Citywide Learning & Development

Learning & Development (L&D) is the central source of training within NYC government for managerial, clerical, professional, and technical employees. Our Citywide Training Center (CTC) offers agencies a full range of courses, workshops and seminars to meet the training and professional development needs of City employees at all levels.
Our courses and programs are offered in multiple portfolios. Most of the classes in each portfolio are delivered at the Citywide Training Center.

TECHNOLOGY SKILLS PORTFOLIO

This portfolio has a full compilation of software offerings, including Microsoft Office products, Adobe products, IT Certifications, and others.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT PORTFOLIO

Programs in this portfolio provide a full spectrum of options to enhance your personal/professional development, including: creative thinking, written and oral communication, analysis and decision-making skills, time management skills, cultural competency, project management knowledge, and achieving enhanced work-life balance.

MANAGEMENT & SUPERVISION PORTFOLIO

This portfolio offers a broad range of development opportunities primarily for managers and supervisors. Programs link to the core competencies necessary to manage within our public-sector environment, and include navigating within the civil service framework.

PROFESSIONAL PRACTICES PORTFOLIO

These courses and programs are designed for specific communities-of-practice to allow for continuity in networking, collaboration, and knowledge sharing. Whether you are in the Energy, Audit, Procurement or IT community, or are an HR Professional, you can find programs geared specifically to your field of expertise.

EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT PORTFOLIO

This portfolio offers an array of learning opportunities for mid- to senior-level managers and executives throughout the City. Participants are introduced to next and best practices in management and leadership, while learning from experts in areas such as neuroscience, leadership, organizational psychology, strategic change and innovation. Other opportunities in this portfolio include: Executive Coaching, Assessment, Planning, and skill development.

CERTIFICATION & CREDIT BEARING PORTFOLIO

NYC employees can prepare for professional certifications and examinations with training that is specific to their certification’s requirements. L&D’s current offerings include the CUNY Public Administration Program, NIGP (National Institute of Governmental Purchasing) Certification, and a wide variety of IT (Information Technology) Certifications.

NYC SPECIFIC PORTFOLIO

L&D has partnered with City agencies to present programs to provide the resources and knowledge that are specific to all New York City agencies in areas such as Emergency Management, Conflicts of Interest, M/WBE Purchasing, Customer Service, and Diversity & Inclusion.
The Citywide Training Center (CTC) course offerings are uniquely designed to meet the training and development needs of all New York City employees.

CTC PROVIDES
- Courses designed specifically for City employees
- Instructors who specialize in working with the public sector and know City staff, systems, and environments
- Rapid course roll-outs
- Convenient payment through a simple inter-agency charge-back agreement

COURSE FORMATS

Open Enrollment Courses
CTC’s Open Enrollment courses include participants from multiple agencies. Open Enrollment courses are perfect for agencies when they want to enroll one or several of their staff in a course rather than schedule a specific class for their agency. Unless otherwise indicated, open enrollment classes are conducted from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Agency-Specific Courses
The CTC can offer most courses in the catalog as agency-specific courses. In addition, if you are looking for a topic that you’d like to offer as an agency-specific course that is not in our catalog please contact us. CTC professional staff and facilitators are able and eager to develop and deliver new courses to meet workforce training and professional development needs. For a nominal fee, agencies that prefer to train a number of their employees on specific topics may request dedicated and/or customized workshops scheduled at their convenience.

Agency-specific courses usually are delivered at the Citywide Training Center in Manhattan. These courses, however, also can be offered at the agency site. Please contact Citywide L&D at 212.386.0004 for information about agency-specific course customization and fees.

INSTRUCTORS
All CTC courses are led by highly qualified consultants from the government, academic, the private-sector, or CTC in-house facilitators. Practitioners of the skills they teach, all CTC trainers bring a wealth of knowledge and experience in training City personnel that address City-specific issues and challenges. Instructors may not solicit sales or payments, for books, articles, documents or other materials in which they may have a proprietary interest, directly from any City of New York employee or agency client during any activities related to a CTC program delivery.

TRANSCRIPTS
City employees interested in personal transcripts of courses they've taken at the CTC can contact us at citywidetrainingcent@dcas.nyc.gov.
HOW TO APPLY FOR TRAINING

To apply for classes, participants must complete the Citywide Training Center Application located at the back of this catalog or on our website at www.nyc.gov/ctc. For your convenience, one application may be used for multiple course requests and all types of courses.

Applications must be signed by an immediate supervisor and submitted to your agency’s designated Agency Training Liaison. Employees should contact their Agency Personnel Officer for their Agency Training Liaison(s)’ name and contact information.

The Agency Training Liaison obtains authorization to proceed with the application from the Agency Fiscal Officer. After authorization has been granted, they are forwarded to the CTC. Applications sent directly to the CTC from an individual employee and/or sent without the required authorizing signatures will NOT be processed.

The CTC will send confirmations for training to Agency Liaisons in advance of the course(s). Agency Training Liaisons are responsible for notifying employees about the classes and dates of training that have been confirmed.

Employees should not attend a class for which they did not receive a confirmation. Employees should contact their Agency Training Liaison if they have questions about a confirmation.

NYCAPS REGISTRATION

Mayoral and Non-Mayoral agencies that have access to NYCAPS must register staff for training through the NYCAPS training module.

Agencies that do not have access to NYCAPS may complete the CTC Application and submit via fax to 212-313-3439.

FEES AND PAYMENT

The Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) charges agencies for most of the training classes in which their employees are enrolled. Agencies receive invoices once a month based on the number of staff who participated in training classes. All training invoice letters with payment instructions are sent from the CTC to Agency Training Liaisons. Payment is a simple, convenient, and familiar process:

- Mayoral Agencies must establish an Intra-City Budget Modification (MOD) with DCAS. Checks are NOT accepted from mayoral agencies. We advise all agencies to anticipate training needs and expenses at the beginning of each fiscal year and set up budget modifications with DCAS at that time. Once granted invoices are sent to agencies and your agency establishes the budget mod, CTC draws down upon the allocated funds.

- Non-Mayoral agencies must pay by check. Checks must be made payable to: DCAS/Citywide Training Center. Agency Training Liaisons and/or Agency Fiscal Officer are responsible for ensuring that payment is made to DCAS prior to training.
CANCELLATION POLICY
Requests for cancellations or schedule changes must be received at DCAS, Learning & Development Bureau in writing at least seven (7) business days prior to the start of a confirmed class. Requests received without the required notice will result in a charge of the full course fee. Agencies may designate a qualified participant for substitution up to the start of the class without penalty. However, the CTC should be notified in advance of the substitution.

Citywide Training Center

The CTC is an authorized provider of Continuing Education Units (CEUs) and professional development credits from various accreditation associations:

International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET)

NYC Citywide Training Center has been credentialed as an Accredited Provider by the International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET). In obtaining this accreditation, the NYC Citywide Training Center has demonstrated that it complies with the ANSI/IACET Standard, which is recognized internationally as a standard of good practice. Because of the Accredited Provider status, NYC Citywide Training Center is authorized to offer IACET CEUs for programs that qualify under the ANSI/IACET Standard.

Universal Public Purchasing Certification Council (UPPCC)

Through the UPPCC, individuals who are currently employed in public purchasing can achieve industry-wide recognition by earning the Certified Public Procurement Officer (CPPO) and Certified Public Procurement Buyer (CPPB) designation. The requirements for certification are based on academic and professional experience.

National Institute of Governmental Purchasing (NIGP)

The National Institute of Governmental Purchasing (NIGP) is a national, non-profit organization that provides support to professionals in the public-sector purchasing profession. NIGP provides its members with education, professional networking, research, and technical assistance.

Continuing Professional Education Credits (CPEs)

The Citywide Training Center is registered as a sponsor of Continuing Professional Education Credits (CPEs) with the New York State Board of Public Accountancy; sponsor ID number: 002483. One CPE is earned for every 50 minutes of classroom instruction.

COIB Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Credits

In collaboration with the NYC Conflicts of Interest Board (COIB), the Citywide Training Center offers a series of workshops that focus on Chapter 68 of the New York City Charter and the issues related to conflicts of interest. Continuing legal education (CLE) credit for participation is provided through the NYC Conflicts of Interest Board.

Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM)

New York City Department of Citywide Administrative Services – Citywide Training Center is recognized by SHRM to offer SHRM-CP or SHRM-SCP professional development credits (PDCs). For more information about certification or recertification, please visit shrmcertification.org.

Collaborative Negotiation

The ability to negotiate well is not merely an important skill – it is indispensable. An ability to secure advantageous deal terms while protecting relationships with others is essential to success. While pursuing substantive goals such as deliverables, parameters, and price points are paramount, savvy professionals understand the importance of cultivating long-term relationships with counterparts.

Yet, negotiators often feel pressed to choose between these two objectives that can seem mutually exclusive to one another. They are left feeling that only one objective can be met: either the substantive goals or the relationship capital. The reality is that negotiators can successfully pursue both. This workshop will show you how.

Objectives:
• Understand the benefits and applicability of a collaborative approach to negotiation
• Manage negotiations more effectively
• Improve one’s position in a negotiation
• Achieve better agreement terms
• Protect, if not enhance, relationships with negotiation counterparts
• Better prepare for any negotiation

Communicating with Diplomacy, Tact and Credibility

How well you communicate can make or break your professional image. It directly influences how others view your work and performance—as well as your prospects for career advancement and mobility. Unfortunately, being diplomatic, tactful and credible doesn’t always come naturally to people. Even when it does, such communication can easily be derailed by emotions and conflicts. To be a communicator who is skilled in all three areas, it takes awareness, training and the know-how to apply proven techniques to all kinds of situations.

This seminar will teach you how to choose and use the most appropriate words and emotional tone for every business interaction. You will gain insights into your communication style and the styles of others, while building skills to clearly and effectively receive and transmit information, ideas, thoughts, feelings and needs.

Objectives:

- Apply Diplomacy and Tact to Be a Credible and Effective Communicator
- Manage the Impact to Your Image
- Define and Leverage Your Communication Style
- Utilize Effective Communication Skills
- Demonstrate Good Listening Skills

Target Audience: Business professionals who want the skills to communicate in a positive, professional manner no matter what the situation

Communication for Peak Collaboration

Understanding the preferred ways that you and your peers receive and process information is a massive advantage at work. This program uses a clear and simple methodology to help you understand how basic learning styles impact all of our work together. You will learn a straightforward style framework and how your preferences can be a powerful tool for enhancing communication and workflow. In addition, you’ll learn specific strategies for both identifying other styles and using that knowledge to enhance your relationships and work with your peers in the workplace.

Objectives:

- Understand a simple framework for learning and communication styles
- Use that framework to identify and appreciate their own style preferences
- Better identify and appreciate the learning style preferences of their coworkers
- Communicate and share information in a way that targets different learning styles
- Increase team effectiveness by identifying and supporting different learning styles

Creating and Delivering Powerful Presentations

This course is for managers, supervisors, and professionals who, in their leadership roles, must make important presentations. Participants will receive one-on-one coaching and develop a skill set for speaking with confidence and projecting the best possible image of themselves and the agency. Emphasis will be on developing and cultivating a conversational tone when speaking and formulating clear and logical presentation points to attain the desired audience reaction.

Objectives:

- Understand the importance of “image” and how to use it to positively influence every audience
- Structure the presentation for clarity, impact, and persuasiveness
- Capture the audience’s attention from the beginning - and keeping it
- Use visual materials – including PowerPoint – to reinforce the power of your presentation
- Respond to challenging questions and statements with confidence, authority, and understanding
- Close the presentation with impact

Target Audience: Managers, supervisors, and professionals who make presentations

Daring Greatly: Becoming My Best Self

This course is for all employees looking to develop their leadership potential by focusing on their daily habits. The course is based on Stephen Covey’s 7 Habits of Highly Effective People model and provides attendees an opportunity to look at both their personal mission (private victory) as well as public victories (collaborating well with others). The course will also draw on Brene Brown’s work on vulnerability and challenge attendees to “fully show up” to work each day. Day one will focus more on the private victory habits and clarifying your gifts and personal mission. Day two will focus on public victories and developing your collaboration skills via abundance thinking.

