

NYC LEGAL SERVICES ORGANIZATIONS THAT HELP WORKERS WITH CRIMINAL HISTORIES

The following organizations offer legal help to workers with criminal histories. They can help a worker plan for or respond to job-related challenges caused by their criminal history. They may also be able to help a worker get a copy of their criminal record, correct errors on the record, and understand how their record could impact their employment.

- Community Service Society of New York, Next Door Project
(212) 614-5441
<https://www.cssny.org/programs/entry/the-next-door-project>
- Legal Action Center
(212) 243-1313
<https://www.lac.org/>
- The Legal Aid Society, Worker Justice Project
(888) 663-6880
workerjustice@legal-aid.org
<https://legalaidnyc.org/programs-projects-units/worker-justice-project/>
- Youth Represent
(646) 759-8080
<https://youthrepresent.org/>
- Mobilization For Justice Legal Services
(212) 417-3838
<https://mobilizationforjustice.org/projects/371-2/>
- Brooklyn Defender Services, Employment Practice
(646) 971-2722
communityoffice@bds.org
www.bds.org

The NYC Commission on Human Rights is not affiliated with and does not endorse these organizations.