THE SALARY:
The current minimum salary is $32,426 per annum. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO QUALIFY:
You may be given the test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the education requirements for this examination prior to submitting your applications. If you are found "Not Qualified", your application fee will not be refunded and you may not receive a score. (For more information see Exam Site Admission section.)

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE
Education and Experience Requirements: By the date of appointment you must possess:

1) A four-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent, approved by a State’s Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization; or

2) An Individualized Educational Program (IEP) diploma and six months of full-time work experience.

If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. You will receive instructions from the appointing facility during the pre-employment screening process regarding the approved evaluation services that you may use for foreign education.

Age Requirement: You must have reached your 20th birthday by the date of appointment.

License Requirement: On the date of appointment as a Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals), you must possess a motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York. If you have moving violations, license suspension(s) or an accident record, you may be disqualified. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment.

Character and Background: Pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 2.10, the position of Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) is designated as a Peace Officer position. Accordingly, in accordance with applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, NYC Health + Hospitals has established medical and psychological standards for the position of Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals). Accordingly, all eligibles who have been offered a position will be required to undergo and pass medical and psychological examinations prior to the date of appointment to ensure that those medical and psychological standards have been met and that they can perform the essential functions of the position. During the medical examination eligibles will be subject to a drug screening test. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the medical and psychological examinations, and/or to perform the essential functions of the job.

Peace Officer Training Certification Requirement: You must satisfy the training requirements established by the State of New York for Peace Officers. Once obtained, this certification must be maintained for the duration of your employment. Attendance at annual recertification training is mandatory and a continuing condition of employment.

Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR)/Basic Life Support (BLS) Certification and Basic First Aid Certification: As part of the NYC Health + Hospitals’ Special Officer Training Academy, you must satisfy the training requirements established by the New York State Department of Health and The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) to obtain CPR/BLS certification and Basic First Aid certification. Once obtained, these certifications must be maintained for the duration of your employment as a Special Officer.

Medical and Psychological Requirement: In accordance with applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, NYC Health + Hospitals has established medical and psychological standards for the position of Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals). Accordingly, all eligibles who have been offered a position will be required to undergo and pass medical and psychological examinations prior to the date of appointment to ensure that those medical and psychological standards have been met and that they can perform the essential functions of the position. During the medical examination eligibles will be subject to a drug screening test. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the medical and psychological examinations, and/or to perform the essential functions of the job.

Residency Requirement: Pursuant to New York State Public Officers Law, you must be a resident of the City of New York at the time of appointment, and you must thereafter maintain City residency as a continuing condition of employment. However, if you have two years of employment with the City of New York, you may be a resident of Nassau, Westchester, Suffolk, Orange, Rockland or Putnam counties.

Citizenship Requirement: Pursuant to New York State Public Officers Law, United States citizenship is required at the time of appointment.

English Requirement: You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity: Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with NYC Health + Hospitals.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, apply using the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examspriorjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can apply to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts and you will receive a confirmation email with instruction to activate your account. For any account creation issues, you will receive onscreen prompts to contact DCAS. This review may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed and resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at: https://a856-exams.nyc.gov/OASysWeb/Home/FAQ You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to apply for this examination online. The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00AM to 5PM.
The DCAS Computer-based Testing & Application Centers will be closed on Thursday, July 4, 2019.

For questions regarding scheduling and rescheduling refer to the Reservation and Rescheduling FAQs at https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/SeatReservation/FAQReservation.aspx.

The administration of the test is subject to change in the event of an unforeseen occurrence. If you wish to verify the test date and time, you may call the DCAS Interactive Voice Response (IVR) system at (212) 669-1357 two hours before the test session you wish to attend if the test is not being administered at that time. The recorded message will be heard after the “Thank you for calling” greeting. If there is no message regarding the testing at the Centers, it means that testing will be administered as scheduled for that day.

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_s_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide gives important information about requesting an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special test accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans' or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your “Application for Examination.” If you plan to request special testing accommodations due to disability, do not apply for an exam and self-schedule through OASys. Refer to the Special Test Accommodations Section at the end of this Notice of Examination for instructions on how to apply. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are marked “Not Qualified,” your application fee will not be refunded.

Assignment of Duties: Section 424-a of the NYS Social Services Law requires an authorized agency to inquire whether a candidate selected for employment who will have regular and substantial contact with children is, or has been, the subject of an indicated child abuse and maltreatment report on file with the Statewide Central Register for child abuse and maltreatment. Statewide Central Register checks will be obtained as part of the background screening process for selected candidates. Candidates who have been the subject of an indicated child abuse and maltreatment report may not be hired or assigned to any position that requires regular and substantial contact with children.