Objectives:
- Build on their draft of a personal mission statement to provide more focus
- Identify the range of choices (from poor to powerful) they have in any situation
- Explain the connection between vulnerability and courage
- Choose abundance over scarcity thinking
- Better collaborate with colleagues across the organization
- Protect time to “sharpen their saw” and build personal resilience

Target Audience: Staff at all levels

Improving Your Effectiveness in a Multi-Cultural Workplace

In New York City, the workplace is multicultural, as are the communities served. Unfortunately, cultural differences are often used to judge others, when in fact they are more appropriately used to appreciate the complexity of people and enhance the perspectives brought to problem solving. How effectively does your team or workgroup value and incorporate the contributions from people who may be from “a different culture” rather than unconsciously ignoring or rejecting them? Are you able to bring out the best in yourself and in your employees, team or coworkers in maximizing the value of diversity and inclusion? In the world today, it is critical for leaders, managers and staff at all levels of organizations to understand how their own cultural background, and the range of cultural backgrounds of those they supervise or work with, affect the way they interpret, evaluate and motivate the actions and performance of others.

Through an interactive mix of theory, sharing, individual reflection and action planning participants will understand their own cultural perspectives and how to value the perspectives of others, and will identify areas in which they as individuals or their team/unit can improve their effectiveness in working in intercultural settings.

Objectives:

- Gain common terminology and frameworks to expand participants’ understanding of what “culture” is
- Differentiate between cultural generalizations and cultural stereotypes
- Gain cultural self-awareness of the range of cultural groups with which individual participants identify
- Understand the concepts of the Developmental Model of Intercultural Sensitivity and the 5 Frameworks of Culture, and how these are reflected in how we interact with others
- Identify stumbling blocks in maintaining commonality and respecting diversity in all relationships and ways to overcome them in pursuing high performance through inclusion in multicultural situations
- Develop individual action steps for using an enhanced intercultural mindset to work more effectively with supervisees, colleagues and people served by the agency

Target Audience: Managers, supervisors, team leaders/members and all employees working in multi-cultural environments who want to enhance their intercultural skills

Take Control of Your Workday: Plan, Organize & Thrive

Being productive is not a luxury, it’s a necessity. Dive in and analyze your day from the moment you get to the office until the time you leave. We all get the same 24 hours… learn how to make the most of yours!

This course provides strategies to increase your efficiency and productivity by focusing on very tactile areas of your work day that you can easily control through proven systems. We will tackle areas such as: effective planning and scheduling, creating and using effective to do lists, email management, work space organization and creating an effective filing system (both paper and digital document management). Your work day will become manageable, controlled and organized!

You’ll identify your organizing personality (yes, we all have one!) using Deb’s matrix that was featured in Better Homes and Gardens “Secrets of Getting Organized” Magazine and use that knowledge to create your ultimate work space. Most importantly, we’ll also share tips and strategies to help you stay on track and continue to be productive and organized in the future.

Objectives:
• Learn how to control your day vs. your day controlling you
• Gain imperative planning skills that will help both your professional and personal life
• Reinvent your work space for ultimate inspiration and productivity

The Art of Assertiveness

This course will focus on ways individuals can establish trust, mutual respect, and openness to develop an assertive approach when interacting with others. It will show participants how to build “win-win” relationships and attain the results they expect, without appearing “heavy-handed.” Participants will learn methods to actively persuade others without being aggressive.

Objectives:
- Explore the differences between aggressive, passive, and assertive behaviors
- Set limits with people who do not have limits using assertive techniques
- Recognize behavior types and learn how to influence these behaviors to get what you want and to build relationships
- State your opinion—without appearing hostile or fearful
- Apply assertiveness strategies for problem management
- Receive peer feedback on assertive skills

The Multigenerational Workplace

As different generations meld together in the workplace, confrontations and misunderstandings percolate. While all generations have their strengths and weaknesses, too often members of all generations get stereotyped and treated differently based on their age. Baby boomers feel like millennials are selfish and treat others like they know nothing of technology. Millennials feel that Baby boomers should respect their opinions and contributions more despite their younger age.

These sorts of communication roadblocks need to be addressed as the working landscape is on the verge of having five different generations working simultaneously. According to the Harvard Business Review, by 2020, Millennials—the people born between 1977 and 2000 —will account for nearly half the employees in the world. The population of working-age adults is expected to decrease by 5% by 2060. This will be a major upset to the workplace structures older generations are used to.

In this program you will learn what distinguishes each generation, how to appropriately communicate with each generation, and how to challenge assumptions commonly made about each generation. As a result, you will be better able to understand your colleagues of all ages and be more open to the strengths and contributions of each generation, making for a more harmonious and adaptable workspace.

Objectives:
- Describe the changing workplace
- Identify the four generations in the workplace
- Describe the characteristics of the four generations in the workplace
- Examine the stereotypes associated with each generation
- Identify potential challenges when interacting with the different generations
- Demonstrate techniques that foster respectful communication with different generations
- Develop an action plan to connect to all generations in your workplace

The Power of Talk: Who Gets Heard in the Workplace and Why

Skillful workplace communication is the most important predictor of an individual’s success. Yet, there’s more to effective communication than simply saying what we mean. It’s how we say it that determines whether we are truly being heard. Since using language is a learned social behavior, communication styles often differ from one person to the next. Understanding different communication styles is key to ensuring what we say is what gets heard. In addition, this course includes tools to take the stress out of stressful conversations.

Objectives:
- How to use easy and effective tools that improve communications skills in the workplace.
- The importance of active listening
- Understanding different linguistic styles
- How to take the stress out of stressful conversations
- Reframing for solutions

Adaptive Leadership

Some supervisors and managers apply a “one size fits all” approach to dealing with employees and other key people in the workplace. They know that people are different – in personality, motivation and ability – but haven’t been able to respond differently because they are pressed for time, have tried options that didn’t work, worry about being seen as micromanagers if they provide too much direction, or fear things won’t get done right if they provide too little.

This highly interactive one-day workshop will help supervisors and managers vary their approach to dissimilar people in order to achieve better and more consistent outcomes with a diverse range of performers. Participants will develop strategies to raise their employees’ motivational and skill levels on different tasks and assignments.

Objectives:
• Identify and expand their current leadership “comfort zone”
• Explain and practice four different styles of leadership
• Determine which leadership style is best for a particular situation
• Explore the importance of adaptability and flexibility
• Recognize the consequences of over-supervision and under-supervision
• Develop a personal action plan to apply behaviors and principles

Target Audience: Anyone serving formally or informally as a leader in the workplace

Agile and Lean Business and Process Analysis

Engaging Critical Thinking, Analytical, Process and People Skills for Project Success

How often do you experience a system or process—and you just know it wasn’t set up correctly? This business and process analysis course gives you the tools to fix that.

Participants learn the skills that will help them in conducting business and process analysis using Agile and LEAN methodologies. These unique and special skills help organizations both identify and solve specific problems. This course covers the process, questions, and techniques used to efficiently extract information and expertise from the business. Topics include the role of business and process analysis in Agile and LEAN projects and structured ways to define success. Follow projects through entire SDLC in various development models utilizing the lens of Agile and LEAN.

Objectives:

Building High Performance Teams

If you think back to your favorite work experience it’s almost certain that part of that memory is a close, cohesive, powerful team environment. Effective teamwork is a massive advantage at work and this program is proven to both inform and enhance high performance teams. You will learn to understand the process of team development, apply specific tools to create and enhance working relationships, accurately assess team issues, and understand how different working styles and strengths can be leveraged to build a real high-performance team.

Objectives:
• Understand a 7-stage model that articulates the steps towards High Performance Teamwork
• Identify behaviors that point to a breakdown in each of the 7 stages
• Create a toolkit of potential solutions for challenges at each of the 7 stages
• Develop specific strategies for enhancing team performance on the job

Target Audience: Directors, Managers, Supervisors and Professionals

Coaching Skills that Drive Success

This workshop is designed as a hands-on laboratory for developing the critical skill of coaching in your work environment. It introduces the definition of coaching as “unlocking a person’s potential to maximize their own performance” (John Whitmore). Participants work together to clarify the advantages of this approach vs. traditional management styles. In addition, the workshop provides multiple opportunities to develop critical coaching skills through extensive practice and feedback.

Objectives:
• Differentiate between directive “telling” leadership styles and collaborative “asking” coaching leadership styles
• Structure an effective coaching dialogue
• Utilize your own ability to maximize team performance in every situation
• Utilize a range of coaching strategies in a variety of situations
• Develop greater trust and productivity with your team members

Target Audience: Directors, Managers, Supervisors and Professionals

Data Analysis with Python

This full-day course covers the fundamental concepts of how to leverage the Python programming language for data analysis. The course will include the basic syntax of Python as it relates to performing basic exploratory data analysis, as well as how to create impactful charts, graphs, and other information visualizations using NYC Open Data for operational decision making.

Objectives:
- Define what Python is and why it is useful
- Explore how Python structures data and the difference between Python and Excel
- Open a dataset in Python and shape it into a usable structure for analysis
- Create a visualization and calculate summary statistics of a dataset in Python
- Download and open data from the NYC Open Data Portal
- Conduct a simple data analysis using NYC Open Data
- Demonstrate how Python can be used to build a data-driven culture in the workplace

Target Audience: Analysts with basic programming knowledge and/or experience performing advanced analysis in Excel (nested formulas with conditionals, pivot tables, and macros)

Data Visualization with Excel

Do you want to turn Excel into a strategic new tool? Whether you are a manager or an analyst, data visualizations can help you explore new ways to get and transform your data into actionable insights. This course has both a lecture and a lab component. The first half of this course will provide an in-depth look into the data visualization process and explain how to get past the pitfalls that most often stand in the way of creating effective visualizations. In the lab portion of the course, participants will gain hands on experience working with data from Open Data NYC and create data visualizations using advanced techniques in Microsoft Excel.

Objectives:
- Understand the data visualization process
- Discover pitfalls that can result in disastrous visualizations
- Gather, combine, and transform data from multiple sources
- Analyze and visualize real world data sets
- Utilize Excel to create meaningful and effective data visualizations

Target Audience: Managers, supervisors, project leaders, and data professionals with prior experience in Excel

Dealing Effectively with Difficult People and Situations

The ability to deal with difficult people and situations sets a person apart professionally and personally. The more you are armed with tactics on how to deal with difficult people and situations, the better the outcome will be.

This course includes strategies on how to deal effectively with difficult people and situations. You will perform exercises where you identify a situation in your own life (past or present) to learn how you can deal with all difficult situations in a healthier, more positive way. Learn how to talk to people without putting them on the defensive, how to pay attention to non-verbal signs and how to achieve positive outcomes.

Objectives:

- Gain tactics to communicate effectively with difficult people in your life – both professionally and personally
- Reset your thinking so you can handle people and situations better
- Learn how to apply strategies to deal with the most difficult people and situations in your work and personal life

Delivering Critical Feedback & Performance Reviews

Critical feedback is a healthy and important tool for improving performance on both individual and organizational levels. Yet, many managers shy away from sharing unfavorable feedback with their direct reports.

This high-energy workshop helps professionals at all levels of management deliver even the most critical evaluations to their staff. Participants learn how to use a powerful framework to constructively share difficult feedback; they also learn how to:

- Protect employee relationships
- Raise levels of engagement
- Increase productivity
- Reduce turnover, and
- Improve outcomes

Objectives:
- Raise critical feedback with employees
- Use performance reviews as an opportunity to motivate workers and improve performance
- Uncover the underlying contributors to a suboptimal context
- Improve communication with and among staff
- Manage differences more effectively and productively

Deliver Feedback & Conduct Performance Reviews that Motivate

Feedback is imperative to keep employees on track and motivate them to continue to strive for excellence. It’s also important to openly address any areas that need improvement. Conducting performance reviews is a craft that can be learned and perfected to assure the best outcome and direction for the employee and organization.

In this course, we will learn when and how frequently feedback should occur, how to choose the best time and place and how to thoroughly prepare and plan prior to feedback delivery. We’ll cover how to use the “feedback sandwich” successfully, how to set goals for optimal performance, how to ask for a self-assessment and how to tie performance to compensation. We’ll also share how to keep emotions in check, diffuse anger and negative emotions and go over common mistakes managers make when conducting employee reviews. You’ll leave with ideas for incentives and how to begin creating a culture of recognition. If you are the one getting reviewed, we’ll also dive into tips on how to successfully prepare for your own annual performance review.

