

ACCESS TO INDEPENDENCE

A Transportation Expo

The New York City Mayor's Office for People with Disabilities (MOPD) in collaboration with the New York City Department of Transportation (NYCDOT) cordially invite you to: ACCESS TO INDEPENDENCE

"Access to Independence is an Accessible Transportation Expo Designed to Educate the Public About Accessible Transportation Options Available in New York City"

September 30, 2014

10 AM - 2 PM

Columbus Park, Downtown Brooklyn, NY
(North side of the park)

Columbus Park is adjacent to Brooklyn Borough Hall

Access to Independence Exhibitors Include:

- NYC Department of Transportation (NYCDOT)
- MTA New York City Transit
- MTA Access-A-Ride
- NYC Taxi & Limousine Commission
- NYC Department of Education
- Jewish Community Council of Greater Coney Island
- Interagency Council of Developmental Disabilities Agencies (IAC)

Directions:

By Subway: 2,3,4,5 to Borough Hall, entrance/exits are within the park. R to Court St, walk one block east towards Cadman Plaza W. A,C,F, R to Jay St-MetroTech, walk two block west towards Adams St.

By Bus: The following Brooklyn bus routes are adjacent to the park 25, 26, 38, 41, 45, 52, 57, and 103. Please check with the MTA for additional bus routes.

Contact Information

To participate, please register online at: www.nyc.gov/mopd or call 311

JEWISH COMMUNITY COUNCIL OF GREATER CONEY ISLAND
A Community-Based Organization with a Citywide Impact

