At Housing Court Answers, formerly known as the City-Wide Task Force on Housing Court, we help people in New York City navigate the complex world of Housing Court and NYC's tangle of housing laws and regulations. We are the first and best place to go to in New York City for information about Housing Court. We help people without lawyers at our information tables in the city's Housing Courts, on our hotline, and through our website. Here you will find detailed information sheets on Housing Court procedures and information about the courts. Are you a tenant? A landlord? An advocate or researcher? You will find pages with many links designed to help you navigate Housing Court, housing law, or find other help via our website.

Training sessions will help schools improve their existing parent engagement practices are the five Partnership Standards.

Fostering Communication-School and families engage in an open exchange of information regarding student progress, school wide goals and support activities.

Encouraging Parent Involvement-Parents have diverse and meaningful roles in the school community and their children's achievement.

Creating Welcoming Schools-Creating a welcoming, positive school climate with the commitment of the entire school community.

Partnering for Student Success-School engages families in setting high expectations for students and actively partners with parents to prepare students for their next level.

Collaborating Effectively-School community works together to make decisions about the academic and personal growth of students through school wide goals. School fosters collaborations with community-based organizations to create a vibrant, fulfilling environment for students and families.

The Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (OATH) is the largest administrative court in the country and is comprised of four separate tribunals: the OATH Tribunal; the OATH Health Tribunal; the OATH Taxi & Limousine Tribunal; and the Environmental Control Board (ECB). As a whole, OATH conducts approximately 400,000 hearings annually on a wide-range of matters. Most respondents at the OATH Health Tribunal, Taxi Tribunal and ECB are self-represented. For this reason, OATH's top priority has been to transform them into user-friendly and accessible administrative courts. OATH has introduced various innovative programs in the past few years that increase a respondent's access to justice, including using technology in novel ways in order to make it easier for the general public to participate in hearings. New Informational Videos Explaining the In-Person

Hearing Process: OATH has produced three new informational videos that aim to make the in-person hearing process easier to understand and navigate. The videos will show respondents what they can expect if they choose to contest charges in-person at ECB, the OATH Health Tribunal and the OATH Taxi & Limousine Tribunal. To view the two-minute videos, please visit www.nyc.gov/ecb and/or www.nyc.gov/oath. While the information differs by tribunal, each video explains: * How to read the violation for pertinent hearing information; * What to bring to the hearing and how to check-in upon arrival; * How the hearing is conducted and who may be present; * How and when the judge's decision will be issued. OATH's mission is to provide access to fair and impartial hearings and proud to provide New Yorkers with an easy way to access important information that will aid them in navigating and participating in the administrative justice process.
