Office of Community Partnerships

150 William Street

New York, New York 10038

Greetings,

On Friday, March 28, 2014, The Office of Early Care and Education and Preventive Partnerships will host an important Learning Community Seminar. The focus of the seminar will be Domestic Violence and its Impact on our Youngest Children and Their Families. The seminar will be held at 150 William Street, in the Manhattan Room on the 19th Floor. We are asking that you select two staff from your management team to represent your agency.

This extraordinary learning opportunity promises to be extremely worthwhile for those of us who are committed to positively impacting, strengthening and changing the lives of our at-risk young children and their parents. Your team will have the opportunity to participate with their colleagues from across the city to share and learn new approaches and practices for working more effectively with this growing population. Our featured presenters for this seminar are:

Morning Presentation

Shania Kapoor, Ed.D.

National Criminal Justice Training Center

Washington, DC

Subject Matter Expert, Training and Technical Assistance

Consultant

This presentation will focus on the impact of domestic violence on children prenatally through five years old. The focus will be on their development across physical, social, and emotional domains including overall health, attachment, and functioning. The presenter will also discuss the impact of domestic violence on parenting by both the survivor and offending parent.

Staff from Safe Horizon, the nation's leading not for profit victim assistance organization, will help us to better understand Domestic Violence in New York City.

Afternoon

Karina P Diaz, LCAT, ATR

Erin Salvatore, LCSW

Family Therapists

Sanctuary for Families

New York City Family Justice Center in Queens

This dynamic team of presenters will focus solely on the impact of violence on our youngest children.

Please call me at 212-341-9023 to register or email me at mbartlett@acs.nyc.gov;

Dear Community Partners:

Edwin Gould Services for Children & Families would like to take this opportunity to wish you a wonderful new year and to thank you for your partnership and support. As a reminder, Edwin Gould Services for Children & Families (EGSCF) is a human service agency. EGSCF has an array of services, designed to address the complexities that often lead to family disintegration. EGSCF provides permanency and adoption services for at-risk families (foster care); preventive services designed to intervene with troubled families; health and mental health services to ensure that every child or adolescent achieves maximum health potential and is emotionally prepared to meet life's challenges. We also provide services to reduce or eliminate domestic violence, as well as vocational and employment programs to empower families economically.

Edwin Gould Services for Children and Families is asking you to join us promoting our recruitment event. The campaign's goal is to increase the number of foster and adoptive parents in our community. We are embarking on this aggressive campaign to recruit foster homes for children ages 0 to 21. And we need your help. We are asking you to distribute the attached recruitment flyers.

Edwin Gould Services for Children and Families and the Department of Parent Talent Matching Development and Support would like to thank you in advance for your participation in this important journey. Every child deserves a loving permanent home. We are confident that your participation in this effort will greatly contribute to the accomplishment of this worthwhile goal.

For more information about our campaign and to confirm your support or would like us to present our campaign to a larger group, please feel free to contact Ms. Carol Grannum at office 212.602.5865 or Cell 646.977.1239 or email at: cgrannum@egscf.org.

Sincerely,

Rodney Pride, LCSW
Director of Parent Talent Matching Development and Support
