Pursuant to Section 3020.8(a) and (b) of the City Charter, the City Planning Commission shall submit to the City Council a report with respect to the relation of the designation by the Landmarks Preservation Commission, whether of a historic district or a landmark, to the Zoning Resolution, projected public improvements, and any plans for the development, growth, improvement or renewal of the area involved.

On June 23, 2015, the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission (LPC) designated the Riverside-West End Historic District Extension (List 483, LP-2464). The Historic District encompasses all or part of 31 blocks generally located west of Broadway between West 87th and 108th Streets in Manhattan, Community District 7. It consists of approximately 344 residential and institutional buildings. The boundaries of the extension encompass and extend the boundaries of both the Riverside-West End Historic District, which was designated by the Landmarks Preservation Commission in 1989, and the Riverside-West 105th Street Historic District, which was designated by the Landmarks Preservation Commission in 1973.

Riverside West End Historic District Extension II has a remarkably cohesive character, shaped by its two main spines, Riverside Drive and West End Avenue, which are lined by large apartment buildings creating a strong streetwall, with some small clusters of row houses and mansions dating to the area's earlier periods of development. The side streets knit together the two great avenues. In its array of residential building types the proposed extension represents, in microcosm, the development of the Upper West Side of Manhattan since the 1890s. Designed by some of the city's most prominent architects and executed in the dominant styles of their eras, these buildings form a distinct section of the city that complements the previously designated Riverside-West End and Riverside-West 105th Street Historic Districts.

This Historic District extension lies within Community District 7. The Historic District contains non-contextual R8 zoning along West End Avenue and Riverside Drive north of West 9th Street, and along the midblocks from West 89th to West 97th Streets. Under quality housing regulations, R8 allows for a maximum 7.2 FAR of residential, a streetwall of up to 85 feet and a building height of 120 feet. Under height factor regulations, R8 under height factor regulations allows a maximum 6.02 FAR of residential, open space ratios from 5.9 to 11.9, and maximum heights governed by the sky exposure plane. Other parts of the Historic District are mapped within contextual zoning districts. This includes R8B zoning along most of the midblocks north of West 97th Street. R8B allows 4.0 FAR of residential and community facility uses, a streetwall height between 55 and 60 feet and a maximum building height of 75 feet. The Historic District contains a small amount of contextual R9A zoning on a block bounded by West 106th Street, Broadway, West 105th Street, and West End Avenue. This block also includes a C1-5 overlay and is mapped within the Special Enhanced Commercial District 3. R9A allows up to 7.52 of residential FAR, a maximum streetwall height of 102 feet, and a maximum building height of 145 feet. The C1-5 overlay allows for 2.0 of the available 7.52 FAR to be designated for commercial use. There are additional provisions for the Special Enhanced Commercial District 3 that include ground floor frontage limitations for new and expanding banks and residential lobbies, and retail transparency requirements for new buildings. The Historic District has R10A contextual zoning along Riverside Drive, most of West End Avenue, and portions of the midblocks south of West 97th Street. R10A permits 10.0 FAR for residential and community facility uses and a building height of up to 210 feet along a wide street. The Historic District also contains some R10A zoning with a C2-5 overlay on the northeast corner of West 96th Street and Riverside Drive. The C2-5 overlay allows for 2.0 of the available 10.0 FAR to be designated for commercial use.

On October 25, 2011, the Landmarks Preservation Commission held a public hearing on the proposed designation of the Riverside-West End Historic District Extension II (Item No. 3). Twenty-seven people spoke in favor of the designation, as proposed, including the Council Member representing the 9th District and the State Senator representing the 31st District. Three people spoke in opposition to the designation. The Commission received approximately 336 letters and e-mails regarding designation of the Riverside-West End Historic District Extension II. Of the total, five were opposed to designation and one owner requested removal of her building from the district. 210 letters and e-mails were in favor of the designation and opposed to any modification of the original boundaries of the district. An additional 48 letters focused on retaining P.S. 75 within the boundaries.

All landmark buildings within the Historic District are eligible to apply for use and bulk waivers pursuant to Section 74-711 of the Zoning Resolution.

CITY PLANNING COMMISSION PUBLIC HEARING

Pursuant to Section 3020.8(a) of the City Charter, the City Planning Commission held a public hearing on August 5, 2015 (Calendar No. 21). There were six speakers in favor of the designation of the Historic District, including the Manhattan Borough President, the Council Member representing the 6th District, and representatives of Landmarks West, the Historic Districts Council, the West End Preservation Society and Manhattan Community District 7. Each of the speakers in favor also opposed modification of the original boundaries of the district. There were no other speakers and the hearing was closed.

CONSIDERATION

The City Planning Commission has evaluated the Riverside-West End Historic District Extension II in relation to the Zoning Resolution, projected public improvements and plans for the development, growth and improvements in the vicinity of the area involved. The Commission's jurisdiction regarding historic districts is limited to determining whether there is a conflict with the Zoning Resolution, projected public improvements, or local development plans, and it does not have the authority to modify the boundaries of the proposed district. The subject Historic District does not conflict with the Zoning Resolution. In addition, the Commission is not aware of any conflicts between the subject Historic District designation and projected public improvements or any plans for development, growth, improvement, or renewal in the vicinity of the Historic District.
