

Ready to Rent:

#ReadytoRentNYC

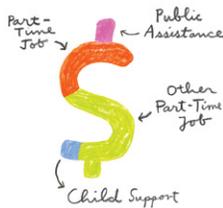

Are you searching for an affordable apartment through the NYC housing lottery? Preparing early is important. Credit history matters. Get ready to submit a stronger housing application!

FREE Financial Counseling

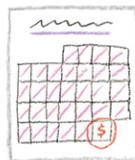

Meet one-on-one with a professional financial counselor to:

Check your credit

Calculate your income for housing

Save for moving expenses

FREE Application Assistance

Meet with a Housing Ambassador to:

Apply for housing lotteries using Housing Connect

Gather important information

Get ready to show that you qualify

For more information:

Call 311 and say "Ready to Rent."

Visit nyc.gov/ready-to-rent.

See the back for a list of Housing Ambassadors.

Bill de Blasio
Mayor

Consumer
Affairs

Lorelei Salas
Commissioner

Department of Housing Preservation
& Development

Maria Torres-Springer
Commissioner

This program is run by the NYC Departments of Consumer Affairs and Housing Preservation and Development (HPD), in partnership with Ariva. Please note that financial counseling does not impact your placement in any affordable housing lottery, but can put you in a better financial position to obtain affordable housing. Adapted from Ready, Set, Apply!, which was in collaboration with the Center for Urban Pedagogy, designed by Maison Papercut, and illustrated by Rebecca Clarke.

Free financial counseling and free affordable housing application assistance are available at:

THE BRONX

We Stay/Nos Quedamos
754 Melrose Avenue
Bronx, NY 10451

BROOKLYN

Los Sures – Southside United HDFC
145 South 3rd Street
Brooklyn, NY 11211

Churches United for Fair Housing (CUFFH)

Our Lady of Presentation Church
1677 Saint Marks Avenue
Brooklyn, NY 11233

Saint Martin of Tours
1288 Hancock Street
Brooklyn, NY 11221

MANHATTAN

East Harlem Council for Community Improvement (EHCCI) / Hellgate Management Corp.
413 East 120th Street
New York, NY 10035

QUEENS

Legal Hand Jamaica
149-13 Jamaica Avenue
Jamaica, NY 11432

Call 311 to schedule a free financial counseling appointment at one of these locations.

Visit nyc.gov/ready-to-rent for additional Housing Ambassadors who can provide free affordable housing application assistance.