They install tubing, pipe and fittings; check existing control installations to determine nature and cause of trouble and make necessary repairs and/or adjustments; use pneumatic and/or electrical devices to check control installations; set and calibrate thermostats on walls and fixtures; requisition parts as required; supervise assigned personnel as required; keep work records; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Thermostat Repairers and environmental conditions experienced are: working on or near controls for high pressure steam and air lines; working on or near controls that may operate at high voltage; working on or near ducts, pipes, or steam lines that could be insulated with hazardous materials; working in a confined space such as a plenum or chase or hung ceiling; climbing and working on ladders and/ or scaffolding 16 feet or more in height; walking or standing four to six hours a day; and lifting weights of sixty pounds to a height of three to four feet.

Special Working Conditions:
Thermostat Repairers may be required to work various shifts including nights, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. (This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY:
The current minimum salary is $51.64 per hour. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

Education and Experience Requirements:
You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the education and experience requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are found “Not Qualified,” your application fee will not be refunded and you may not receive a score.

1. Five years of full-time satisfactory experience as a Thermostat Repairer, or
2. At least three years of full-time satisfactory experience as described in “1” above and either sufficient experience in the thermostat repairing field as a helper or an apprentice, or sufficient training of a relevant nature acquired in an approved trade or technical school or vocational high school, to make up the equivalent of the remaining required experience. Six months of acceptable experience will be credited for each year of the above helper experience, apprenticeship experience or training.

The education requirement must be met by January 31, 2019. The experience requirement must be met by the last day of the Application Period (January 22, 2019).

The trade or technical school or vocational high school must be approved by a State’s Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization.

If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. This is required only if you need credit for your foreign education in this examination. For more information see the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide in the Required Information section.

You must clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience on your Education and Experience Test and submit it by the end of the Application Period. You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after January 31, 2019 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period. If you are currently employed by the City of New York, do not assume that persons reviewing your Education and Experience Test will know information which you do not provide on your Education and Experience Test.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE
Experience Test, including information about your current job. If you applied for a previous examination, do not assume that persons reviewing your Education and Experience Test will know about information you provided on a previous Education and Experience Test.

Driver License Requirement:
A motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York may be required for this position. Consult the appointing agency personnel office at the time of the appointment interview to find out if a motor vehicle driver license is required.

Residency Requirement Advisory: Under the New York City Administrative Code Section 12-120, you might need to be a resident of the City of New York within 90 days of the date you are appointed to this position. Since residency requirements vary by title, appointing agency and length of service, consult the appointing agency's personnel office at the time of the appointment interview to find out if City residency is required.

English Requirement:
You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity:
Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services.

HOW TO APPLY:
If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to file online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at https://a856eexams.nyc.gov/OLEO/oasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx.

You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to file for this examination onsite and submit a money order payable to DCAS (Exams) or to submit documentation for a fee waiver. The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM:

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_c_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide gives important information about claiming Veterans' or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

REQUIRED INFORMATION:
1. Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide.

2. Affirmation Form: The Affirmation Form, which is found online, must be printed, signed, dated and sent by mail to the address on the form. If DCAS does not receive your completed Affirmation Form, your application will not be considered complete, and your name will not appear on the eligible list for this examination.

3. Education and Experience Test: Fill out Sections A.1 (if applicable), A.3 (if applicable), B. and D (if applicable). This test must be filled out completely and in detail for you to receive your proper rating. Follow the online instructions.

4. Foreign Education Evaluation Guide: (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education to meet the education and experience requirements): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide located on the Department of Citywide Administrative Services website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/foreigneducation.pdf. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to DCAS no later than eight weeks from January 31, 2019.
THE TEST:
You will be given an education and experience test. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. On the education and experience test you will receive a score of 70 points for meeting the education and experience requirements listed above. After these requirements are met, you will receive additional credit up to a maximum of 100 points on the following basis:

If you have satisfactory full-time experience as a Thermostat Repairer
You will receive:

- working with pneumatic controls and systems for:
  - At least 1 year but less than 2 years: 10 points
  - At least 2 years but less than 3 years: 20 points
  - 3 or more years: 30 points

You will receive a maximum of one year of experience credit for each year you worked. If you have any of the above experience on a part-time basis, it will be credited according to the equivalent percent of full-time experience. Experience used to meet the minimum requirements cannot be used to gain additional credit.

