Unit: Office of Inspector General for the NYPD	Work location: 80 Maiden Lane, Manhattan
Office Title: Policy Analyst
Number of Positions: 1	Salary: $48,674.00 to $ 60,000.00 Commensurate with Experience

Job Description

The Department of Investigation’s Office of Inspector General for the New York Police Department (“Office” or “OIG-NYPD”) is authorized to “investigate, review, study, audit and make recommendations relating to the operations, policies, programs and practices,” of the NYPD, with the goals of enhancing effectiveness of the police department, increasing public safety, protecting civil liberties and civil rights, and increasing the public’s confidence in the police force.

OIG-NYPD is seeking a Policy Analyst to review selected operations, policies, programs, and practices of the NYPD. The Policy Analyst, using a data-driven approach and at times working with the Office’s investigative unit, will identify areas of concern and where improvements are needed in how NYPD carries out its law enforcement responsibilities. The Policy Analyst, along with other policy analysts in the unit, will further develop recommendations for reforms in policing, based on best practices and other research. The Policy Analyst will also monitor and produce reports documenting the extent to which NYPD implements, or does not implement, the Office’s recommendations.

The Policy Analyst must have strong research, analytics, and communication skills and be adept at conveying complex policy issues to other OIG-NYPD staff members and to a lay audience.

The Policy Analyst will sit within OIG-NYPD’s Policy Analysis unit and will work on multi-disciplinary teams including auditors, investigators, data analysts, and attorneys. The successful Policy Analyst candidate will be conscientious, detail-oriented, self-motivated, and flexible enough to perform effectively both independently and as part of a multi-disciplinary team.

Qualifications

- A 4-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent and four years of satisfactory full-time experience in the field of investigation, auditing, law enforcement, security, inspection, or a related field; or
- A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college; or
- Education and/or experience equivalent to “1” or “2” above; and
- Strong written and oral communication skills

Preferred Skills

- Experience conducting policy reviews or analysis
- Advanced degree in a social science or related field, and a background in conducting policy reviews for a government or non-profit organization
- Knowledge of, and demonstrated interest in, law, law enforcement, criminal justice, police oversight, and/or civil rights issues
- Excellent judgment and confidence to discuss law enforcement policies and procedures with internal and external stakeholders
- Familiarity with NYPD procedures a plus
- Experience with quantitative and qualitative research methods
- Knowledge of statistical software packages
- Strong written and oral communication skills
