NOTICE OF EXAMINATION

STAFF ANALYST
Exam No. 9008

WHEN TO APPLY: From: August 1, 2018
To: August 21, 2018
APPLICATION FEE: $68.00

THE TEST DATE: Multiple-choice testing is expected to begin on Tuesday, November 13, 2018.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS ENTIRE NOTICE BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES:
Staff Analysts perform professional work of varying degrees of difficulty and responsibility in the preparation and administration of agency budgets and the conduct of economic research and studies; in the preparation and conduct of administrative, procedural and operational studies and analyses concerning the agency's organization and operations; and in personnel administration; may supervise and train less experienced staff. Staff Analysts utilize computers in the performance of these duties. All Staff Analysts perform related work.
(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY:
The current minimum salary is $50,078 per annum. This rate is subject to change. There are two assignment levels within this class of positions. Appointments will generally be made to Assignment Level I. After appointment, employees may be assigned to the higher assignment level at the discretion of the agency.

HOW TO QUALIFY:
This is a computer-based Qualifying Education and Experience Test. Your education and experience will be evaluated online and you will receive immediate tentative results. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the education and experience requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are found "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded and you may not receive an Admission Notice or score. (For more information see Exam Site Admission section.)
You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after January 31, 2019 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period (August 21, 2018).

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:
1. A master's degree from an accredited college or university in economics, finance, accounting, business or public administration, human resources management, management science, operations research, organizational behavior, industrial psychology, statistics, personnel administration, labor relations, psychology, sociology, human resources development, political science, or urban studies, or a Juris Doctor degree from an accredited law school; or
2. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university and two years of satisfactory full-time professional experience in one or a combination of the following areas: working with the budget of a large public or private concern in budget administration, accounting, economic or financial administration, or fiscal or economic research; or in management or methods analysis, operations research, organizational research or program evaluation; or in personnel or public administration, recruitment, position classification, personnel relations, labor relations, employee benefits, staff development, employment program planning/administration, labor market research, economic planning, social services program planning/evaluation, or fiscal management.

The education requirement must be met by January 31, 2019. The experience requirement must be met by the last day of the Application Period (August 21, 2018).
The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional, or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The law school must be accredited by the American Bar Association or the California Bar Association.
If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. This is required only if you need credit

You must include all your relevant education and experience on your Online Education and Experience Test. You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (August 21, 2018) to submit your Online Education and Experience Test; however, once you submit your Online Education and Experience Test, you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information about your education and/or experience online. You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after January 31, 2019 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period.

This online examination consists of the following sections:

Application, including the Notice of Examination and payment of fee
Education Level
Employment/Work Experience Survey

There are detailed instructions online for each of these sections, so make sure that you read these instructions before you begin to fill out each section. In addition, the Overview and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs), which are accessible throughout the examination process, contain valuable information about the online examination process and civil service procedures governing examinations. This guide is a brief summary of some of the items found in these instructions.

1. You must complete the application and examination by midnight, Eastern time, of the last day of the application period. If you do not complete your application, which includes payment of the filing fee, there will be no record that you applied for the examination.

2. You must meet qualification requirements in order to qualify for this examination. If you do not meet the qualification requirements, you will be marked Not Qualified and your application fee will not be returned.

3. Completing the Education Level section: For each degree you select, you must fill out the information requested. If you were educated in a foreign country, you must have an evaluation of your education sent directly to DCAS by a DCAS-approved foreign education evaluation service no later than eight weeks from the last day of the application period. Your examination will be tentatively scored based on the education level you claim. Your foreign education evaluation will then be reviewed by DCAS examiners. If the evaluation differs from what you claimed, or if you did not submit a foreign education evaluation, your examination will be re-scored, and you may be marked Not Qualified.

4. Completing the Employment/Work Experience section: For each job you must fill out the information requested. A maximum of one year of full-time experience will be credited for each 12-month period. Part-time experience will be pro-rated according to the following ranges:

- 35 hours per week or more = 100%
- 34 hours per week or less will be pro-rated as a percentage of a 35 hour work week.

For each job you must select the tasks you performed from the tasks listed in the drop-down menu. In order for a job to be credited, you must select at least 6 tasks from the tasks listed under either Task Category #0100 or Task Category #0200, or Task Category #0300. For example, if you select 2 tasks from Task Category #0100 and you select 4 tasks from Task Category #0200, the job will not receive credit.

Residency Requirement Advisory: Under New York City Administrative Code Section 12-120, you might need to be a resident of the City of New York within 90 days of the date you are appointed to this position. Since residency requirements vary by title, appointing agency and length of service, consult the appointing agency’s personnel office at the time of the appointment interview to find out if City residency is required.

English Requirement:

You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity:

Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services.

HOW TO APPLY:

If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to file online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEOasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx. You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to file for this examination online and submit a money order payable to DCAS (Exams) or to submit documentation for a fee waiver. The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM.
EXAM SITE REQUIRED INFORMATION:

1. Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide.

2. Foreign Education Evaluation Guide: (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education to meet the education and experience requirements): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained within the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide located on the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_c_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide provides important information about receiving an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans’ or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

THE TEST:

The multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or in paper and pencil format. You will be informed of the format on your Admission Notice. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain abilities determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Staff Analyst (SA). Task areas to be tested are as follows: budget administration, accounting, economic or financial administration, fiscal or economic research and/or fiscal management; procedural, organizational, and operational studies, such as management or methods analysis, program evaluation, and economic planning; and personnel administration, such as recruitment, position classification, personnel relations, employee benefits, staff development, etc.

The test may include questions requiring standards of proper employee ethical conduct and the use of any of the following abilities:

- Descriptive Statistics - the ability to apply given statistical formulas, including calculation of means, medians and modes. Example: A SA may use statistical analyses to prepare fiscal requests, conduct economic studies, and perform management studies and workforce planning.

