AGENDA For Women in Williamsburg/Greenpoint: Women's History Month

Celebrating Women's History Month.; Janice Peterson -----the New Women's History Museum---what is happening?

A Round table discussion on what a CB#1 Women's agenda could look like: Diana Reyna, Facilitator.

Key questions What are the priorities for the women of CB#1 Williamsburg/ Greenpoint elected officials:

This is an historic moment for women's political power in Williamsburg/Greenpoint. Most of our elected officials are women. What are their priorities for our women in Community Board #1? How are they working together to build a women's agenda?

Also, more than half of the NY city council for the first time in history are women and many who are in office are elected for the first time. It is essential that women in communities across New York be clear what their development agenda is so they can take advantage of this opportunity.

Confirmed speakers: Assemblywomen Emily Gallagher, Maritza Davila, City Councilwoman Jennifer Gutierrez, District Leader Kristina Naplatarski

To be Confirmed: State Senator Julia Salazar, Congresswomen Nydia Velazquez