Objectives:
• Prepare and deliver feedback that will inspire employees to make positive changes
• Learn year-round strategies to produce the best performance review possible for each of your staff
• Create and implement a culture of recognition within your team

Design Thinking: Tapping Team Innovation

Many organizations struggle with optimizing current processes, products, and services AND creating room for new ones to emerge. This course shows managers and team leads how to get the right people in the room and innovate around a new product, service or process. Emphasis will be on following the design thinking methodology pioneered by IDEO. Attendees will apply the concepts and principles to an area in their work that needs innovating. Emphasis will be on the processes and structures that unleash a team’s best thinking so that the most robust idea emerges vs. the one voiced by the loudest or most powerful person in the room. (Note: This course is best experienced if taken with a colleague/teammate from your department to help with local implementation).

Objectives:
- Identify the key phases to an innovation process
- Define key stakeholders to be approached for their innovation project
- Practice effective brainstorming
- Describe the role of prototyping in an innovation process
- Understand the difference between making observations and making judgments
- Identify the connection between play and creativity

Developing Yourself and Others Through Delegation

Effective delegation may be the hardest skill set for a supervisor or manager to master; it often confounds and eludes even the most experienced leaders. Delegating involves high levels of trust, self-awareness and strategic thinking. It is different from assigning routine work. Done well, it enables you and others to take on new challenges, maximizes productivity, increases team performance and reduces stress. Done incorrectly, it results in improperly completed projects and increased frustration. This highly interactive one-day workshop will explore many facets of delegation and take you through the delegation process step by step.

Objectives:
- Evaluating your delegation skills
- Differentiating delegation from assigning work and “dumping”
- Identifying real and self-imposed barriers to delegation
- Avoiding the “pitfalls” in delegating
- Dealing with trust and accountability issues
- Pinpointing the right task, time and person for delegating
- Planning and practicing the five-step delegation process
- Developing strategies for assigning work and following up effectively

Target Audience: Managers and supervisors who want to examine the benefits of delegation

Emotional Intelligence: The Key to Effective Leadership

Emotional intelligence is the ability to recognize and deal effectively with your own and other people’s emotions. According to recent studies, it is a better predictor of success than IQ. This workshop is designed to help people in leadership positions increase their EQ (emotional quotient). High EQ Leaders are more productive because they gain cooperation from others and use their intuitive knowledge to make decisions and solve problems. EQ is vital for implementing change and leading high-performing teams.

Objectives:
• Acquire emotional literacy to read people, situations and yourself more effectively
• Identify ways to choose your emotional responses, instead of getting triggered by them
• Develop techniques to use emotional energy positively to move self and others forward
• Practice techniques to manage non-productive emotional behaviors
• Describe how to use the five key EQ competencies
• Generate methods to apply EQ to diverse on-the-job circumstances

Engaging Teams Through Turbulent Times

Change is occurring at unprecedented rates – it is happening faster, more frequently, and with increased complexity. Organizations call upon employees not just to carry on, but to remain engaged and highly productive amidst constant changes. Human beings naturally prefer consistency and predictability and, thus, tend to resist change. Yet it’s in everyone’s interest to be able to see the opportunities inherent in change. Now, more than ever before, employees need to develop skills to effectively cope with uncertainty by managing change.

This highly practical and experiential workshop will allow you to reflect on, assess and plan for current or anticipated changes that are top-of-mind for you. It will give you the skills to recognize your, and others’, reactions to change. It will help you to model and facilitate productive behaviors despite environmental uncertainty and turbulence, and to do so without losing sleep or slowing down. Managers will acquire a practical set of tools to apply with their direct reports to maintain trust, productivity and quality of work under constantly changing organizational conditions. Your hands-on learning will occur through self-assessment, interactive exercises, group discussions and action planning.

Objectives:
• Assess your personal disposition toward change, and learn to anticipate others’ reactions to change
• Build confidence in your personal ability to thrive during constant change
• Understand the key distinction between the operational and human sides of change; acquire skills to effectively navigate both
• Learn how to identify, manage and, ultimately, overcome resistance to change
• Identify practical strategies to maintain employee engagement and productivity during organizational transitions and turbulence

Essential Skills for Leaders

Are you an emerging leader in your organization? Are you in a new leadership role? This course is targeted to help develop your leadership style and create professional success. It’s also a perfect course for seasoned leaders who want to re-charge their skills.

In this course, you will learn how to set expectations and goals, assign work, implement delegation, provide productive feedback, and manage your time and your team’s time to align with their duties and responsibilities. You will also learn strategies for special situations such as being promoted from within the team. We’ll cover the important qualities and attributes that a great leader possesses and discuss how you can own and implement them. We will also delve deeper into how you can identify candidates early for potential leadership roles, build competencies in others, pair others with mentors, provide training and support, establish peer networking and provide continuous growth opportunities for yourself. Participants will walk away armed with skills to strengthen their own leadership skills and motivate their team.

Objectives:
• New leaders will receive a foundation of necessary skills to be successful
• Gain strategies and tools to use to connect with your team, gain trust and build rapport
• Develop or enhance skills learned to dramatically increase performance of your team

Giving Feedback and Getting Results

This course is a one-day practicum devoted to helping managers and supervisors practice the skill of providing feedback to employees. Using a variety of “real life” scenarios, participants will engage in multiple role plays to provide descriptive, effective feedback to an employee. Participants will receive ongoing “feedback” from their peers on their coaching abilities.

Objectives:
• Identify positive feedback as a performance improvement mechanism
• Apply various types of feedback approaches
• Coach employees when poor performance is a problem
• Give feedback in a descriptive, specific, timely and clear manner
• Engage in difficult conversations with employees
• Develop employees by implementing the coaching process

How Leaders Build Trust: The Key to Performance & Ability to Change

Trust is the oil that greases the wheels of accomplishment. It is the basis of relationships that allow for team collaboration and coordination. When trust is present, staff are more engaged, take more risks, and propose innovative solutions and strategies. How does a leader build more trust? What attitudes and behaviors create obstacles to trust? Learn the neuroscience behind becoming a better, more trusted leader. In this interactive session, managers will discuss past and present leadership situations from a trust perspective in order to produce better results in the workplace.

Objectives:
- Define team/organizational trust and why it is important for high performance and the ability to change
- Assess each leader’s current levels of trust, generate fundamental characteristics how to further develop them
- Explore factors of trust in different one-on-one leadership situations, as both leader and follower
- Understand the neuroscience of trust and apply the neuroscience to leader statements
- Learn a framework for measuring trust as low, conditional or high, and how to move others along the continuum to create change
- Learn and practice 4 tools that great leaders employ to generate trust
- Identify the leaders’ mindset, values, beliefs and assumptions that impact an ability to grow team/organizational trust
- Compare how several thought leaders incorporate trust into their results-producing and leadership frameworks
- Identify and learn how participants can apply this information with their teams/organizations

Identifying Your Staff’s Strengths

One of the strategic roles of leadership is to unlock the full value and potential of their staff. Every staff member has strengths. The leader’s challenge is to discover, develop, and deploy those strengths to optimize their agency’s productivity. This course is designed to help leaders both understand the significance of discovering and developing employees’ strengths and then deploying those strengths to increase organizational productivity. This course will use the "StrengthFinders" assessment to help leaders identify their strengths and the strengths of their staff, allowing them to leverage these strengths to improve workplace performance. Through a thoroughly hands-on learning experience, participants will learn how to recognize, build, and utilize staff strengths.

Objectives:
• Gain a perspective on the leader’s role for discovery, development, and deployment of staff strengths
• Increase awareness of the relationship between staff strengths and organizational productivity
• Obtain a deeper understanding of the "StrengthFinders" instrument
• Learn how to chart and compare your staff strengths
• Discover innovative ways to activate and use employees’ strengths

Target Audience: Leaders and Managers looking to increase organizational productivity by maximizing the strengths of their most essential resource—their staff

Lean Six Sigma: Introduction to Process Improvement (White Belt Certificate)

Are you feeling the pressure of getting more done with less time and resources?

Achieving excellent results on a daily basis is a challenge. Often, employees and managers stretched beyond full capacity. In this seminar, participants will develop an understanding of proven methods for being more creative and resourceful when performing daily tasks. These methods, including eliminating wasteful task steps, reducing errors and improving efficiency, will result in improved productivity.

Lean Six Sigma provides tools and techniques to streamline work processes, improve time management, and produce higher quality work while delighting internal and external customers. These tools are now widely used in many government agencies and institutions.

At the completion of this program, participants will earn a Lean Six Sigma White Belt certificate.

Objectives:
• Identify the history, purpose, and goals of Lean Six Sigma
• Develop Process Mapping and Value Stream Mapping Skills
• Perform a Root Cause Analysis to solve problems at work
• Improve methods of achieving higher productivity and reducing errors
• Use new streamlined methods of accomplishing tasks and projects

Target Audience: Managers, supervisors, project leaders, and employees who are performing a leadership role

Managing Around and Up

Many City employees approach their work with a good educational foundation and perhaps years of experience in one field (e.g., small business, elderly services, youth employment). Many also come to the table with graduate and/or professional degrees in their field. However, a broad range of these employees lack any formal training in management of people, in building coalitions and in communicating to their supervisors and peers the issues that they see as critical. A surprising number of them are hired into positions which include managing staffs and budgets that range from small and tight, to large and far flung. This course will use short case discussions and group processes to help participants build an array of strategies in managing “Around & Up.”

The goal of this course is to help participants realize that managing a relationship with your boss and your peer colleagues is a skill that they will need throughout their career, and success in this area will come to those who learn on the job.

Objectives:

• Understand definitions of management, and the multiple levels at which management takes place in the workplace
• Analyze one’s own multi-level management challenges
• Develop skills to deal with, and generate, multiple solutions for any challenge
• Consider multiple perspectives in asking for, and getting, what you need
• Sharpen communication and feedback skills through negotiation of a success agreement

Target Audience: New and experienced managers and supervisors

Managing for Performance

This program is designed to build the core performance management skills that are critical for everyone who manages others at work. It will help you build a toolbox of core competencies that create a framework for shared accountability and support on your team. You will explore processes for setting powerful, concrete objectives and how this will enable you to create clear expectations for your team. You’ll learn a simple yet powerful framework for giving effective feedback. And you’ll engage in a process designed to help you structure baseline performance and development plans for everyone on your team.

Objectives:
• Understand the core managing tools and processes that form the backbone of managing others
• Appreciate the difference between poorly designed objectives and how to create objectives that are clear, concrete, and achievable for your team
• Create a framework of shared accountability and responsibility with your associates
• Structure and deliver feedback in a simple, powerful way that enhances performance
• Create ongoing performance and development plans that will really supercharge your working teams

Psychological Dimensions of Leading and Supervision

This course is intended for employees in leadership and supervisory roles – or for high potentials who already carry responsibility and seek to advance into such roles. Through experiential group learning and reflective exercises, participants acquire a deeper understanding of latent group dynamics that can inhibit, or support, group cohesion. One of the functions of leadership is to motivate people to accept responsibility and to be more autonomous in pursuing shared goals and in meeting their own, and others’, needs in the workplace. Participants gain insight into how to recognize and manage psychological aspects of group functioning to reduce the negative effects of deep emotions, such as fear, on group and individual behavior and workplace performance. They gain self-awareness and practice articulating and advocating for themselves and others. In doing so, they learn how to recognize, and avoid, counterproductive behaviors (e.g., blaming, scapegoating) that can disrupt cooperative efforts to achieve shared aims.

Objectives:
• Understand how unconscious individual and group processes influence motivation and decision-making in the workplace
• Understand the psychological defense of projection and how it plays into group dynamics such as scapegoating
• Identify aggressive and passive (e.g., fight vs. flight) approaches to handling workplace challenges and faulty group processes
• Learn ways to facilitate inclusiveness to gain the benefits of group synergy
• Enhance the ability to persuade and influence others, and to advocate to meet needs
• Gain insight and skills to manage workplace conflict constructively

Risk Management to Improve Business Results

Find opportunities and manage unknowns

Risk management is often misunderstood as anticipating negative events and insulating work from change. In reality, risks are both challenges and opportunities. Risk management in the current world of dynamic change allows an organization to monitor and adapt to changes in the most effective way for the organization.

