Record of Variance Action

On November 15, 2016, the NYC Board of Correction (BOC) voted to deny the Department of Correction's request for a six-month limited variance from BOC Minimum Standard 1-17(d)(2).

This variance would have allowed the Department, in highly exceptional circumstances presenting safety and security concerns, to waive the requirement that inmates be immediately released from punitive segregation for seven (7) days after they have been held in punitive segregation for thirty (30) consecutive days.
