

NEW YORK CITY BUSINESS INTEGRITY COMMISSION

Notice of Public Hearing and Opportunity to Comment on Proposed Rules

What are we proposing? The New York City Business Integrity Commission (the “Commission” or “BIC”) is proposing to amend Title 17 of the Rules of the City of New York to improve BIC’s capacity to properly regulate the trade waste industry and the public wholesale food markets in New York City. The amendments will ensure that BIC’s rules are fair, consistent, easier to understand, and are not obsolete. The Commission will vote on the final rules before they are promulgated. This rule proposal was identified in part during the comprehensive rules review initiative undertaken by the NYC Mayor’s Office of Operations.

When and where is the hearing? BIC will hold a public hearing on the proposed rule. The public hearing will take place from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on June 7, 2017. The hearing will be in the 2nd Floor, conference room number 2-160A at 100 Church Street, New York, New York, 10007.

What laws govern the rulemaking process? BIC must meet the requirements of section 1043 of the City Charter when creating or changing rules. This notice is made according to the requirements of section 1043 of the City Charter.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of Proposed Rule

Several of the Commission's rules have not been updated since they were promulgated. The result is that these rules may not reflect some of the changes in technology and changes in the trade waste industry and the public wholesale food markets. In addition to adding clarifying language and making rules easier to understand and consistent with each other, the Commission proposes to eliminate some existing rules because they are obsolete. In addition, these proposed rules, which apply to trade waste licensees, registrants, applicants for trade waste licenses and registrations, wholesale business registrants, market business registrants, labor union and labor organization registrants, wholesale trade association registrants, photo identification card holders, and applicants for the same, modify the Commission's current rules to allow for electronic communications between the Commission and entities that are regulated by the Commission.

Under these proposed rule modifications, the Business Integrity Commission would:

- Add e-mail as a form of service;
- Remove references to the Department of Consumer Affairs as the forum for certain hearings;
- Specify exceptions to the disclosure of criminal history pursuant to the New York State Executive Law (the so-called "Ban the Box" legislation);
- Clearly add the failure to appear, be examined, or to provide testimony under oath as prohibited conduct;
- Remove the obsolete requirement for a uniform chart of accounts;
- Require applicants to provide e-mail addresses on applications;
- Require applicants/licensees/registrants to provide driver's license information for employees who will operate vehicles pursuant to the license or registration;
- Clearly specify reasons that a contract between a trade waste licensee and a customer will be voidable;
- Clarify language to require that changes in material information are required to be provided to the Commission within 10 business days;
- Clarify language regarding when Commission-issued license plates must be returned to the Commission;
- Eliminate the obsolete requirement for trade waste brokers to post their Commission-issued registration at their place of business;
- Remove some obsolete requirements for trade waste brokers. Simplify other requirements for trade waste brokers;
- Remove the obsolete requirement that all written communications, advertisements, etc. must include licensee's and registrant's BIC-issued number;
- Clearly state that license and registration renewal applications must be timely-filed;
- Eliminate fees for Class 1 registrants that are not-for-profit corporations;
- Require licensees to file a customer register on a quarterly basis;
- Allow registrants the option to deliver insurance certificates to BIC in person, by regular mail, or by e-mail; and

- Convert text throughout to plain language and use other plain language edits to make the text easier to read.

Working with the City’s rulemaking agencies, the Law Department, and OMB, the Office of Operations conducted a retrospective rules review of the City’s existing rules, identifying those rules that will be repealed or modified to reduce regulatory burdens, increase equity, support small businesses, and simplify and update content to help support public understanding and compliance. These proposed rule modifications were identified through this initiative.

BIC’s authority for these rules is found in sections 1043(a) and 2101(b) of the New York City Charter.

A contract for the collection, removal, or disposal of trade waste shall not exceed two (2) years in duration. A written contract for the removal, collection, or disposal of trade waste that contains no provision regarding duration shall be terminable at will by the customer and upon fourteen (14) days' written notice by the licensee. A written contract [shall] must provide that the licensee [shall] must remove the customer's waste from the location designated by the customer. A sample standard contract form [shall] must be submitted to the Commission [at the time] when an application for a license is submitted, and a licensee [shall] must submit any subsequent changes in the standard form to the Commission thirty (30) days' prior to implementing such change. Nothing in this provision shall be construed to prevent a licensee from negotiating terms at variance with the standard form contract, except that a licensee [shall] must not vary such contract in any manner identified by the Commission as inconsistent with the purposes of Chapter 1 of Title 16-A of the Code by the Commission after review of such standard form.