Explore what risk management strategy is right for your work type. Develop an organization risk strategy and create corresponding plans for implementation, governance, and performance measurement.

Understand and develop ongoing protocols for ensuring effective organizational risk management. Utilize effective communication strategies around assessing and managing risk within an organization.

Objectives:
- Risk scenario development
- Risk culture and risk tolerance
- Risk analysis
- Quantifying and ranking risk
- Recognizing up-side risk
- CBA, ROI and Business Case Development and Presentation
- RACI development
- BIA facilitation
- Action Plan Development

Storytelling for Leaders: Telling Stories for Results

In today’s multi-cultural world of rapid organizational change, leaders need to communicate to employees and stakeholders in a quick and compelling way. Storytelling is a persuasive and powerful communications tool for driving specific outcomes in the workplace. We are hardwired to find meaning and understanding through a well-told story. People don’t always extract useful information from graphs or PowerPoint presentations. People connect to stories—they are how we make sense of the world around us. Strategic storytelling, using different narratives, can spark action or change and help employees find deeper meaning in their work.

Objectives:
- Learn different narrative styles needed to communicate objectives and mission
- Share Knowledge
- Spark Action
- Lead people into the Future
- Tame the grapevine of unproductive gossip and rumors

Target Audience: Leaders, Managers, Team-leads, and Professionals interested in learning how to use storytelling to drive business results

Strategic Delegation: Leading a Team to Success

Understanding how to delegate appropriately for team success is a management skill many organizational leaders lack. Leaders are more productive, their teams experience more wins, and their agencies experience optimal performance when those at the helm delegate appropriately. This class is designed to help leaders both understand the importance of pre-meditated delegation for time management and agency success and to enable leaders to identify their own strengths & weaknesses, allowing them to delegate strategically and better manage their time. It will help leaders identify the strengths of their team members—learning to whom they should delegate what for greatest productivity. Through a thoroughly hands-on learning experience, participants will begin to master the science of strategic delegation, (what, when, to whom, how).

Objectives:
• Gain a general understanding of their individual productivity
• Obtain perspective on the quality of their daily time management and learn ways to improve it
• An awareness of the importance of prioritizing and delegation for success
• A deeper understanding of the science and practice of delegation
• Identify three types of authorities you can delegate
• Major reasons why leaders find delegation challenging
• How to harness the ability to delegate using trust, empowerment, and motivation as tools in the delegation process

Target Audience: This course is designed for leaders and managers looking to increase individual and team productivity by leveraging existing human resources

Successfully Managing People

Are you ready to develop a high-performance team and get more done? In today’s changing business environment, experienced as well as new managers are seeking more effective strategies for managing and motivating employees. This seminar will provide strategies to resolve team conflict using emotional intelligence and show you how to get more from your team by adapting your management style to every situation. You’ll gain the skills to motivate every member of your team and use positive and corrective feedback to handle difficult performance issues and maximize productivity.

Objectives:
• Appreciate how the role of managers has changed in today’s organizations
• Recognize the role of values in managing people
• Describe the importance of ethical leadership
• Identify how your organization’s and workgroup’s culture shapes the behavior of the people with whom you work
• Assess your management and personal style and adjust it to different situations
• Adopt the approach needed to motivate different types of people
• Communicate effectively with those you manage
• Apply the principles of Emotional Intelligence to achieve greater effectiveness.
• Use feedback to improve performance and manage difficult employees

Target Audience: Managers and individuals with management responsibilities whose success depends on managing people through clear communication, a cooperative attitude, and commitment to shared goals

Supervising Challenging Employees

This course is designed to give supervisors the interpersonal and communication skill sets to effectively manage challenging employees and situations. Participants will examine behaviors and attitudes that “label” a person as “challenging” and develop techniques to formulate and communicate positive behavior change goals for the employee. Emphasis will be on maintaining a positive professional image and practicing communication techniques to address “attitude issues” that affect performance.

Objectives:
- Recognize whether the challenge is from the employee, the situation or the relationship
- Distinguish effective from ineffective responses to challenging employees
- Focus on goals and outcomes instead of personality and process
- Negotiate “performance agreements”
- Solicit and offer feedback more comfortably
- Influence people through their own values and motivations
- Cope productively with personality differences
- Create dialogue through improved active listening and questioning skills
- Measure and increase mutual TRAC ratings (trust, respect, affection, and confidence)

Target Audience: Managers and supervisors seeking effective ways for supervising “challenging” employees

Tackling Challenging Conversations

Collaboration, efficiencies, and performance rely on strong relationships and effective communication. Yet, when facing challenging conversations, people regularly struggle with broaching the topics. Often, they opt to avoid the conversations entirely, hoping that situations will resolve themselves. Or, they engage their counterparts without skill, worsening tenuous conditions while jeopardizing relationships. A better option exists. In this workshop, professionals build skills that allow them to tackle a variety of relational challenges with colleagues and clients, alike.

Objectives:
• Proactively broach difficult conversations
• Transition tense situations into constructive opportunities for improvement and relationship building
• Diffuse hostility and relational stresses through effective communication
• Increase learning through communication
• Manage differences more effectively and productively

Taking Control of Conflict

Most people have been involved in some form of conflict in the workplace ranging from mild disagreements to explosive standoffs. Clearly, conflict can be an obstacle to organizational success and personal job satisfaction. This program will show you how to identify the source of conflict and implement effective resolution strategies, as well as provide guidance on how to prevent unnecessary conflict from occurring in the first place.

Objectives:
• Identify your preferred strategy for handling conflict
• Understand the characteristics and drawbacks of each typical approach to conflict
• Recognize the various sources of conflict that most often occur in the workplace
• Implement strategies for effectively resolving conflicts that stem from each source
• Practice behaviors that minimize conflict

Team Building Through Work and Social Styles

Quite often, leaders lack an understanding of their work and social style and are equally unfamiliar with their team member’s styles. Their teams frequently function in poor working environments where unique working styles are neither appreciated nor leveraged, and both productivity and interpersonal relationships are affected. This has an adverse impact on individual and agency performance. This course is designed to help leaders develop insights about their behavioral strengths and weaknesses related to their style and to enable leaders to identify and utilize team members’ styles to make sound decisions when attempting to build successful teams or to enhance an existing team’s performance. Through a thoroughly hands-on learning experience, participants will be able to identify work and social style, appreciate its impact on work and interpersonal relationships, and ultimately on organizational productivity.

Objectives:
• Gain an understanding of participant’s individual work and social style
• Identify team members’ styles
• Obtain perspective of the relationship between style, working environment, and organizational productivity
• Build awareness of a team’s stages: forming, storming, norming, and performing
• Learn how to harness working styles to build successful teams or enhance an existing team’s performance
• Learn innovative ways to develop productive work and interpersonal relationships

The Manager as Performance Coach

People don’t quit their jobs, they quit their managers. How do you reverse that and become the manager everyone wants to work for?

Coaching focuses on the employee. Coaching is a way of leading and managing, a way of thinking and of treating people. It enables you to empower the employee to do the work and to realize the benefits of self-confidence, self-belief, pride, certainty of personal strengths, unleashing of potential, increased decision making and leadership skills, dignity of partnership, and increased adaptability to a changing world. You may also be preparing him/her for the next promotion.

Coaching employees leads to greater engagement, innovation, and productivity. This reduces the costs associated with employee attrition, unmet project timelines, and budget excesses. Your department meets its performance goals and is an energizing happy place to work. This is truly a win-win situation and you as the manager are the key. This 2-day course prepares your mindset and gives you practice in being an effective coach manager and unlocking the potential of your team.

Objectives:

• Understand the benefits of being a manager who coaches
• Learn the 4 stages of the Performance Curve and how coaching makes a difference
• Learn an 8-step coaching model and basic coaching skills
• Become familiar with what coaching sounds/looks like
• Identify the various situations when coaching can be used
• Learn best practices and the basic skills
• Explore the non-verbal aspects of coaching
• Explore communication styles and how they impact the coaching conversation
• Create a detailed implementation plan to use with your own direct reports

Target Audience: Managers, Supervisors, anyone with direct reports, and those who will soon move into those roles

The Personalities of Teams

This course focuses on strengthening team relationships and enhancing team effectiveness. The sum of individual team member personalities, the tasks the team is charged with, along with the work environment and context in which the team functions all play a role in a team’s personality. Participants will develop an understanding of the key characteristics of effective teams and learn to recognize the style of leadership needed at different stages in a team’s life cycle to drive productivity.

The goal of this course is to provide managers, supervisors and team leaders with the tools to drive high team performance and build a positive team personality.

Objectives:
- Understand principles of teams
- View teams within an organizational context
- Understand framework coined by Patrick Lencioni, Five Dysfunctions of a Team
- Be able to recognize what stage a team is in
- Understand strategies to guide teams based on a team’s current stage
- Understand productive versus disruptive conflict
- Be able to diagnose and strengthen characteristics that enable teams to be high-functioning

Audit Evidence and Documentation

Government Auditing Standards require performance auditors to ensure that findings and recommendations are supported by sufficient, relevant and competent evidence documented in working papers. Analyze the types of evidence and the tests that evidence must meet. Learn methods for collecting and documenting types of evidence needed to support your reports and to meet professional standards. Discover the benefits of referencing and how your audit objectives and design strategy affect the data required to conduct the audit.

Objectives:

- Identify and apply the government auditing standards that pertain to audit evidence and documentation
- Describe the types, tests and sources of evidence, how evidence is collected and how it can be documented
- Apply appropriate methods in collecting and recording evidence to assure the competence of the evidence
- Design an audit to identify and obtain sufficient, relevant evidence that will satisfy the audit’s objectives using a step-by-step process and a matrix to document the design
- Describe the purpose, types and forms, basic principles and information elements of audit documentation
- Explain reasons and demonstrate methods for indexing, safeguarding and cross-referencing audits
- Describe responsibilities for supervisory review of audit documentation and the benefits of referencing the audit report to the documentation

Compliance Auditing

Auditing compliance with authoritative requirements is a staple in government. Legislators and public officials expect such audits, and their performance is set forth in auditing standards. Participants learn the different kinds of compliance audits that might be made, including compliance with the provisions of contracts and grant agreements, conformance with quality control requirements and compliance with established procedures and controls (e.g., for handling cash). The course explores what auditors might do when they find that compliance with an authoritative requirement does not produce the desired results. Participants learn the circumstances when a compliance audit might not be appropriate.

Objectives:

• Cite the basic auditing principles that apply in conducting compliance audits
• Explain how audit findings differ for compliance with performance requirements and for compliance with procedures and controls
• Explain the unique development of cause in auditing compliance
• Explain the central role of objectives in auditing, and formulate objectives that establish what a given compliance audit is to accomplish
• Plan, execute and report on compliance audits

Target Audience: Auditors wanting to know the principles and general prerequisites in auditing for conformance with authoritative requirements, including contracts and grants

Developing and Presenting Audit Findings

Receive an in-depth, hands-on guidance, and practice in developing audit findings. Adequate findings development requires that you compile sufficient, relevant information to satisfy the audit’s objectives, promote a proper and correct understanding of the reported matters and convince readers to recognize the validity of the findings and the benefit of implementing any recommendations. Learn the appropriate finding elements to match the kind of audit you are doing. In multiple case exercises, you practice developing audit findings for the following types of audits: compliance, processes and controls, accomplishments and impact.

Objectives:
• Cite the government auditing standards provisions that apply to developing and presenting audit findings
• Explain the central role of effective audit objectives in findings development
• Describe two findings paradigms used in performance auditing and the elements they contain
• Outline a finding and prepare a synopsis summarizing the audit results in response to the audit’s objectives
• Develop and present audit findings and related conclusions and recommendations

Target Audience: New auditors, who prepare a performance, contract and grant audit. It will also benefit experienced auditors who have had limited exposure to the subject matter between the audit organization, the auditee organization follow-up coordinator and action officials. This responsibility is described in a variety of laws and OMB Circulars to provide a basis for accountability of the audited entities in responding to audit recommendations, reaching resolution and implementing the agreed corrective actions to reduce the risk of loss, improve operational performance and financial integrity in all levels of government.

Effective Audit Resolution, Follow-Up and Implementation

This course will explore the statutes, guidance and standards for audit recommendations, resolution, follow-up progress, monitoring and reporting. It will also define the roles and responsibilities of the audit organization and those designated to perform follow-up and implementation and reporting functions.

