Improved Property Zoning & Tax Lots

Parcels of land may be subdivided, merged or reapportioned to reflect ownership changes, new developments and enlargements.

There are two types of subdivision applications: zoning lot subdivisions and tax lot subdivisions. The former have direct implications for zoning use and bulk regulations; the latter allow multiple owners and tax lots within one zoning lot.

NYC Zoning Resolution
Lot size and lot area are fundamental to the calculation of floor area, open space, yards, density and other bulk regulations. When the metes and bounds of a zoning lot are altered, extra caution must be taken that new non-compliances are not created in any existing buildings or improvements.

NYC Building Code
If a new zoning or tax lot line is placed over an existing building to create two attached buildings, be sure to provide Code-required, fire-rated construction of the new shared party wall and confirm fire separation distances between the two proposed buildings.

Other City Agencies
Before a subdivision application is submitted to the Department of Buildings, applicants must first obtain preliminary approval for tentative tax lots from Department of Finance (DOF). Also, an approval from the City Planning Commission and/or the Board of Standards and Approvals may be required for the subdivision and variances from certain zoning regulations. Various zoning lot exhibits must also be filed at the Office of the County Clerk to record ownership information with the case numbers indicated on new Certificates of Occupancy before they are issued.

This publication is an overview of the requirements for this type of work. There may be additional, applicable Zoning Resolution, Construction Code, Multiple Dwelling Law or Energy Code requirements.
