THE TEST:

The multiple-choice test will be given at a computer terminal. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the multiple-choice test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus 1/2 point for each three months of completed, permanent, continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services in competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the date of the test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain knowledge and abilities determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Senior Estimator (General Construction). Task areas to be tested are as follows: Construction Estimating; Design Review; Site Visits and Analysis; Report Writing; and Change Orders.

The test may include questions on principles of supervision; construction and maintenance practices for buildings, bridges, roads, and pavements; interpretation of engineering and architectural plans and specifications; construction materials; estimations of quantities and costs; negotiations with contractors; standards of proper employee ethical conduct, including the provisions of Mayor's Executive Order No. 16 of 1978 as amended; and other related areas.

The test may also include questions requiring the use of any of the following abilities:

Analytical Thinking: Analyzing information and using logic to address specific work-related issues and problems; involves the identification of problems, not implementation of solutions. Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when conducting a site visit to inspect quality of work.

Quantitative Analysis & Interpretation: Analyzing, interpreting and understanding the underlying principles and meaning of numerical data; recognizing inconsistencies and errors in reports containing numerical data. May involve making projections. Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when creating custom line item prices for a project.

Judgment & Decision-Making: Reviewing information to develop and evaluate the relative costs and benefits of potential solutions to problems and choosing the most appropriate one; implementing a course of action determined by thinking analytically. While similar to Planning & Organizing, Judgment and Decision-Making are typically applied over a shorter time frame. Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when negotiating a change order request with contractors.
Planning & Organizing: Establishing a method of execution to accomplish a specific goal over an extended period of time; determining appropriate assignments and allocation of resources.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when cost estimating the amount of time, labor, and materials necessary to complete a proposed project based on the contract documentation.

Management of Financial Resources: Determining how money will be spent to get the work done and accounting for these expenditures; managing the money needed for getting work accomplished.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when estimating the cost of a proposed project.

Management of Material Resources: Obtaining and seeing to the appropriate use of equipment, facilities and materials needed to do certain work; managing the things needed for work to be accomplished.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when reviewing the proposed takeoffs for a project.

Management of Personnel Resources: Motivating, developing and directing people as they work, identifying the best people for the job; managing employees needed to accomplish tasks.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when estimating the amount of manpower required to replace a fence at a work site.

Written Expression: Appropriately communicating information and ideas in written words and sentences so intended audience will understand.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when reviewing contract specifications.

Written Comprehension: Understanding the information and ideas presented in written sentences and paragraphs in work-related documents.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when addressing unforeseen structural damage uncovered at a work site and adapting approach as needed to the situation.

Adaptability/Flexibility: Responding to change (positive or negative) in a constructive manner and adapting approach as needed to the situation.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when preparing a site visit report for their supervisor.

Time Management: Managing one’s own time and the time of others in order to promote effective use of work hours.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when scheduling time during the week to visit each project site in their portfolio.

Monitoring: Monitoring/assessing performance of oneself, other individuals or organizations to make improvements or take corrective action; overseeing the quality of performance.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when editing a subordinate's written correspondence.

Management of Personnel Resources: Motivating, developing and directing people as they work, identifying the best people for the job; managing employees needed to accomplish tasks.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when preparing a site visit report for their supervisor.

Written Comprehension: Understanding the information and ideas presented in written sentences and paragraphs in work-related documents.

Example: A Senior Estimator (General Construction) may use this ability when reviewing contract specifications.

CHANGE OF MAILING ADDRESS, EMAIL ADDRESS, AND/OR TELEPHONE NUMBER:

It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address, email address and/or phone number. If we do not have your correct mailing address, email address and/or phone number, you will not receive information about your exam(s), consideration for promotion and/or important information that may require a response by a specified deadline. If you need to update your Mailing Address, Email Address, and/or Telephone Number, read below:

- City Employees - update this information in NYCAPS Employee Self-Service (ESS) at www.nyc.gov/ess
- All Others - update this information on your Profile page in the Online Application System (OASys) by logging into your OASys account and navigating to your Dashboard, then your Profile tab at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs
- Submit a written request by email at OASys@dcas.nyc.gov, by fax (646) 500-7199, or by regular mail: DCAS, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007. Your written request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), previous mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address

CHANGE OF NAME AND/OR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER:

Use the Data Correction Form and follow all the instructions for changing your name and/or social security number with DCAS. The following link will provide you with the DCAS Data Correction Form: https://www1.nyc.gov/assets/dcas/downloads/pdf/employment/dp148a.pdf.

THE TEST RESULTS:

If you pass the multiple-choice test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list, you will be given a list number and you will be notified by mail of your test results. The eligible list determines the order by which candidates will be considered for promotion. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion if your name is reached on the eligible list. Once a list has been established, it will typically remain active for four years.
