

Pedicab Information Card

All pedicabs shall display a sign disclosing the price to be charged per minute per ride on the exterior of the pedicab and the rear of the bike seat. Look for the DCA-sealed and approved timer, which must be in full view, and which records total ride time.

Drivers are not permitted to charge tax. It is illegal for a pedicab driver to charge any added fees, including fees for additional passengers. A gratuity is not required.

If you have a complaint about this business, contact the NYC Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) at 311 (212-NEW-YORK outside NYC) or www.nyc.gov/consumers.
