2009 P2 Client Periodic Report

Lobbyist Name: Fordham University

Client Name: Fordham University

Subject Details

Fordham is engaged in seeking and obtaining certain land-use and zoning approvals for the redevelopment and growth of its Lincoln Center CAmpus in Manhattan, through the NYC Uniform Land Use & Review Procedure (ULURP) coordinated by the City Planning Commission (CPC) and the Department of City Planning (DCP). The Actions and relief sought include the granting of special permits for waivers of height and setback regulations, modifications of the requirements relating to the dimensions of inner and outer courts, modifications of minimum distance between buildings, modification of the minimum distance between legally required windows and certain walls and the minimum distance between legally required windows and zoning lot lines. Taken together these actions, approvals and the ensuing relief granted will enable Fordham to implement its Master Plan for the re-development and growth of its Lincoln Center Campus. During the stage of ULURP underway in this reporting period, the CPC conducted Review Session, held a formal Public Hearing, and unanimously approved a modified version of Fordham's request pursuant to a compromise crafted by the Manhattan Borough President with further amendments required by DCP. The proposal now moves forward for consideration, review and final approval by the New York City Council, which is now pending