(2) A licensee [shall] must comply with the service and other terms set forth in the written contract or oral agreement with the customer, including the agreed-upon frequency and [time] schedule for the collection of waste. A schedule agreed to in writing [shall] must not be altered without the written agreement of the customer's owner or authorized representative. When a licensee offers to provide a commercial establishment with trade waste services, the licensee [shall] must provide such customer with a copy of the Commission's informational notice to customers. The licensee [shall] must provide the customer with such additional informational notices as the Commission shall require throughout the term of service to the customer by the licensee.

(3) A licensee [shall] must not discontinue service to any customer, or raise the rates charged to such customer, unless at least fourteen (14) days' written notice to the customer [shall have been] is given. No contract for the removal, collection, or disposal of waste shall provide that a licensee may discontinue service upon shorter notice.

(4) A written contract will be voidable if:

(i) any portion of the contract is missing material information or is not properly completed;

(ii) the contract is not signed by a person with authority to bind the party on behalf of whom the person has signed; or

(iii) it does not meet the requirements of federal, state, or local law. If one (1) party violates any law in performing under the contract, including the Commission's Rules and Regulations, the other party may terminate the contract by giving fourteen (14) days' written notice.

An assignee or subcontractor of contracts for the removal, collection, or disposal of trade waste [shall] notify, within fifteen (15) days of the effective date of such assignment or subcontract, each party to a contract so assigned of such assignment or subcontract and of the right of such party to terminate such contract upon thirty (30) days' notice during the three (3) months [subsequent to] after receiving notice of such assignment or subcontract. Such notification [shall] must be by certified mail with the receipt of delivery retained by the assignee or subcontractor and [shall] must be upon a form approved by the Commission. Where no written contract exists with a customer for the removal, collection, or disposal of trade waste, a company that assumes such trade waste removal from another company [shall] must provide such customer with notification[,] within fifteen (15) days of such assignment or subcontract, on a form approved by the Commission by certified mail with the receipt for delivery retained by the assignee or subcontractor, that a new company will be providing such trade waste removal, and that the customer has the right to terminate such service. A licensee [shall] must not [act as a subcontractee unless the subcontractor licensee has] enter into a subcontract before [received] receiving express approval for the subcontracting arrangement from the Commission.

(2) A licensee [shall] must apply for review by the Commission before acquiring, selling, or merging with another trade waste removal, collection, or disposal business and [shall] must seek such review by the Commission no later than thirty (30) days before such acquisition, sale, or merger is to take effect. The Commission may issue any order with respect to the intended transaction consistent with the purposes of Local Law 42. The Commission may, in its discretion, require that either the purchaser or seller post a bond or place money in escrow with the Commission in an amount that the Commission believes, in its discretion, is needed to cover any outstanding or potential fines or penalties owed or that may be owed to the Commission, any customer complaints that have been heard pursuant to section 1-03 of this chapter in regard to which a final determination has not been rendered, and any restitution ordered by the Commission which the selling or dissolving licensee has failed to make to the customer. The fee for investigation and review of any proposed transaction described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subdivision shall be four thousand and five hundred dollars ($4,500) per entity involved and one thousand and two hundred dollars ($1,200) per principal involved. After submission to the Commission of an appropriate request for review of such a transaction, the Commission shall notify the parties to the transaction of the total fee amount due and owing, which [shall] must be paid in full within ten (10) days after such notification. The Commission, in its discretion, may waive or reduce fees upon written request in light of one (1) or more of the following reason(s):

- (i) specified persons or entities have recently undergone completed background investigations by the Commission;
- (ii) the value of the transaction under review is minimal;
- (iii) specified persons or entities need not undergo background investigations because of their attenuated connection to the transaction;
- (iv) the transaction does not involve the sale, assignment, or other transfer of any accounts or customer contracts ([e.g.] e.g., trucks or other non-customer assets);
- (v) the transaction involves less than five (5) customers;
- (vi) the transaction involves unique characteristics or other mitigating factors that would warrant a reduction or waiver of fees.

All trade waste subcontracting, assignment, and similar arrangements must be submitted to the Commission for authorization. Requests for approval of such an arrangement [should] must be submitted in writing to the Commission[;], and the arrangement [shall] must not go forward unless and until it has been approved in advance by the Commission. All contracts signed by affected customers during the ninety (90) day period subsequent to contract assignment or transfer remain terminable on thirty (30) days' notice throughout the ninety (90) day period, and any such contract signed during that ninety (90) day period must contain prominent notice of this fact.

- (v) The transaction involves fewer than 5 customers;
- (vi) The transaction involves unique characteristics or other mitigating factors that would warrant a reduction or waiver of fees.
