are standing up for female empowerment. The team has taken their message to their community, across the city, and nationwide, speaking to female leaders in media and business – including Ida Siegal of NBC News and Kierna Mayo of Ebony Magazine. Check out their girl power pledge on Instagram at @stormingsteppers.

Social Campaign Mini-Documentary

2nd Place: Something Else - Manhattan Youth at Lower Manhattan Community Middle School – Manhattan – Racial Equality

Something Else stands up for racial equality. Their #IAMSomethingElseChallenge encourages communities to celebrate how all people are special in unique and different ways. Follow them on Instagram at @something_else_lmc.

Social Campaign Mini-Documentary

3rd Place: Diversity - Sports & Arts in Schools Foundation at School of the Future – Brooklyn – Social Networking and Teen Self-Esteem

They are Diversity!

They are different and unique in our own way!

They are using stepping as an expression to empower & inspire other youth!

Social Campaign Mini-Documentary

Senior Division

1st Place: Who's Stoppin' Us – SCAN Clinton Community Center – Manhattan – Safe Communities

Who's Stoppin' Us is a dance team from Harlem, New York. The team is standing up for safety and respect in their communities. Follow them on Instagram at @whosstoppinus, and use their hashtag #WSUSafetyFirst to share how you take action for safe communities.

Social Campaign Mini-Documentary

2nd Place: Glamorous Barbies – St. Nicks Alliance Greenpoint Beacon Center – Brooklyn – Feminism

Glamorous Barbies' mission is to give young women who all share the passion of dance a space to come and engage in healthy competition. We also seek to encourage the young women to build stronger bonds with their peers in effort to promote peer-to-peer growth and development.

Social Campaign Mini-Documentary

3rd Place: Standard Collaboration – Sports & Arts in Schools Foundation at MS 462 X – Bronx – Equal Justice for Unity

Standard Collaboration is dedicated to providing positive experiences to elementary through college students through the power of performing arts. They strive to bring together staff, participants, board members, and communities as they work with young people to build self-esteem, confidence, lasting friendships, and memories. They take great care in ensuring that every student is challenged and encouraged regardless of age, experience level, or background.

Social Campaign Mini-Documentary