Discrimination may sound like this:

“Installing a ramp is expensive and would ruin the appearance of the building.”

“I don’t accept vouchers.”

“I don’t have to make that repair; undocumented tenants don’t have the same rights as other tenants.”

“They told me the apartment was available, but then when they saw I was black, they changed their mind.”

The NYC Human Rights Law makes it illegal to discriminate against a resident or housing applicant based on

- National Origin, Immigration Status, Religion
- Gender, Gender Identity, Gender Expression, Sexual Orientation
- Disability
- Occupation, Source of Income
- Presence of Children, Marital or Partnership Status, Age, Race, Color, Pregnancy, Status as Victim of Domestic Violence, Sexual Violence, and Stalking (as of 7/26/16)

FAIR HOUSING. It’s Your Right. It’s Your Responsibility. It’s the Law.
