

Social Innovation Fund – Connections to Care – Review Team

Each Connections to Care (C2C) proposal was reviewed and scored by members of the review committee, which was composed of members from the Mayor’s Fund to Advance New York City, The NYC Center for Economic Opportunity, the NYC Department of the Health and Mental Hygiene, RAND Corporation (the selected C2C evaluator), New York University’s McSilver Institute for Poverty Policy & Research (the C2C technical assistance provider), experts in mental health and individuals with experience working with the target populations outlined in the Request For Proposals (RFP). Each reviewer independently scored each application according to pre-determined evaluation criteria outlined in the RFP.

Lynsay Ayer, Behavioral and Social Scientist, RAND Corporation

Shirley Berger, Research and Policy Coordinator, NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Addavail Coslett, Program Director, Chapman Perelman Foundation

Kelly Dougherty, Assistant Commissioner, NYC Department of Small Business Services

Monika Eros-Sarnyai, Best Practices Specialist, NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Anna Gorman, Programs and Policy Manager, Mayor's Fund to Advance NYC

Sidney Hankerson, Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychiatry, NYS Psychiatric Institute, Columbia University

Patrick Hart, Senior Advisor, NYC Center for Economic Opportunity

Mary McKay, Director, NYU McSilver Institute for Poverty Policy and Research

Micaela Mercado, Senior Research Associate, NYU McSilver Institute for Poverty Policy and Research

Taiye Nelson, NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Vivian Towe, Associate Policy Researcher, RAND Corporation

Shammara Wright, Senior Advisor, NYC Center for Economic Opportunity

Lena Verdeli, Associate Professor of Psychology and Education, Teachers College, Columbia University