Job ID: 374735	Hours/Shift: 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.
Job Description
The New York City Conflicts of Interest Board is seeking a Confidential Investigator to work primarily in its Legal Advice Unit and to support the work of the Enforcement Unit and the Special Counsel, as needed. The Board is an independent City agency and is responsible for administering and enforcing the City's conflicts of interest and financial disclosure laws. (See the Board's website at http://nyc.gov/ethics.) The Board's legal staff, consisting of nine attorneys, gives advice to the City's public servants about whether their proposed conduct conforms to the requirements of the conflicts law and prosecutes suspected violations of the law. Under the supervision of the Board's General Counsel, the Confidential Investigator will perform various duties, including: draft Board advisory opinions and Staff advice letters; draft enforcement memoranda and pleadings; maintain and update legal files; conduct legal research; perform routine administrative duties when necessary including photocopying, scanning, and shredding confidential documents. Under the supervision of its Executive Director, the Board's legal staff functions as a collegial, high quality law firm. The Confidential Investigator must possess the maturity, discretion, and judgment necessary for the handling of a myriad of sensitive and often confidential matters and the willingness to provide professional support to the office's legal staff as needed.
Minimum Qualification Requirements
Qualification Requirements <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A four-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent and four (4) years of satisfactory full-time experience in an industrial or governmental agency in the field of investigation, auditing, law enforcement, security, inspections, or in a major operational area of the agency in which the appointment is to be made; or 2. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college; or 3. Education and/or experience equivalent to "1" or "2" above.
Preferred Skills
Computer skills are essential, including proficiency with PowerPoint, Excel, Word, and other Microsoft Office applications as well as Internet-based research. Good communication skills, both oral and written, are also essential.
Residency Requirement
New York City residency is generally required within 90 days of appointment. However, City employees in certain titles who have worked for the City for 2 continuous years may also be eligible to reside in Nassau, Suffolk, Putnam, Westchester, Rockland, or Orange County. To determine if the residency requirement applies to you, please discuss with the agency representative at the time of interview.
