Subject Details

Fordham was engaged in seeking and obtaining the final stage of special permits and Zoning text amendment approvals under the Uniform Land Use Review Process (ULURP) for certain land-use and zoning actions at the NYC Council that will permit the redesign, redevelopment and growth of its campus at Lincoln Center in Manhattan. During this stage of the ULURP Process, the City Council Land-use and Zoning sub-Committee held a public hearing on the matter on 05/12/09 at which Fordham and its supporters presented testimony, along with opponents of the project. Then the subcommittee and the Full land -Use Committee held a formal vote that unanimously approved the Special permits with certain conditions and modifications (06/10/09) and referred the modifications back to the City Planning Commission (CPC) and the Department of City Planning for review and re-approval (05/16/09). Then after the CPC Review and consent, the full New York City Council unanimously voted its approval of the Special Permits and the Text Amendment (06/30/09).
