

NYC Department of Records Visitor Center invites you to attend

FREDERICKA MANDELBAUM
& THE 19TH CENTURY UNDERWORLD

RESEARCH IN THE MUNICIPAL ARCHIVES

A LECTURE BY
PROFESSOR FRED VIEHE
YOUNGSTOWN STATE UNIVERSITY

The notorious Fredericka Mandelbaum aka "Marm Mandelbaum" arrived in Manhattan from Germany in 1849. Her criminal activities in the 19th century garnered her the title of "Queen of Fences." In 1884, she escaped to Canada with an estimated $1 million, avoiding trial in New York. Learn more about this amazing 19th century woman and her criminal empire on the Lower East Side.

Thursday, July 17th, 2014, 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Surrogate's Court Building
31 Chambers Street, Suite 112
New York, NY

Please RSVP by Monday, July 14th
to visitorcenter@records.nyc.gov or 212-788-8609