Objectives:

• Understand the importance and requirements of audit resolution and follow-up
• Describe the authority, roles and responsibilities of managers and auditors involved with audit resolution, follow-up, monitoring and reporting
• Develop timely, meaningful and actionable recommendations that can be agreeably resolved for appropriate action
• Address disputed recommendations and reach an equitable resolution
• Develop processes for achieving resolution, monitoring and reporting on the status of corrective action
• Verify, measure and score the value of audit results

Target Audience: Auditors, analysts and managers responsible for reporting, resolving, following-up, assessing, tracking and reporting on the progress of resolution and implementation of audit recommendations. Also, members of the organization responsible for representing the organization in the resolution process, including disputes, coordination of corrective actions and annual progress reporting on open, closed and unimplemented audits

Ethical Decision Making for Auditors

Focus on how to recognize, analyze and resolve ethical dilemmas that auditors face in their professional activities. The auditor’s mission is to evidence of fraud, waste, and abuse, which often results in touch decisions about how to handle sensitive situations. Since auditor ethics are under greater scrutiny, the goal of this course is to help each participant develop ethical fitness. Each participant will be armed with a decision-making matrix – a tool that focuses on shared core values and allows you to approach the analysis and resolution of ethical dilemmas in an organized way. You use your examples or real situations to develop the skills you can use to manage the difficulties you face every day.

Objectives:
• Develop a consensus on core values
• Describe how establishing shared, core values improve the ethical environment of a government audit organization
• Discriminate between moral temptations and authentic ethical dilemmas
• Analyze the dilemmas you face per a new framework
• Resolve the difficulties per classic ethical principles

Target Audience: Auditors, inspectors, evaluators, and analysts

Quick Response Auditing

Learn how to reduce the cycle time for your performance audits while maintaining quality, meeting user needs and complying with auditing standards. In this course, you learn when it is appropriate to offer clients alternatives to classic “full scope” audit coverage, such as quick response audits and consulting engagements. You explore the unique auditor-customer relationship that must be established to deliver products quickly and learn how to tailor audit products to better meet client needs. Drawing on case studies, learn to write objectives to facilitate prompt field work, timely reporting and ways to narrow or limit the scope of audit work to satisfy the objectives.

Objectives:

• Discuss why timely receipt of audit results have become increasingly important to those whom government auditors serve
• Identify appropriate conditions for quick response audits
• Describe techniques for limiting the number and breadth of audit objectives to facilitate quick audits
• Identify techniques for limiting audit scope
• Examine the flexibility in Government Auditing Standards that can be leveraged to foster quick response in audit engagements
• Discuss the use of non-audit services in delivering prompt information to government auditor’s clients

Target Audience: Experienced auditors, including supervisors, team leaders and managers

Selecting, Planning and Measuring Audits for Return on Investment

Selecting performance audits to conduct is like building a successful investment portfolio. Developing meaningful objectives helps ensure each audit efficiently and effectively achieves meaningful results. Together, the right audits and objectives provide a return on investment that is highly valued, relevant and meaningful to the stakeholders it serves. This seminar explores techniques and factors in selecting and planning audits based upon measurable factors of risk, materiality, public interest and public benefit as valued by its many stakeholders. This seminar will help you identify stakeholder interest and needs, future opportunities and external threats, apply a cost benefit approach using measures of outcome value to score proposals, and formulate compelling audit objectives that directs what an audit is to accomplish, from field work and findings to meaningful specific future-oriented recommendations of value.

Objectives:
- Apply strategic customer value in assessing desired stakeholder needs
- Perform a SWOT analysis and logic model to consider audit topic objectives
- Use internal and external risk assessment to identify areas of vulnerability and opportunity as criteria for scoring potential audit benefits and results
- Apply a cost/benefit approach to score the potential value of audit proposals
- Describe the central role of objectives in performance auditing
- Write objectives that provide clear direction for planning field work, assigning staff, facilitating report writing and meeting auditing standards
- Track audit progress and measure actual results

Target Audience: All auditors, evaluators, analysts and executives who are responsible for developing, proposing or selecting audit/evaluation topics, and for developing specific audit/evaluation objectives

The Emotionally Intelligent Auditor: A Guide to Achieving Power with People

Managing positive and productive relationships during the course of audit work, directing, coaching or working with members of the audit team, dealing with auditees, organizational management and external stakeholders can be emotionally challenging and often confrontational. We often have to deal with difficult people in difficult situations— and they have to deal with us! This executive seminar will examine the emotionally intelligent competencies and communication skills necessary to maintain control, and better connect with people in defusing angst and in building positive, cooperative relationships for constructive problem solving and inspired action. We will explore differences in personality types which cause misunderstandings, how to manage your own hot buttons, and how to manage difficult personality types or potentially contentious situations for positive outcomes.

Objectives:
• Examine and work toward achieving these key characteristics of emotional intelligence for personal effectiveness in auditing and leading change – Self-awareness, Self-control, Attitude and Motivation, Empathy, Social competence
• Maintain control, power and influence by managing challenging personalities and situations
• Build strong working and personal relationships through mutual trust and confidence to overcome the natural resistance to change and maximize the personal leadership for buy-in and action

Target Audience: Managers, leaders, auditors, analysts, evaluators and investigators

Zeroing in on Bribes & Kickbacks

The potential for bribes and kickbacks, whether in the private or public sector, is inherent in virtually every business transaction. Recent research conducted by a major financial institution revealed that an estimated one trillion dollars a year is paid in bribes worldwide. Audit standards require that all audits be planned to provide a reasonable assurance of detecting fraud if it has occurred. Bribes, kickbacks and other kinds of payoffs constitute types of fraud often referred to as corruption.

Get a strong introduction to (a) the provisions of law pertaining to fraud and corruption in the forms of bribes, kickbacks and other types of payoffs; (b) activities that are particularly susceptible to such forms of fraud; (c) the short-and long-term impact; and (d) the methods used to make illegal payments.

Focus on strengthening your ability to recognize the indicators of bribes, kickbacks and other types of payoffs in the procurement area and on your ability to collect evidence that they may have occurred or have occurred. Participate in case studies involving the fraudulent activities of bribes, kickbacks and other types of payoffs.

Objectives:
- Describe the kinds of activities that are susceptible to bribes and kickback
- Determine the impact and effects of bribes and kickbacks
- Discuss the Government Auditing Standards requirements to explicitly consider the potential for fraud in audit planning
- Describe how bribes and kickbacks occur, including the audit trails they create and how the trails can be followed
- Identify and collect evidence to demonstrate and document bribes and kickbacks
- Use analytic audit techniques to detect bribery and kickbacks

Target Audience: Auditors and investigators with three years of experience and seasoned professionals with limited exposure to the subject matter

ENERGY MANAGEMENT PROFESSIONALS

Energy Management Institute (EMI)

DCAS Energy Management, in partnership with the City University of New York (CUNY) School of Professional Studies (SPS), CUNY Building Performance Lab (BPL) and the Citywide Training Center (CTC), is pleased to announce our schedule for courses for Spring 2020.

The goal of EMI is to prepare City facilities personnel to make energy-smart decisions that will assist the City in meeting its green house gas (GHG) emissions reductions goals.

Important:

DCAS Energy Management (DEM) covers the cost of City staff participating in this training to improve the energy efficiency of building operations and maintenance, and to encourage building staff to develop, implement and monitor energy efficiency projects. If a City employee registers for the course but drops out before satisfactory completion, a fee will be assessed to their agency’s training department for a no-show or late cancellation per CTC cancellation policy. See course descriptions for respective fee amounts.

Please visit www.nyc.gov/ctc for Spring 2020 EMI Course Catalog to view detailed information on all Energy Management Institute courses.

For registrations please visit https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/agencies/energy-management-institute.page
For more information, please reach out to EMItraining@sps.cuny.edu.
ENERGY MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE
Building Operator Certification-Level I

Course Structure:
BOC-1 is the foundational energy efficiency course for building operators working in City facilities. It is designed to help building operators identify opportunities to make their facilities more energy-efficient so they can contribute to meeting City energy and emissions reductions goals. BOC-1 provides an overview of building systems and equipment, including electrical systems, mechanical systems, lighting technologies, and building controls. It also introduces students to energy data management and analysis and operational improvements that can improve energy efficiency and occupant comfort.

BOC-1 consists of one online webinar, nine in-person sessions taught by subject matter experts over a 19-week period, and 14 self-paced online modules. To successfully complete the course, students must attend all sessions and complete all online modules; take and pass four module-specific exams; and submit four practical project assignments focused on applying concepts learned in class to the facilities where they work. Students who do so can pursue the BOC-1 certification from the Northwest Energy Efficiency Council (“NEEC”). CUNY SPS and NEEC work together to assist City staff in completing their paperwork for the credential and taking the certification exam.

Target Audience:
BOC-1 is open to building operators, facilities management staff, and other energy management staff working in City buildings. The course is especially well-suited to the following:
• Building operators who may have limited formal building systems training, but have substantial on-the-job work experience with building systems
• Energy management staff who already have received some energy efficiency training and are seeking to deepen their understanding of building system and equipment concepts. In general, energy management staff should take the Fundamentals of Building Systems course before enrolling in BOC-1

Prerequisites:
• DCAS “This Is DEM” video
• Microsoft Excel and Math Assessments

To enroll, potential students should email the Course Registration Form to the CUNY SPS team at EMItraining@sps.cuny.edu.

Note: to confirm that they are ready to participate in BOC-1, potential students must complete two mandatory pre-course assessments: one focused on math skills and one focused on Microsoft Excel skills. Once potential students complete the registration process, CUNY SPS sends them a link to the two assessments. Each assessment takes about 15 minutes to complete. If a potential student does not achieve a satisfactory score on either or both assessments, they must take one or two self-paced online pre-courses before BOC-1 starts.
No Show Fee:
If a City employee registers for this course and drops out before satisfactory completion and/or does not meet the course completion criteria, a “No Show” fee of $1,875 will be assessed to their agency’s training department in accordance with CTC’s cancellation policy.

Certified Building Commissioning Professional Exam Preparation

Course Structure:
The CBCP course prepares individuals to take the Certified Building Commissioning Professional (CBCP) certification exam, which is offered by the Association of Energy Engineers (AEE). CBCP operates as a standard for qualifying energy professionals in the United States and abroad. The CBCP course consists of a total of four (4) days, split between three and a half (3.5) days of in-person instructional sessions taught by subject matter experts and a half (0.5) day for the comprehensive certification exam, administered on the afternoon of the fourth day. The CBCP course is designed to provide participants with an in-depth understanding of building commissioning concepts, processes, and project management.

Target Audience:
Open to City staff with one of the following certifications:
• Preferred: BOC-2 Training Certificate of Completion (TCOC)
• Minimum: BOC-1 Training Certificate of Completion (TCOC)
Students who put forward comparable experience in substitution will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Prerequisites:
• N/A

To enroll, potential students should email the Course Registration Form to the CUNY SPS team at EMItraining@sps.cuny.edu.

No Show Fee:
If a City employee registers for this course and drops out before satisfactory completion and/or does not meet the course completion criteria, a “No Show” fee of $1,875 will be assessed to their agency’s training department in accordance with CTC’s cancellation policy.

Course Overview:
Term: Spring 2020
Days: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday (5)
Classroom Sessions: Mar 2-6
Hours: 9:00am-5:00pm

Certified Energy Auditor Exam Preparation

Course Structure:
The CEA course prepares individuals to take the Certified Energy Auditor (CEA) certification exam, which is offered by the Association of Energy Engineers (AEE). CEA operates as a standard for qualifying energy professionals in the United States and abroad. The CEA course consists of a total of four (4) days, split between three (3) days of in-person instructional sessions taught by subject matter experts and one (1) day for the comprehensive certification exam, administered on the fourth day. The CEA course is designed to provide participants with an in-depth, technical review of energy auditing.

Target Audience:
Open to City staff with one of the following certifications:
• Preferred: BOC-2 Training Certificate of Completion (TCOC)
• Minimum: BOC-1 Training Certificate of Completion (TCOC)
Students who put forward comparable experience in substitution will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Prerequisites:

ENERGY MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE
Certified Energy Manager Program

Course Structure:
This course enables students to obtain the Certified Energy Manager (CEM) credential by preparing and registering them for the CEM certification exam, offered by the Association of Energy Engineers (AEE). CEM operates as a standard for qualifying energy professionals in the United States and abroad. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Energy, the Office of Federal Energy Management Programs, and numerous state energy offices, utilities, corporations, and energy service companies.

