YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS ENTIRE NOTICE BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES:

Bricklayers, under direction, lay brick and masonry to line and grade in or on a given structure or form of work. They lay brick or masonry units in the particular bond specified for walls and partitions; work with refractory and insulating units for boiler settings and combustion chambers; do fireproofing, block arching, terra cotta cutting and setting; construct brick masonry sewers and manholes; estimate materials required for small jobs; keep job and other records; read and follow plans and specifications; may supervise assigned personnel; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Bricklayers and environmental conditions experienced are: crouching, working in confined spaces, using hand tools, carrying tools and equipment weighing up to 50 lbs., and working outdoors in all kinds of weather.

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY:

The current minimum salary is $50.54 per hour. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

You may be given the test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the education and experience requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are found "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded and you may not receive an Admission Notice or score. (For more information see Exam Site Admission section.

You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after January 31, 2020 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period (January 28, 2020).

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Five years of full-time satisfactory experience as a Bricklayer; or
2. At least three years of experience as described in "1" above and sufficient bricklayer apprentice experience or training in the bricklaying field acquired in an approved trade, technical, or vocational high school to make up the equivalent of the remaining required experience. Six months of acceptable experience will be credited for each year of the above experience or training.

The education requirement must be met by January 31, 2020. The experience requirement must be met by the last day of the Application Period (January 28, 2020).

If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. This is required only if you need credit for your foreign education in this examination. For more information see the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide in the Required Information section.

During the Education and Experience Exam (EEE), you may answer questions about your experience. If your experience was on a part-time basis working less than 35 hours per week, you will need to convert your part-time experience to full-time experience using the formula below. Once you have determined your full-time experience equivalent, use this amount to answer questions about your experience.

(number of hours worked per week/35) x (number of months worked)

For example, if you worked at a job for 21 hours per week for 12 months, you would make the following calculation: 21/35 X 12 = 7.2 months.

You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (January 28, 2020) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience and Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in the Online Application System (OASys). Once you Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys, you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information on your Education and Experience Exam online.
If you do not Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys by midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (January 28, 2020), your examination will be considered incomplete, you will not be entitled to the appeals process, you will not receive a score, you will not be invited to subsequent portions of this examination, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after June 30, 2020 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period (January 28, 2020).

Residency Requirement Advisory: Under New York City Administrative Code Section 12-120, you might need to be a resident of the City of New York within 90 days of the day you are appointed to this position. Since residency requirements vary by title, appointing agency and length of service, consult the appointing agency’s personnel office at the time of the appointment interview to find out if City residency is required.

English Requirement:
You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity:
Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services.

HOW TO APPLY:
If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, apply using the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can apply to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts and you will receive a confirmation email with instructions to activate your account. For any account creation issues, you will receive onscreen prompts to contact DCAS. This review may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed and resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at: https://a856-exams.nyc.gov/OASysWeb/Home/Faq. Beginning in January 2020, the Online Applications System will no longer be supported on Windows 7 or earlier versions of Windows operating systems.

You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to apply for this examination online. The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM:

3. Foreign Education Evaluation Guide (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education to meet the education and experience requirements): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide which is located on the DCAS website at https://www1.nyc.gov/assets/dcas/downloads/pdf/employment/foreigneducation.pdf. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services no later than eight weeks from the last day of the Application Period (January 28, 2020).
THE TEST:
You will be given a qualifying multiple-choice test and a competitive Education and Experience Exam. The qualifying multiple-choice test will be given at a computer terminal. You must achieve a score of at least 70% on the qualifying multiple-choice test. All candidates will receive a tentative evaluated score on the Education and Experience Exam after clicking Final Submit for this portion of the exam in OASys. You must achieve a score of at least 70% on the rated Education and Experience Exam for your name to appear on the eligible list of candidates. Your score on the Education and Experience Exam will determine 100% of your final score.

QUALIFYING MULTIPLE-CHOICE TEST: The qualifying multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain abilities determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Bricklayer.

Tasks areas to be tested are as follows: measurements & calculations, preparation/cleanup, construction, making determinations on masonry-related information, and administrative duties.

The test may also include questions on knowledge of safety procedures, tools and materials, and standards of proper employee ethical conduct.

The test may also include questions requiring the use of any of the following abilities:

Achievement/Effort: Establishing and maintaining personally challenging achievement goals and exerting effort toward mastering tasks to reach set goals. Example: A Bricklayer completes tasks in a timely and professional manner using all required industry standards.

Analytical Thinking: Analyzing information and using logic to address specific work-related issues and problems; involves the identification of problems, not implementation of solutions. Example: A Bricklayer analyzes masonry information using logic to address specific work issues.

Attention to Detail: Being careful about detail and thorough in completing work tasks. Example: A Bricklayer must pay close attention to assess if bonds are true, plumb, and level.

Coaching & Mentoring: Identifying the developmental needs of others and coaching, mentoring, or otherwise helping others to improve their knowledge or skills. Example: A Bricklayer leads and directs assigned staff in proper techniques to complete job assignments.

Concern for Others: Acting in a manner sensitive to others’ needs and feelings while being understanding and helpful on the job; showing consideration. Example: A Bricklayer must have good customer service skills when communicating with the public.

Deductive Reasoning: is the ability to apply general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense. Example: A Bricklayer must understand the amount of material needed to construct a wall based on the blueprints.

Dependability: Fulfilling obligations and acting in a reliable, responsible and dependable manner. Example: A Bricklayer reports to work on time and performs all tasks in all climates.

Inductive Reasoning: combining separate pieces of information, or specific answers to problems, to form general rules or conclusions. It involves the ability to think of possible reasons for why things go together. Example: A Bricklayer identifies all safety hazards and takes proper precaution to avoid any risk in other situations that may arise.

Information Ordering: following correctly a rule or set of rules or actions in a certain order. The rule or set of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations. Example: A Bricklayer must follow procedures in a logical order.

Number Facility: involves the degree to which adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing can be done quickly and correctly. Example: A Bricklayer calculates all measurements required to complete job assignments.

Problem Sensitivity: the ability to tell when something is wrong or likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem, as well as elements of the problem. Example: A Bricklayer determines if there is enough material to complete a job assignment.

Spatial Orientation: The ability to tell where you are in relation to the location of some objects or to tell where the object is in relation to you. Example: A Bricklayer determines what type of staging or lift is required to reach a certain location needed for repair on a building facade.

Teamwork: Developing mutual trust and cooperation while working together toward the accomplishment of a common goal or outcome. Example: A Bricklayer must work with others to complete tasks.

Updating & Using Relevant Knowledge: Keeping up-to-date technically and applying new knowledge to the job. Example: A Bricklayer is required to keep up with all training and certifications as per industry standards.

Visualization: The ability to imagine how something would look when it is moved around or when its parts are moved or rearranged. It requires the forming of mental images of how patterns or objects would look after certain changes, such as unfolding or rotation. One has to predict how an object, set of objects, or pattern will appear after the changes have been carried out. Example: A Bricklayer must understand a bond pattern and layout prior to starting a job assignment.

Written Comprehension: Understanding the information and ideas presented in written sentences and paragraphs in work-related documents. Example: A Bricklayer understands all written documentation required to start and complete a job assignment.
