

Do you want to reduce energy costs? Need a loan for a new boiler? Wonder if you qualify for a property tax abatement? Have a building with code violations? Join NYC's Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) and its partner, Community League of the Heights (CLOTH) at a

Landlord Resource Fair

Featuring HPD's New "Green" Finance Program and the Neighborhood Help Desk: Offering Building Finance solutions

Meet one-on-one with representatives from government, non-profit agencies and public utilities to sign up for financing and incentive programs that help you repair, upgrade and save money and energy.

Wednesday, September 16th, 2015
6:30 - 8:00 PM
Isabella Geriatric Center,
515 Audubon Ave. NYC 10040

Subway: #1 train to the 191st St. station Buses: M101 or M3 to 190th St.

HPD offers 30+ podcasts, videos, in-person & on-line classes on subjects such as property management, making homes safer for seniors & babies; managing bed bugs, roaches and rodents; window guards, mold, and more. Visit www.nyc.gov/hpd and click on "Owners", then "Resources", and then "Owner Outreach and Education."

Department of Housing Preservation
& Development

 facebook/NYCHPD twitter.com/nychousing

The City of New York
Department of Housing Preservation and Development
Bill de Blasio, Mayor
Alicia Glen, Deputy Mayor
for Economic Development and Housing
Vicki Been, Commissioner

Community League Of The Heights