The course consists of four in-person instructional sessions taught by subject matter experts and a full- day comprehensive certification exam. The five-day course is offered over a one-week period.
To successfully complete the course, students must meet the stated eligibility criteria; attend all instructional sessions; submit an exam application form before sitting for the exam; (provided during the prep period); and pass the four-hour, written, open- book CEM exam.

Learning Objectives:
BCEM is designed for students who have previous intensive energy management training or experience. For FY20, DEM will give preference to students who have successfully completed both BOC-1 and BOC-2, but accommodate other qualified students as space permits. Students seeking to substitute other advanced training or experience for BOC-1 or BOC-2 should reach out to CUNY
SPS to request enrollment permission. All students must meet AEE’s combined education- experience eligibility requirements summarized on the next page (i.e., they can qualify under any one of the six qualification pathways).

Education and Experience Requirements for Certification:
• DCAS “This Is DEM” video
• Microsoft Excel and Math Assessments

Energy Efficient Controls Systems

Course Structure:
Energy-Efficient Controls Systems consists of five (5) in-person instructional sessions and one (1) hands-on multi-meter lab taught by subject matter experts over an eleven (11) week period. The course provides training on building controls components that affect energy consumption. The 6-day course follows a blended learning format, with instructor-led sessions, hands-on practice in a multi-meter lab, and other learning modalities (i.e. videos and activity-based learning).

Target Audience:
Trades personnel and supervisors working in City facilities

Prerequisites:
• DCAS “This Is DEM” video
• Microsoft Excel and Math Assessments

ENERGY MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

Foundations for Energy Efficient Building Systems

Course Structure:
Foundations introduces skilled tradespeople working within City buildings to the trades’ role in improving energy efficiency. It helps tradespeople identify and act on energy-saving opportunities for critical systems, including performing cost comparisons between system maintenance and correction.

Foundations consists of two in-person instructional sessions taught by subject matter experts over a two-day period. The course includes a field trip to a City-owned building to provide hands-on learning opportunities related to different building systems. To successfully complete the course, students must attend and take part in in-person sessions and take pre- and post-learning assessments given during the first and final classes.

Note: Foundations is a new course that DEM first piloted in FY 2019 as part of a larger effort to refresh EMI’s trades-focused training offerings. Previously, the trades-focused training offerings consisted of five courses targeted to individuals in the following professions: (1) Electricians, (2) Thermostat Repairers, (3) Pipe/Steamfitters, (4) Plumbers, and (5) Oilers/Mechanics. The team is planning to replace these courses with one foundation-level course (Building Foundations) for members of all five trades and three advanced courses focused on specific building systems (Controls, Electrical, and Mechanical).

Target Audience:
Foundations is designed for tradespeople and supervisors interested in improving energy efficiency in their buildings. The course may be relevant to tradespeople in the following professions: (1) Electricians, (2) Thermostat Repairers, (3) Pipe/Steamfitters, (4) Plumbers, and (5) Oilers/Mechanics.

Prerequisites:
- BOC Level 1
- DCAS “DEM” Video and others

To enroll, potential students should email the Course Registration Form to the CUNY SPS team at EMLtraining@sps.cuny.edu.
No Show Fee:
If a City employee registers for the course but drops out before satisfactory completion, a fee of $975 will be assessed to their agency’s training department for “No Show” in accordance with the CTC cancellation policy.

Fundamentals of Building Systems

Course Structure:
Fundamentals is designed to provide foundational energy management knowledge for City staff. It provides an overview of critical building systems and equipment, including their relationship to energy consumption; explains electrical and mechanical engineering concepts pertinent to building operations; and introduces best practices for energy efficiency in City buildings. The course prepares students without a technical background to succeed in BOC-1.

Fundamentals consists of a half-day in-person introductory session, followed by ten self-paced online modules, and then a half-day in-person wrap-up session. The wrap-up session helps close out the online modules to ensure understanding. The online modules cover: (1) the building envelope; (2) the science of building systems; (3) HVAC, plumbing, and electrical building systems; (4) building controls; (5) occupant controls; (6) maintenance; (7) risks; (8) codes, zones, and regulatory requirements; (9) environmental factors; and (10) a wrap-up module. To successfully complete the course, students must attend the in-person sessions; finish all online modules; and take pre- and post-learning assessments given during the first and final classes.

Target Audience:
Fundamentals is designed for City energy management staff who are not building operators and do not have a technical background. Students enrolled in this course should not have primary job responsibility for managing building operations at their facility and/or extensive working knowledge of building systems and equipment. In most cases, Fundamentals is a pre-requisite for non-building operators who seek to complete BOC-1.

Prerequisites:
• N/A

To enroll, potential students should email the Course Registration Form to the CUNY SPS team at EMItraining@sps.cuny.edu.

ENERGY MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE
Introduction to Load Management

Course Structure:
This course provides City staff with an overview of Load Management concepts and techniques aimed at finding ways in which to optimize your building’s operation by reducing energy consumption. Led by an expert in energy engineering, the course is designed to equip staff with the essential information that they need to help their agencies participate in the City’s Load Management Program and realize the benefits involved in doing so, including contributing to the City’s target of 80% reduction in greenhouse gas emissions by 2050.

During the course, students will discover the policy context for load management, go through relevant load management concepts, discuss key examples, and learn to interpret load profiles, all in an effort to draw connections between your buildings’ energy usage, and operations to identify savings opportunities. The course consists of a 6-hour interactive workshop held on a single day. The first part of the workshop involves lecture and discussion, while the second part is comprised of hands-on EnerTrac training, the City’s tool for analyzing real-time metering data, with a focus on load profile analysis in a computer lab. To successfully complete the course, students must only attend the course; there are no out-of-class assignments.

Target Audience:
Introduction to Load Management is open to all interested energy management staff, building operators, and facilities management staff at City buildings. The course does not require a technical background. Please note that DEM may give preference to staff at agencies targeted for near-term Load Management Program participation.

Prerequisites:

ENERGY MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE
Load Management Training & Coaching

Course Structure:
Load Management Training and Coaching ("LMTC") is designed to provide building operators with hands-on support in implementing Load Management measures at your buildings to optimize energy usage. LMTC teaches operators how to utilize their real-time metering data, trending data from your Building Automation Systems ("BAS") and/or data loggers to apply Building Re-tuning ("BRT") practices to your building to save energy. While LMTC is a new offering for FY20, on average, students who have participated in similar trainings have achieved total energy consumption savings of 10% at their buildings.

LMTC will be spread amongst nine in-person sessions. The first three sessions consist of lecture and discussion, where the instructor brings together LM and BRT concepts. The following six sessions consist of hands-on coaching, during which the CUNY BPL coaches and the DEM LM team will work closely with students to identify and implement operational improvements at their specific buildings. To successfully complete the course, students must attend all in-person sessions and complete designated out-of-class assignments. Support for the completion of the assignments will be provided by BPL and DEM LM engineers, including personalized site visits.

Target Audience:
LMTC is open to interested energy management staff, building operators, and facilities management staff at City buildings where the following is encouraged but not required:
• Have successfully completed BOC-1.
• Are assigned to and/or are responsible for at least one agency building where major equipment can be controlled.
• Can access trend logging functions in a BAS/ BMS throughout the duration of the course.
Please note that DEM may give preference to staff at agencies targeted for near-term Load Management Program participation. In general, if Agency Energy Personnel seeks to enroll in this training offering, they should confirm that at least one building operator from their agency also will attend.

Prerequisites:
• BOC-Level 1 and your building must have a BAS/BMS system

To enroll, potential students should email the Course Registration Form to Elizabeth Taveras at ETaveras@dcas.nyc.gov. The DEM LM Team will work to confirm both that potential students meet the pre-requisites for the training offering and that their buildings are good near-term candidates for LM participation. Following this process, the DEM LM Team and CUNY SPS will place students in the most suitable cohort, such that they can participate alongside other staff from their own or similar agencies. ***
No Show Fee:
If a City employee registers for the course but drops out before satisfactory completion, a fee of $1,875 will be assessed to their agency’s training department for “No Show” in accordance with the CTC cancellation policy.

HUMAN RESOURCES PROFESSIONALS

Human Resources Management Certificate Course

The Human Resource Management (HRM) certificate course is designed for middle- and senior-level HR managers seeking to become certified HR professionals. The course, offered in cooperation with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and Pace University, provides an overview of the key roles and functions of a senior Human Resource generalist. In addition to preparing participants to sit for SHRM certification exams, the course provides a solid foundation for managing the HR challenges faced in today’s demanding work environment. HRM focus areas include:

- Strategic Management
- Workforce Planning and Employment
- Human Resource Development
- Risk Management
- Employee and Labor Relations

Available Fall 2020

Please call 212.386.0004 for more information.
PROCUREMENT PROFESSIONALS

As one of the nation’s largest public contracting entities, New York City is dependent on a procurement workforce with high-level skills and knowledge in all areas of the procurement field. Procurement classes are intended to increase the professionalization of procurement staff at all employment levels, to provide staff development opportunities that will lead to improved efficiency and productivity in City procurement, to encourage innovation in procurement, and to foster excellence in all aspects of the procurement function.

Conflicts of Interest Seminar for Procurement Professionals

This course provides an overview of the Conflicts of Interest Law, Chapter 68 of the New York City Charter. In-class case studies and practical exercises are used to provide participants with a general understanding of the Conflicts of Interest Law, how to avoid conflicts and appearances of conflict, and the responsibilities of the Conflicts of Interest Board (COIB).

Objectives:

• Understand the Conflicts of Interest Law (including but not limited to: accepting gifts, reporting misconduct by others, post-employment restrictions)
• Determine to whom the law applies
• Know when to seek an opinion from COIB

Target Audience: Procurement personnel employed by the City of New York

Local Law 34 Compliance/DBA (Doing Business Accountability) Project

*This class is held at the Mayor’s Office of Contract Services, 253 Broadway, 14th floor

Local Law 34 of 2007 (LL34) established a public Doing Business Database of all entities that are doing or seek to do business with the City, as well as their principal officers, owners, and senior managers. When an entity is doing business with the City, persons in these positions have stricter limits put onto their donations to candidates for City office than those for persons not doing business with the City. This course will cover everything you need to know regarding how and when in the procurement cycle and process agencies will need to collect DBDF forms in order to comply with LL34.

Objectives:
- History and requirement of Local Law 34
- What qualified as business with the City
- Which City agencies are included
- Why certain personal information is required
- Standards for agency review of Doing Business Data Forms for Completeness

Target Audience: Staff involved in the procurement process and those interested in how campaign finance law relates to City procurement

What is Organization Development?

Organization Development (OD) is a body of knowledge and practice that enhances organizational performance and individual development. The focus of an OD intervention can be individual, group/team or organizational and take place and use methodologies and approaches that facilitate strategic planning, organization design, leadership development, change management, and performance management.

Citywide Organization and Executive Development (OED) partners with experts in the fields of Organizational Psychology, Neuroscience and Leadership, Business Management, and Social Science to offer relevant training and OD opportunities to agencies and individuals. Staff and faculty are committed to helping clients move toward more efficient and effective work models. All programs and classes offered within the Executive Development Portfolio are available for customization in support of ongoing agency initiatives.

Assessment & Facilitation

Assessment and Facilitation programs are offered to managers and leaders who wish to gage strengths and growth opportunities for their team. Assessments are administered by licensed practitioners who provide a context for how assessment results are to be interpreted and appropriately applied. Participants receive confidential, anonymous feedback and, through the use of an action or development plan, are offered tools to use to further increase their management capacity.
The Leadership Institute

The Leadership Institute prepares a select group of outstanding mid-level agency executives to lead organizational change initiatives. The institute is organized into three sections – organizational diagnosis, direction setting, and implementation strategy – and looks at management frameworks and tools, and their application to organizational change in the public sector.

Participants are identified through a competitive selection process, and are introduced to state-of-the-art change models focusing on process and performance improvement during the program. Managers leave with an invaluable set of tools and a vast network of colleagues to support them as they implement change initiatives within City agencies.

