

Volunteer with the NYC Parks Stewardship Program

PLANT. PROTECT. PRESERVE.

NYC Parks hosts stewards across the city all year long, in every landscape and every kind of weather. Volunteers help care for street trees to promote long-term tree health.

See details below for an upcoming event:

What: Long Island City Mulchfest and Street Tree Care

Where: Hunter's Point South Park – 51st Ave and Center Blvd

When: Friday, January, 5th 11:00 am – 1:00 pm

HELP NYC BECOME GREENER AND GREATER.
