On Monday, August 13 the 174-175 Sts Station is closing for extensive renovation and will reopen in December 2018

• Bringing world-class standards to New York’s subway system.
• Fixing structural deterioration and making safety and functional improvements.
• Getting work done as quickly as possible.

The future 174-175 Sts Station:

Work will include waterproofing, structural steel and concrete repair, updated technology, security cameras at turnstiles and a new art installation.
B and D trains skip 174-175 Sts in both directions beginning 5 AM Monday, August 13 until December 2018

Travel alternatives:
• Go to nearby stations at Tremont Av B B or 170 St B D.