Participants are selected to the Leadership Institute based on the results of an extensive application review and interview process. Additional information about the program can be found on the website at https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/agencies/leadership-institute.page or by calling 212.386.0004.

The Management Academy

The Management Academy is designed specifically for the City’s new and emerging leaders. The Academy’s goal is to expose participants to exceptional management practices and offer them an understanding of the formal and informal processes that drive City government. Through a series of workshops, the Academy stimulates analytical and creative thought to better equip its participants for meeting the daily challenges they face in increasing productivity and delivering service excellence.

The Academy focuses on three areas essential to management success in City government:
   1. Developing and utilizing human resources,
   2. Improving service delivery, and
   3. Understanding the operational aspects of City systems.

Participants are selected to the Management Academy based on the results of an extensive application review and interview process. Additional information about the program can be found on the website at https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/agencies/management-academy.page or by calling 212.386.0004.
Executive Coaching

Executive Coaching is a vital tool used by agencies to facilitate professional growth and personal development for managers and executives. The practice offers clients the opportunity to examine current work behaviors, seek clarity and understanding, reevaluate assumptions and reframe problems as well as gain new insights. Coaches use a variety of methodologies to help clients gain an assortment of management and leadership tools which can be used at their disposal.

A coaching experience includes:
1. Preliminary meeting with Organization and Executive Development to assess coaching needs.
2. A review of coach profiles, and self-selection of a coach that best suits your work style.
3. Meeting with the Coach to...
   a. agree upon desired outcomes resulting from your coaching relationship
   b. establish a prescribed work-plan
   c. determine meeting parameters
   d. begin the work!

All of L&D’s coaching options incorporate an assessment and feedback. For more detailed information on Executive Coaching, please call 212.386.0004.
Frederick O’Reilly Hayes Prize

Frederick O’Reilly Hayes was a remarkable leader who was passionate about innovation in government service delivery. He pioneered management and analytic methods while crafting daring public policy and recruiting and mentoring a generation of public service minded leaders. His influence during his career spanned federal, state and local government, and he managed the largest municipal budget in the United States as Budget Director of the City of New York. Fred’s dedication to improving the delivery of public service knew no bounds. He instilled this spirit of innovation and excellence to his associates who learned from his ideas, ideals and work.

To honor his career, promote his ideals, and enhance the attractiveness of public service careers, the Frederick O’Reilly Hayes Prize recognizes innovative contributions to the delivery of public services by emerging leaders in New York City government. The Prize seeks to reward public servants who have demonstrated a high degree of talent, commitment and accomplishment, and who anticipate continuing their careers in public service.

After a review of nomination packages, finalists are interviewed by The Hayes Prize Committee. Based upon the results of the interview a winner is selected. Additional information about the Hayes Prize can be found on the website at https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/agencies/frederick-oreilly-hayes-prize.page or by calling 212.386.0004.
The Hundred Year Association Awards Program

The Hundred Year Association of New York honors outstanding, permanent civil servants, and provides college scholarships for the children of New York City employees. Founded in 1927, The Hundred Year Association of New York is composed of professional, educational, religious and charitable organizations that have been in continuous operation in New York City for over a century. The Association has honored career civil service employees since 1958. In addition, since 1971, the Association has awarded college scholarships to the children of City employees. Two long-standing and prestigious awards are offered of the Hundred Year Association:

Public Service Awards
The Isaac Liberman Public Service Awards (PSA)

College Scholar Awards
The E. Virgil Conway College Scholar Awards (CSA)

Additional information about the 100 Year Association Awards Program can be found on the website at https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/agencies/hundred-year-association.page or by calling 212.386.0004.
NYC employees can prepare for professional certifications and exams with training that is specific to their certification’s requirements. L&D’s current offerings include the CUNY Public Administration Program, NIGP Certification, LMSW Preparation Program, and a wide variety of IT Certifications.

The CUNY/DCAS Public Administration and Public Policy Certificate Program (undergraduate and graduate levels) is offered in collaboration between the City University of New York’s School of Labor and Urban Studies (SLU) and the DCAS Center. The Public Administration Certificate Program is designed to provide an opportunity to earn college credits, improve communication and analytical skills, and provide for expanded knowledge of government agencies, social services, labor relations, and the legislative and budgetary processes in the context of deepening the understanding of urban challenges and institutions.

Each semester, two courses in the Public Administration program are offered at the CTC Training Center, 1 Centre Street, 24th Floor. For many students, this location is more convenient than SLU’s Campus at 25 West 43rd Street, 18th and 19th floors.

ENROLL AT THE UNDERGRADUATE OR GRADUATE LEVEL:
• Earn a Certificate in Public Administration & Public Policy, Healthcare Policy & Administration, or Labor Relations from the City University of New York and the NYC Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS)
• Apply completed certificate credits toward a bachelor’s or master’s degree at CUNY School of Labor and Urban Studies
• Union tuition plans are applicable and tuition reimbursement may apply
• Students are responsible for tuition costs

This course will examine the growth, structure, role, and methods of local and federal bureaucracies and their impact on American government and society. It will introduce participants to the subject of bureaucracy in American government and will survey the major areas of study in Public Administration, including the context of public administration, the meaning of federalism and intergovernmental relations. In addition, the course will address organizational theory and behavior, decision-making, leadership, policy implementation, budgeting, personnel management, performance management, legal and regulatory constraints, ethics and accountability.
Research Seminar on Public Policy

| PADM 23100 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-9:35pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd St., 19th Floor |

This course is a seminar in public-policy analysis, including full class sessions as well as supervised independent research. The seminar will focus on a single topic, such as health care, housing or criminal justice, which will change each semester. Using a task force model, students will survey the literature on the topic under consideration and work in teams to work on particular aspects of the social problem and policy. The task for each team is to identify, analyze and evaluate an existing policy or set of policies related to the selected topic. Students will develop criteria for evaluation and assemble data to support an argument concerning the viability and effectiveness of policies under examination.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION & POLICY

The Advanced Certificate in Public Administration and Policy (Level I) will provide participants a deeper understanding of such topics as public management, the administrative decision-making process, diversity, training and staff development, and union-management relations. To earn the Certificate, participants must complete twelve credits.

Research Methods Seminar

| PADM 65100 | Credits: 3 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-8:45pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd St., 19th Floor |

This course examines research methods used to produce accurate data on a range of important public policy and public administration issues. Participants will learn the importance of formulating research questions and how to frame them; the range of methodologies that can be employed and why and when to use them; and the tools of research methodology and how to utilize them. They will also learn how to analyze data in order to produce research reports in which conclusions are supported by reliable data. In this seminar, participants will discuss the theoretical and operational issues critical to doing research and will develop tools and techniques for conducting both quantitative and qualitative research. Participants will critique and evaluate specific research studies and will make presentations, posing questions for group discussion. Finally, participants will develop an operational familiarity with computer-based programs for statistics and data analysis.
Policy Analysis

| PADM 62100 | Credits: 3 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-8:45pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will introduce participants to theories and techniques of policy analysis and will help them acquire the basic skills necessary to do analytic work. The course will begin by defining policy analysis and the various social models that underlie differing analytic and evaluative frameworks. It will examine the institutions, interests, and forces that shape policy debate and affect “delivery” of policy initiatives. Participants will explore several models of analysis and consider their limits as well as their strengths. They will explore the role of government in implementing public policy and allocating resources.

Public Administration

| PADM 60100 | Credits: 3 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15-8:45 pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will examine critical issues confronting government and public administration. Students will analyze theoretical questions of public administration and address the real-world experience of public sector employees, both managers and staff. Students will evaluate academic literature on current and future trends in public-sector labor relations, including material on performance management and the Government Performance Results Act, as well as “post-bureaucratic” models of the public-sector workplace. In this process, students will examine such key managerial issues as evaluation of employee performance; motivation of employees; organizational justice; diversity management; training and staff-development; union-management relations; and collective bargaining.
UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN HEALTH CARE POLICY & ADMINISTRATION

In a major revision and updating, the Undergraduate Certificate in Health Care Policy and Administration (new title: Leading Change in Healthcare Systems) provides students with a cutting edge understanding of the theory and practice of health care policy and administration while developing advanced analytic, research, writing and presentation skills. It is ideal for those currently employed within the field or interested in pursuing careers as health care managers and administrators, as well as public policy analysts and advocates. To earn the Certificate, participants must hold a high school diploma or GED/TASC and complete four courses, for a total of sixteen credits.

This course provides a framework for health workers to address issues of difference from the perspectives of power, privilege, health disparities, and social justice in the United States. Through the frequent use of group exercises, case studies, and professional reflections, students will examine and analyze these concepts as well as the concept of social construction of difference. Students will explore the overlap and differences among cultural awareness, cultural sensitivity, cultural competence, cultural proficiency, and cultural respect and humility. The course will not focus on beliefs, behaviors, or customs of specific cultural groups since, in urban centers, health care workers simply cannot become familiar with the many cultures with which they are likely to interact, nor can culture and difference be simplified into clear-cut categories. The course will help students identify their own cultures, acknowledge their own biases and ways they stereotype others, recognize how privilege and power interfere with cultural respect and humility, and develop a framework for relating to people from diverse groups.

This course is designed to support student engagement in an academic setting and to connect students to external and internal resources to foster success in exploring various healthcare issues and opportunities. The course will explore healthcare settings in terms of issues of leadership, advocacy, and contemporary labor-management relationships. Students will establish a baseline of personal, interpersonal, and professional competencies through self-assessment, and will establish goals for further development. Through self-reflection and instructor feedback, students will enhance their professionalism and fundamental skills critical for success in the classroom and in the workplace. Assigned readings highlight the diverse settings in which healthcare staff work. Through this course, students will also learn how to take advantage of resources of our School.
Urban Health Issues & Public Policy

| HCA 30700 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-9:35pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will present a range of key health issues and problems that confront urban communities in the U.S. Students will examine the impact of these issues on the health of urban residents, with attention to variations in impact related to race, ethnicity, gender and class. Issues include environmental health, homelessness, urban substance abuse, access to care among disabled health care populations, infectious diseases, immigrant health, urban violence, occupational health for urban workers, among others. Policies that have been enacted or proposed to address each of these issues will be presented and critically evaluated throughout the course.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN HEALTH CARE POLICY & ADMINISTRATION

In a major revision and updating, the Advanced Certificate in Health Care Policy and Administration (new title: Leading Change in Healthcare Systems) provides professional development for administrative and professional workers in New York City’s health care industry. Participants will gain a rich understanding of the theory and practice of health care policy and administration while developing advanced analytic, research, writing, and presentation skills. To earn the Certificate, participants must complete four courses, for a total of twelve credits.

Fundamentals of Health Care Systems and Organizations

| HCA 60000 | Credits: 3 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-8:45pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will focus on the foundational concepts in healthcare systems as well as build core competencies and skills among class attendees. The course overlaps with no other course in the department and no course will be dropped to accommodate this offering. Students will draw on both their practical experience and the literature to develop an innovative program proposal to address a health systems or organizational challenge of their choosing.

This course will examine in detail the manifestations of health disparities and inequalities in the U.S., with particular reference to their relevance to health care policy and practice in New York City. Evidence of inequalities will be presented with regard to major health indicators, including: incidence and prevalence of disease; differential screening, diagnosis, treatment, and outcome; exposures to risk factors and preventive measures; access to and utilization of health care services; issues relating to the clinical encounter; biases in health research; and health of selected populations. Disparities will be studied through the lenses of race, class, gender, age, residence, and sexual orientation, as well as through the interactions of these factors. A variety of theoretical frameworks will be critically evaluated or their contribution to the explanation of the existence and distribution of health disparities.

This course will approach the politics of health care in the U.S. by examining and analyzing the interests of the major stakeholders in the system of care delivery. These stakeholders will include the federal, state and local governments; hospitals; insurance companies; the pharmaceutical, tobacco, and food industries; organized labor; health providers and professional organizations, the public health movement, and consumer health movements. Among the issues to be considered are financial gain, control of health care resources, and process and power in decision making. Relationships among the various stakeholders will be assessed as will their contributions to fostering or thwarting universal access to care, equitable health treatment, health promotion and disease prevention, and health research free from bias.

