Job Description

The New York City Department of Correction (DOC) provides for the care, custody, and control of persons accused of crimes or convicted and sentenced to one year or less of jail time. The Department manages 12 inmate facilities, 9 of which are located on Rikers Island. In addition, the Department operates two hospital Prison Wards (Bellevue and Elmhurst hospitals) and court holding facilities in each borough.

The DOC seeks to recruit a candidate to serve as Education Specialist. Under the supervision of the Executive Director for Educational Services, with some latitude for independent action, the candidate selected will be responsible for the daily coordination of inmate educational services on Rikers Island. Incumbent will perform duties to include but not limited to:

- Coordinating and supporting the daily operations of mandated and non-mandated educational services offered by the Department of Education, the Office of Adult and Continuing Education, the Horticultural Society of New York, education volunteers, providers of college preparation instruction, providers of education transitional services and other partnering agencies, by conducting daily field visits to assist efforts of recruitment, implementation, operation, and compliance;
- On an on-going-basis, conduct surveys and focus groups of young adults and adults to ensure their educational needs are met by the providers of educational and transitional services; offer recommendations on how best to strengthen on-going services, make modifications, and/or identify and integrate new services as a result of results obtained from these engagement sessions;
- Assisting with the efforts of the unit in its research, identification, and integration of best practices and evidence-based programming in the field of education and other areas within the Division and successfully used within correctional settings and the juvenile justice system;
- Conducting internal quality audits to ensure mandates and/or expectations set by the Department and partnering agencies are regularly met; provide guidance and recommendations to meet the goals of educational components and work closely with providers and Departmental staff when deficiencies are identified in order to develop a plan of action to ensure the success of;
- Assisting with the planning and execution of extra-curricular activities and/or events planned by providers as a way to incentivize young adults such as Career Days, Family Days, Field Days, Parents-Teachers Conferences, performances, end of semester ceremonies and the annual congregate graduation ceremony;
- Preparing, submitting and monitoring reports as required by the Department to include, but not limited to: the MFMR, Indicators Report, and operational weekly, monthly, and quarterly reports;
- Assisting with the preparation and facilitation of internal and/or interagency training sessions that would result in a stronger operation of services, as well as partnerships;
- Support the work of the Executive Director and perform related duties as assigned.

Minimum Qualification Requirements

1. A four year high school diploma or its educational equivalent and five years of satisfactory full-time experience providing direct counseling, guidance, crisis-intervention or informational and referral services, to inmates of a correctional facility, substance abusers or a similar client population; or
2. Education and experience equivalent to “1” above. Thirty (30) semester credits from an accredited college will be considered equivalent to one year of the required experience. However, all candidates must have a four year high school diploma or its educational equivalent and at least two years of experience as described in “1” above.

Preferred Skills

- Ability to organize and administer projects with non-agency partners;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills, interpersonal skills, problem-solving and decision-making skills;
- Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint) proficiency.
