THE NEW YORK CITY BUSINESS INTEGRITY COMMISSION DENIES FOUR APPLICATIONS FOR REGISTRATIONS AND ANNOUNCES THE COMPLETION OF THE UNIVERSAL SAFETY MANUAL

The Commission also reviewed a registration revocation and voted on final rule changes relating to the Mayor's Retrospective Rules Review initiative

NEW YORK —Commissioner and Chair Daniel D. Brownell today announced that the New York City Business Integrity Commission denied the applications of three businesses for registrations to operate as a trade waste business in New York City and one renewal registration to operate as a trade waste business in New York City.

The denials were for the following entities:

- ASAP Clean Outs, Inc.
- B&A Commercial, Inc.
- New York Construction 69 Co., Inc., d/b/a JB General Contracting
- Red Star Trading, Inc.

The Commission also passed the proposed final rule relating to the Mayor's retrospective rules review initiative.

Additionally, Commissioner Brownell announced that this week the Trade Waste Safety Manual will be released. The manual was developed as a collaborative effort among stakeholders in the trade waste industry. More information on the manual will follow later this week.