The Protection of People with Special Needs Act: Article 20 of the NYS Executive Law and Article 11 of the NYS Social Services Law require an authorized agency to inquire whether a candidate selected for employment to a position with the potential for regular and substantial contact with vulnerable persons with special needs has been found responsible for serious or repeated acts of abuse and neglect through a check of the Staff Exclusion List maintained by the NYS Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs. Candidates who have substantiated/indicated cases on file with the Statewide Central Register List will not be hired or assigned to such a position.

THE TEST:
You will be given a multiple-choice test at a computer terminal. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test. The multiple-choice test may include questions which may require the use of any of the following abilities:

- Written Comprehension: understanding written sentences and paragraphs. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability when reviewing a report.
- Written Expression: using English words or sentences in writing so that others will understand. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability when creating an incident report and recording daily logs.
- Memorization: remembering information, such as words, numbers, pictures and procedures. Pieces of information can be remembered by themselves or with other pieces of information. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability when recalling details for an unusual occurrence report.
- Problem Sensitivity: being able to tell when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as elements of the problem. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability when preserving the peace, or providing assistance to the sick, injured, or mentally and physically disabled.
- Deductive Reasoning: applying general rules to specific problems and coming up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability when deciding if an individual caught vandalizing property should be arrested.
- Inductive Reasoning: combining separate pieces of information, or specific answers to problems, to form general rules or conclusions. It involves the ability to think of possible reasons for why things go together. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability to discourage litterers and disorderly persons.
- Information Ordering: following correctly a rule or set of rules or actions in a certain order. The rule or set of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability when deciding the next appropriate action to take when providing medical assistance to an individual who is physically injured.
- Spatial Orientation: is the ability to tell where you are in relation to the location of some object or to tell where the object is in relation to you. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) may use this ability to clock rounds and control vehicular traffic on grounds and/or premises.
- Visualization: is the ability to imagine how something would look when it is moved around or when its parts are moved or rearranged. It requires the forming of mental images of how patterns or objects would look after certain changes, such as unfolding or rotation. One has to predict how an object, set of objects, or pattern will appear after the changes have been carried out. Example: A Special Officer (NYC Health + Hospitals) might use this ability when being asked to compare a photo of a crime scene when testifying in court.
EXAM SITE ADMISSION: The exam will be administered at the DCAS Computer-based Testing and Applications Centers, which are shown in the How to Apply section. Seating is limited. Once the Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers are filled to capacity, no more candidates will be admitted.

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with electronic devices including, but not limited to, cellular phones, smart watches, recording devices, beepers, pagers, cameras, or portable media players. You are not permitted to use any type of headphones or ear buds. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, and numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices anywhere at any test site, whether in the testing area, restroom, hallway, or other location, at any time before, during or after the test or Protest Review Session, your test score will be nullified, you will be disqualified from taking any civil service tests for up to five years, and your application fee will not be refunded. You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test, and no one may wait for you inside of a Computer-based Testing & Applications Center while you are taking the test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match the first and last name on the photo ID. A list of acceptable identification documents is provided below. If you do not have an acceptable ID, you may be denied testing. Acceptable forms of identification (bring one) are as follows: State issued driver's license, City or State issued identification card, IDNYC, US Government issued Passport, US Government issued Military Identification Card, US Government issued Alien Registration Card, Employer ID with photo, or Student ID with photo.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you pass the multiple-choice test, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list.

CHANGE OF MAILING ADDRESS, EMAIL ADDRESS, AND/OR TELEPHONE NUMBER:
It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address, email address and/or phone number. If we do not have your correct mailing address, email address and/or phone number, you will not receive information about your exam(s), consideration for appointment and/or important information that may require a response by a specified deadline. If you need to update your Mailing Address, Email Address, and/or Telephone Number, read below:

• City Employees - update this information in NYCAPs Employee Service (ESS) at www.nyc.gov/ess
• All Others including NYC Health + Hospitals employees - update this information on your Profile page in the Online Application System (OASys) by logging into your OASys account and navigating to your Dashboard, then your Profile tab at www.nyc.gov/exam发展阶段
• Submit a written request in-person or by mail: DCAS, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM. Your written request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), previous mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address.

CHANGE OF NAME AND/OR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER:
Use the Data Correction Form and follow all instructions for changing your name and/or social security number with DCAS. The following link will provide you with the DCAS Data Correction Form: https://www1.nyc.gov/assets/dcas/downloads/pdf/employment/dp148a.pdf.