- Quantitative Analysis & Interpretation - the ability to analyze, interpret and understand the underlying principles and meaning of numerical data; recognize inconsistencies and errors in reports containing numerical data. May involve making projections. Example: A SA may analyze and interpret data related to budget development, personnel related management and staffing, and organizational research related data sets, etc.

- Planning & Organizing - the ability to establish a method of execution to accomplish a specific goal over an extended period of time; determine appropriate assignments and allocation of resources, including the ability to prioritize tasks and objectives based on importance, time constraints, etc. Example: A SA may prepare budget proposals, determine the need for vendor services, and plan employment or recruitment programs, etc.

- Written Expression - the ability to appropriately communicate information and ideas in written words and sentences so intended audience will understand. This may involve reviewing and editing correspondence and other written materials. Example: A SA may prepare expenditure and revenue reports, procedure manuals, test materials, etc.

- Number Facility - the degree to which adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing can be done quickly and correctly. This can be steps in other operations like finding percentages. This also includes arithmetic reasoning. Example: A SA may monitor variances between planned and actual expenditures of a budget and determine the percentage change.

Questions based on the above abilities will be concerned with budgeting, procedural, organizational, and operational studies and personnel administration. Certain questions may need to be answered on the basis of documents or other information supplied to the candidates on the date of the multiple-choice exam.

EXAM SITE ADMISSION:

You will be sent an Admission Notice in the mail about 10 days before the date on which testing is expected to begin. If you do not receive an Admission Notice at least 4 days before the date on which testing is expected to begin, you must go to Administration, Customer, and Exam Support, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, Manhattan, to obtain an Admission Notice. Test site assignments will take your address into consideration, but nearness to your address cannot be guaranteed.

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during, or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other people, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Selective Certification for Certification and/or Special Experience: If you have the certification and/or experience listed in one or more of the areas listed below, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring a certification and/or experience through a process called Selective Certification. If you qualify for Selective Certification, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this certification and/or experience. Follow the instructions given to you on the day of the multiple-choice test to indicate your interest in such Selective Certification. Your certification(s) and/or experience will be checked by the appointing agency at the time of appointment.

Selective Certification for Positions Requiring Experience in the Non-Medical Aspects of a Public Health District, Facility, or Program: If you possess at least one (1) year of full-time satisfactory experience in a health services setting such as a laboratory, hospital, community health center, private medical practice, or other patient care facility, or in a public health, environmental health, or mental hygiene program, engaged in the preparation and administration of budgets, contracts, and/or grants; and/or, in the preparation and conduct of administrative, procedural, organizational and/or operational studies and analyses; and/or in personnel administration, and such experience was not part of your baccalaureate degree program, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this experience through a process called Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Positions Requiring Experience in Scientific, Public Health or Public Policy Research: If you possess at least six (6) months of full-time satisfactory experience conducting research and analysis in physical, biological or environmental science or public health or public policy, and you were not part of your baccalaureate degree program, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this experience through a process called Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Positions Requiring Organizational Research Experience: If you possess at least six (6) months of full-time satisfactory experience using quantitative analysis, cost analysis and other research techniques in a private, not for profit, or government agency, and such experience was not part of your baccalaureate degree program, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this experience through a process called Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Positions Requiring Budget Experience: If you possess at least six (6) months of full-time satisfactory professional administrative, managerial, or supervisory experience in the preparation, modification, or administration of budgets, and conducting economic research and studies, and also possess a baccalaureate degree in accounting or finance, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this experience through a process called Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Positions Requiring Health Information Technology Systems Experience: If you possess at least six (6) months of full-time satisfactory experience using health information technology systems and/or electronic health records operations for the purpose of researching, collecting and coordinating surveillance data from hospitals, community health centers, and/or private practices, and such experience was not part of your baccalaureate degree program, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this experience through a process called Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Incident Command Structure (ICS) Certification: If you possess a valid Incident Command Structure (ICS) certification such as FEMA’s Professional Development Series certificate or an IS-100.b, IS-200.b, IS-700, or IS-800.b certificate, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring these certificates through a process called Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Excel Experience: If you have at least six (6) months of full-time satisfactory experience using advanced functions of Microsoft Excel, such as performing tasks that require the utilization of VLOOKUP, IF statements, and Pivot tables, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this experience through a process called Selective Certification. This Selective Certification is limited to candidates whose full-time experience has a high emphasis in the use of Excel (50% of time was spent using Excel) and the main functions being performed while utilizing Excel can be considered “advanced functions” such as VLOOKUP, IF statements, and Pivot tables.

Selective Certification for Experience Using SAS and/or R Statistical Analysis Software: If you have at least six (6) months of full-time satisfactory experience analyzing data using SAS and/or R to perform data management and data cleaning, perform basic statistics such as calculating proportions, means and medians, and conducting bivariate analysis, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this experience through a process called Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Municipal Experience: If you have at least one (1) year of satisfactory, full-time experience working within a municipal government in a similar position, which provides services for a city with over 1 million in population, you may qualify for preferred consideration.

Selective Certification for Foreign Language and/or American Sign Language: If you can speak Albanian, Arabic, Bengali, Chinese (Cantonese), Chinese (Mandarin), French, German, Greek, Haitian/Creole, Hebrew, Hindi, Hungarian, Italian, Khmer, Korean, Portuguese, Polish, Russian, Spanish, Urdu, Vietnamese, West African Languages (e.g., Ibo, Swahili, Yoruba), Yiddish and/or you know American Sign Language, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this ability through a process called Selective Certification. If you pass a qualifying test, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this ability.

The above Selective Certification requirements may be met at anytime during the duration of the list.