You must clearly specify in detail all of your relevant experience on your Education and Experience Test and submit it by the end of the application period. You will not receive credit for experience which you obtain after the end of the application period.

Experience must be obtained by the last day of the application period (January 22, 2019).

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS:
It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address and/or email address. If you do not have your correct mailing and/or email address, you will not receive information about your exam(s), consideration for appointment and/or important information that may require a response by a specified deadline. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to any agency other than DCAS, such as to the United States Postal Service, will NOT update your records with DCAS.

To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit the change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), previous mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address. Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM. The following link will provide you with the DCAS Data Correction Form: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/dp148a.pdf.

THE TEST RESULTS:
If you meet the education and experience requirements, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list, you will be given a list number and you will be notified by mail of your test results. The eligible list will be the order by which candidates will be considered for appointment. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment if your name is reached on the eligible list. Once a list has been established, it will typically remain active for four years. To learn more about the civil service system go to: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/work/civilservice_1.shtml.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:
This examination is for all agencies under the jurisdiction of the DCAS Commissioner and not for the New York City Health + Hospitals and the City University of New York (CUNY).

Selective Certification for Certification:
If you have the certification listed in one or more of the areas listed below, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring a certification through a process called Selective Certification. If you qualify for Selective Certification, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this certification. If you wish to apply for this Selective Certification, state the 3 digit Selective Certification (“SC”) code in Section D of the Education and Experience Test. Your certification will be checked by the appointing agency at the time of appointment.

Note: In Section D of the Education and Experience Test, please enter the 3-digit code which corresponds to the Selective Certification(s) you wish to be considered for, and separate each with a comma and no space. For example, if you wish to select Selective Certifications #1, #2, #3, #4 and #5, enter the following in Section D of the Education and Experience Test: CFC, G35, G38, FAS, FAI.

2. FDNY COF to Operate and Maintain Air Compressors (A-35): A valid Certification of Fitness to operate and maintain air compressors from the New York City Fire Department. To add Selective Certification for FDNY COF to Operate and Maintain Air Compressors (A-35), enter “G35” in Section D of the Education and Experience Test.

3. FDNY COF for Torch Use of Flammable Gasses (G-60): A valid Certification of Fitness for use of flammable gases from the New York City Fire Department. To add Selective Certification for FDNY COF for Torch Use of Flammable Gasses (G-60), enter “G38” in Section D of the Education and Experience Test.

4. FDNY COF for Supervision of Fire Alarm Systems and Other Related Systems (S-95): A valid Certification of Fitness for Supervision of Fire Alarm and Other Related Systems from the New York City Fire Department. To add Selective Certification for FDNY COF for Supervision of Fire Alarm Systems and Other Related Systems (S-95), enter “FAS” in Section D of the Education and Experience Test.

5. FDNY COF for Fire Alarm Systems Inspection, Testing and Service Principal (S-97): A valid Certification of Fitness for Fire Alarm Systems Inspection, Testing and Service Principal (S-97) from the New York City Fire Department. To add Selective Certification for FDNY COF for Fire Alarm Systems Inspection, Testing and Service Principal (S-97), enter “FAI” in Section D of the Education and Experience Test.
The above Selective Certification requirements may be met at anytime during the duration of the list. If you meet this requirement at some future date, please submit a request by mail to: DCAS Bureau of Examinations - Exam Development Group, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007. Please include the examination title and number, your social security number, and the Selective Certification you are requesting on your correspondence.

Application Receipt:
You will be emailed a receipt immediately after you have applied for the examination. If you do not receive this receipt, contact DCAS at OASys@dcas.nyc.gov. Include the last four digits of your social security number or the OASys confirmation number and the examination number and title in your email.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION:
Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after appointment, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted at nyc.gov/dcas and copies are available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers.
