Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_c_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide gives important information about requesting an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special test accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans' or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

REQUIRED INFORMATION:

1. Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide.

2. Education and Experience Test: Fill out all the required sections displayed onscreen (if applicable). You will have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (May 21, 2019) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience on your Education and Experience Test. Once you submit it in the Online Application System (OASys), you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information about your education and/or experience online.

3. Foreign Education Evaluation Guide (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education in this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide which is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/foreigneducation.pdf. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a “document-by-document” (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services no later than eight weeks from June 30, 2019.

THE TEST:
The multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or in paper and pencil format. You will be informed of the format on your Admission Notice. Your score on this test will be used to determine your placement on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the multiple-choice test.

Written Test Description:
The multiple-choice test will include questions which may require the use of any of the following abilities:

- Deductive Reasoning: applying general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. Example: A Public Health Assistant may use this ability when predicting what equipment, a doctor will need during a certain type of medical exam.

- Memorization: remembering information such as words, numbers, pictures and procedures. Pieces of information can be remembered by themselves or with other pieces of information. Example: A Public Health Assistant may use this ability when supplying exam rooms with the same medical instruments and equipment each morning.

- Problem Sensitivity: the ability to tell when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. This does not include solving a problem. It involves being able to see that a problem may occur. Example: A Public Health Assistant may use this ability when they notice a discrepancy between the medications listed on a patient’s medical chart and the medication information listed on the clinic database.

- Time Sharing: the ability to shift back and forth between two or more sources of information – focusing on both sources by shifting between them. Example: A Public Health Assistant may use this ability when speaking with a doctor’s office on the phone while reading through a medical form on the computer screen.

- Written Comprehension: Understanding written English words and sentences, or more simply, reading. Example: A Public Health Assistant may use this ability when reviewing medical charts or forms.

- Written Expression: using English words and sentences in writing. Example: A Public Health Assistant may use this ability when composing an email to a supervisor.

EXAM SITE ADMISSION:
You will be sent an Admission Notice in the mail 14 days before the date on which testing is expected to begin. Your Admission Notice will also be available on your Dashboard in the Online Application System (OASys) account 7 days before the date on which testing is expected to begin. If you access the Admission Notice on Dashboard in OASys, you must test site, displaying your Admission Notice using any of the prohibited electronic devices referenced in the "Warning" section below will not be permitted.