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

The Certificate in Community Leadership provides students with the skills to help them participate effectively in political processes on behalf of communities. Students gain the educational and professional credentials needed to pursue careers in public service, specifically in local nonprofits, community advocacy organizations, government agencies, and elected office. Using New York City and its diverse municipalities as the classroom, students learn how communities are organized, how nonprofits serve constituents, and how community engagement can result in social progress and political power. To earn the Certificate, participants must hold a high school diploma or GED/TASC and complete four courses, for a total of sixteen credits.
Work, Culture, and Politics in New York City

| LPOL 30100 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | Fridays | TBD | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course explores the work, culture, and politics of New York City, examining where New Yorkers live and work, how communities develop, and questioning if the cultural and political institutions of New York adequately serve the city’s diverse population. Major topics covered include the history of New York, New York’s key industries, trends in immigration, economic development, public policy, public and private space, high culture, popular culture, urban social identity, community organizations, and labor’s contributions to building the city’s institutions.

Community Organizing and Community Organizations

| URB 32100 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-9:35pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will examine the historical development and contemporary practice of community organization. Students will examine why and how people in urban communities and neighborhoods have organized to protect their rights and their entitlements to public services; to acquire resources for development; and to improve their quality of life. Through readings, students will develop a historical and theoretical perspective on community organization and explore the range of issues around which communities organize. They will gain familiarity with various models and strategies of community organizations in New York City and will acquire practical knowledge and skills for effective grassroots organizing. They will also examine the effectiveness of coalitions and alliances, including relationships between community organizations, public agencies, and labor unions.

Introduction to Nonprofit Leadership

| URB 32400 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-9:35pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course introduces the field of nonprofit management. The class will cover issues that arise for leaders of these kinds of organizations, including governance and boards, strategic planning, fundraising and philanthropy as well as grant-writing, administration, personnel management, and ethical questions. The class will focus on nonprofits broadly but investigate variations in the sector, from public-sector organizations to education, labor organizations, 501c(3) organizations, and others. The class will emphasize issues related to best practices needed for nonprofit leaders to successfully meet the mission of their organizations. Students will be required to engage in discussion and exercises that explore the relationship between theories and practices of nonprofit leadership and management.
GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

The Advanced Certificate in Community Leadership provides students with the educational and professional credentials to help them pursue leadership-path careers in public service, specifically in locally serving nonprofits, community advocacy organizations, government agencies, and elected office. Students deepen their understanding of the critical theoretical, conceptual, practical, and grassroots issues relating to community development and urban policy innovations. To earn the Certificate, participants must complete four courses, for a total of twelve credits.

The main emphasis of the course is a broad examination of the issues that have confronted communities since the mid-20th century. First, it studies the historical development of urban communities and the structural roots of urban social problems. Second, it traces the community development movement from its historic connections to the civil rights movement and the War on Poverty to its present-day manifestations. Third, it introduces students to various community development approaches and the complex constraints residents, activists, and organizations face as they confront common challenges. Finally, this course will use New York City as its main “case,” relying on New York-focused studies to illuminate the theoretical and practical issues outlined above.

Drawing on a considerable body of social science and historical research, this course applies leadership and organizational theories to a union context in order to examine and analyze the leadership models, practices, and approaches we find in contemporary unions. Students will examine the labor movement in the context of current economic, political and legal conditions. Topics in the course include organizational structure and group dynamics, motivating membership, ethical decision-making, strategic planning, and resolving conflict.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN LABOR RELATIONS

The Advanced Certificate in Labor Relations offers participants the opportunity to develop the practical skills necessary for participation in collective bargaining, conflict resolution, and contract administration. It also provides a theoretical and historical understanding of labor law, public policy and the role of worker organizations in employment relations. To earn the Certificate, participants must complete four courses, for a total of twelve credits.

This course will provide students with a theoretical understanding of the collective bargaining process in the U.S. In addition to studying union and management theories of bargaining, students will analyze contemporary and historically significant bargaining scenarios in the private and public sectors and will develop advanced knowledge of labor relations in a variety of workplace environments. Students will examine the legal framework of collective bargaining and will study the evolution of public policy governing labor relations.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN URBAN AND COMMUNITY STUDIES

The BA in Urban and Community Studies degree program is designed for participants with interests in urban, social, economic, and political issues, especially as they relate to diverse working-class communities. The program allows participants to explore the dynamics of urban and community life, public policy and administration, the structure of urban government and agencies, the delivery of social services, and community and labor organizing. Course offerings include:

Introduction to U.S. Social and Economic Policy

| URB 31000 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-9:35pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will introduce students to basic economic concepts and political theories that have influenced the development of U.S. social and economic policy. Students will explore the ways national policy and political practice have historically affected the policies and practices of urban government, the structures of urban institutions, and the allocation of resources to urban communities. Students will evaluate how national and local policies address problems created by unequal distribution of income and wealth. In this context, students will discuss such topics as education, housing, health care, employment and labor relations, criminal justice, social welfare, and the environment. Students will also consider the ways globalization has altered the local as well as national economy and the ways in which it has affected social structures and social policies.
Urban Populations and Communities

| URB 32000 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-9:35pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will introduce participants to the history of urbanization and the development of urban communities and enclaves. Participants will examine the various economic, social, and political factors that stimulate global immigration and internal migrations, including the shift from an industrial to a service economy that marks contemporary cities such as New York.

Contemporary Urban Problems

| URB 34000 | Credits: 4 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-9:35pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

Urban centers like New York City are very complex and diverse, increasingly affected by globalization, and always in a state of flux. While this description conveys the vitality and energy of cities, it also points to a host of challenges faced by city dwellers and communities as well as civic institutions, service providers, and local government. This course explores the major challenges faced by U.S. cities in light of population shifts, widening disparities in income and wealth, restructuring of work, persistent unemployment, and diminishing resources for low-income and working-class populations. Though the majority of this course will focus primarily on urban issues in the US, the course will highlight a comparative selection of urban problems in developing nations.

MASTER OF ARTS IN URBAN STUDIES

The MA in Urban Studies degree program is designed for participants interested in the political, economic, and social dynamics of contemporary urban life. Blending theory with practice, the program offers participants an emphasis on urban problems and solutions, public policy, community organizations and community organizing, social change and social movements, civic engagement, the urban workforce, the administration of public agencies, and the delivery of public services. Course offerings include:

Classical Approaches to Urban Studies

| URB 60000 | Credits: 3 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-8:45pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course is designed to familiarize students with central ideas and debates in the field of Urban Studies. Students will do close readings of classic critical texts and will write response papers of varying types and lengths. In this process of reading and responding, students will advance their understanding of the literature and will enhance their analytic skills.
Urban Public Management

| URB 60100 | Credits: 3 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-8:45pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course examines the scope and range of urban public management, with the aim of defining and evaluating how services are delivered through local government and nonprofit agencies. The focus will be on government managers, public-sector employees, and public-sector unions.

Social and Economic Policy in the United States

| PADM 61100 | Credits: 3 | Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9 | TBD | 6:15pm-8:45pm | The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd Street, 19th Floor |

This course will explore the economic and political aspects of critical social issues, discussing a range of policies and policy alternatives that address these issues at both the national and local levels. To provide a framework for these discussions, we will examine the relationship between government, the economy, and the variety of policy approaches historically employed to address social issues.

MASTER OF ARTS IN LABOR STUDIES

The MA in Labor Studies degree program draws from the fields of sociology, law, history, economics, political science and labor relations to examine the opportunities and challenges facing workers and their organizations. The program strengthens the ability of students to advocate for equity and social justice in their communities and workplaces. Students develop critical thinking, analytical and leadership skills, while learning about labor law, organizing, collective bargaining, international perspectives, labor relations and strategic research. Course offerings include:
Labor in the Era of Globalization

LABR 60100  Credits: 3  Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9  TBD  6:15pm-8:45pm  The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd St., 19th Floor

This course will examine the impact of the globalization of production on work itself, as well as on workers and international labor movements. It will present globalization as a central problem for both developed and developing economies and as a dilemma for U.S. workers and their unions. Students will analyze the history and function of the World Trade Organization, the International Monetary Fund, and the World Bank, including how these institutions influence the global flow of capital and labor, as well as goods and services. The course covers topics essential for understanding workers’ issues and rights in contemporary economies, such as: the impact of global outsourcing; the rise in women workers around the world and the implications for gender issues; organizing in a multi-national context; increasing poverty and inequality; and the decreased regulatory powers of states relative to multinational corporations because of free-trade agreements and neo-liberal development policies.

Perspectives on the Labor Movement

LABR 60500  Credits: 3  Aug 26 to Dec 20; No classes Sept 7, 28, Oct 12; Nov 26-9  TBD  6:15pm-8:45pm  The School of Labor and Urban Studies: 25 West 43rd St., 19th Floor

This course is organized as an introduction to the field of Labor Studies and theories of the labor movement. Students will be introduced to the basic theoretical concepts in labor studies and the study of work. We will read historical and contemporary scholarship and students should leave the class familiar with the structure of the labor movement and historical debates about the purpose of unions and working-class organizations. The course readings are interdisciplinary and draw on a number of fields, including history, sociology, economics, political science and women’s studies.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The Emergency Management Certificate Program introduces City managers and supervisors to the fundamentals of emergency management and provides participants with an awareness and understanding of how the City of New York operates and responds to emergencies.

The suite of classroom and online courses that comprise the certificate will allow individuals to develop and refine their emergency management skill set. The curriculum is based on a series of essential courses regularly offered to New York City Emergency Management (NYCEM) employees and the emergency management community.

AUDIENCE:
The Emergency Management Certificate Program is designed for managers and supervisors from a variety of disciplines but specifically for those who might support emergency operations in their home agency, in the field, or in the City’s Emergency Operations Center (EOC).

CERTIFICATE OBJECTIVES INCLUDE:
• Educate and train government employees on emergency management principles
• Explain Citywide Incident Management System (CIMS) Protocol and its application in New York City
• Provide participants with interdisciplinary emergency management training with an emphasis on “real world” experience
• Apply emergency management principles in problem-solving activities

In addition to classroom and online study, participants will engage in a culminating tabletop exercise with other program participants. Participants will have the opportunity to draw upon the knowledge that they have learned throughout the year and represent their agency in a tabletop exercise focused on an emergency scenario.

TIMELINE:
Participants will have a calendar year to complete the suite of required classes which are offered multiple times throughout the year. The flexible nature of this program allows participants to enroll in and complete courses at their convenience. Instructor Led courses are usually held at NYCEM Headquarters, 165 Cadman Plaza East Brooklyn, NY 11201.

REGISTRATION PROCESS:
Please email NYCEMAcademy@oem.nyc.gov for an application form if you are interested in participating in this program. Please note that Supervisor approval is required to participate. If selected, you will be provided access to our Learning Management System to being coursework. Upon completion of the Emergency Management Certificate Program, you will receive a signed certificate of completion from NYCEM’s Commissioner.
EQUITY & INCLUSION COURSES

Building an Inclusive Culture: Understanding Unconscious Bias

This training will examine the importance of understanding the unconscious or hidden biases that inform our behaviors and decisions at work. Participants will learn the difference between conscious (explicit) and unconscious/hidden (implicit) bias, understand the different levels of bias, and how we interpret and make decisions using our individual lenses, layers and legacies. The training will examine several types of bias, which influence workplace relationships and inadvertently privilege some and exclude others.

Everybody Matters (1/2 day)

The City of New York is committed to serving its constituents most effectively by continuing to employ people of all backgrounds. We are proud that our employees represent a full spectrum of diverse backgrounds (i.e., cultural, ethnic, generational, religious, etc.) which mirror the community at large. We are committed to creating an innovative environment where people can be authentic and feel included and at the same time understand how to manage conflict across lines of difference. Everybody Matters is a highly interactive training experience designed to develop the inclusive leadership skills required for today’s managers and individual contributors to be successful in leading a diverse employee team/department. The tools provided will assist participants, whether a manager or an individual contributor, to lead inclusively wherever they may be operating in the organization.

Objectives:
- Develop inclusive behaviors that will create an environment where all employees feel valued, included, and engaged
- Utilize your skill set to better serve the vast diversity of all NYC communities
- Draw upon personal experiences to gain insight about inclusion

Target Audience: All employees who want to enhance their awareness of diversity and inclusion and its impact on employee work productivity, sustainability, and overall organizational engagement
