Basic Information

Procurement Title: Anti-Harassment Tenant Protection Legal Services Program

Agency: Human Resources Administration

Agency Email Contact: cedenos@hra.nyc.gov

Procurement Description:

The Human Resources Administration's (HRA) Homelessness Prevention Administration is seeking qualified legal service providers to provide Anti-Harassment Tenant Protection services in designated service areas in all five boroughs. To provide these services, HRA is seeking legal service providers who have experience providing anti-harassment and displacement legal services in Housing Court and effectively representing a high volume of tenants in housing matters, including conducting trials and appeals.

The Anti-Harassment Tenant Protection Legal Services Program will provide access to legal advice and assistance to residents currently living in designated service areas in order to prevent tenant harassment and displacement, keep families and individuals in their homes, and maintain affordable housing. By directly providing counsel to resolve problems pre-litigation and, if necessary, for representation in Housing Court to those identified as victims of harassment in these neighborhoods, the City will protect tenants from displacement, preserve affordable housing, and stabilize neighborhoods.
