

New York City Deferred Compensation Plan/NYCE IRA Mobile Web Application

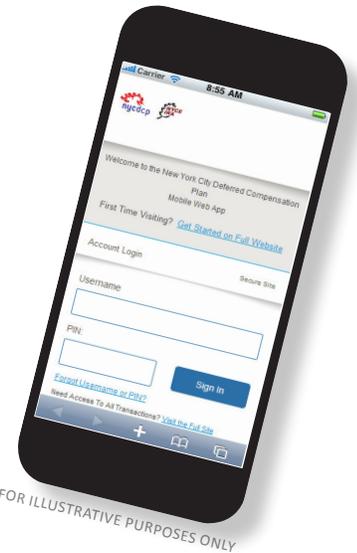

The Deferred Compensation Plan has come to your phone!

The NYC Deferred Compensation Plan has launched a new mobile web application (“mobile web app”) designed to provide you with easy access to your NYC Deferred Compensation and NYCE IRA account information - even when you’re on-the-go!

Just visit nyc.gov/DCPmobile from your smartphone and the web app will automatically launch, giving you the ability to view your:

- Account balance and history
- Paycheck contribution amount
- Current rate of return
- Investment options

Plus, every page of the mobile web app has a link to the full site for access to perform account transactions.

CONVENIENCE AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

To access the mobile web application, you must be a registered user on the full version of the website. It’s quick and easy to register. Simply visit nyc.gov/DCPmobile and go to “First Time Visiting.” To make it even easier, you can bookmark the site or create a shortcut icon on your mobile desktop for quick access. Refer to the “Add an Icon” link on the mobile web app if you need instructions to create the shortcut icon.

Mobile technology has become a part of everyday life, and now the NYC DCP mobile web app helps put your financial future in good hands—your own.

* The appearance of the bookmarked or shortcut icon may vary depending on your phone’s Operating System and browser.
