Public Health Nurses (School Health) generally work on an hourly basis during the 10-month school year. Public Health Nurses (School Health) may be offered additional employment or may be required to work during the summer months and may be required to work rotating shifts including nights and Saturdays during the school year or summer months.

Some of the physical activities performed by Public Health Nurses (School Health) and environmental conditions experienced are: when making home visits, may be required to walk up six flights of stairs, walk from site to site within a seven block radius of the first site visit of the day, and carry a nursing bag weighing approximately five pounds, in all weather conditions, and assist students on and off exam tables. Public Health Nurses (School Health) must be able to perform Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR).

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY:
The current minimum salary is $42.01 per hour. This rate is subject to change.
Public Health Nurses (School Health) who are regularly assigned to work 30 or 35 hours per week over the 10-month school year will have their earnings spread out over 12 months to provide salary payments and continued benefit coverage during the 2 summer months. There are three assignment levels within this class of positions. Appointments will generally be made to Assignment Level I. After appointment, employees may be assigned to the higher assignment levels at the discretion of the agency.

Special Note: For Assignment Levels II and III, in addition to meeting the Qualification Requirements described below, individuals must meet the supervisory level qualification requirements set forth in Section 11.42 of the New York Sanitary Code.

HOW TO QUALIFY:
You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the education and experience requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are found "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded, and you may not receive a score.
You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after June 30, 2020 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period (July 7, 2020). The license and registration requirement must be met by June 30, 2020.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

1. A Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from a regionally accredited college or university or one recognized by the New York State Education Department as following acceptable educational practices; and
2. A license and current registration to practice as a Registered Professional Nurse in New York State. This license must be maintained for the duration of employment.

A Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) is the only degree which may be used to meet the education requirement. Degrees such as a Master of Science in Nursing or a Bachelor of Arts in Nursing are not acceptable towards meeting the educational requirement.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE
The education requirement must be met by June 30, 2020. The experience requirement must be met by the last day of the Application Period (July 7, 2020). The license and registration requirement must be met by June 30, 2020.

The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional, or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. This is required only if you need credit for your foreign education in this examination. For more information see the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide in the Required Information section.

You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (July 7, 2020) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience and Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in the Online Application System (OASys).
