NOTICE OF EXAMINATION

ASSOCIATE CONTRACT SPECIALIST
Exam No. 2066

WHEN TO APPLY: From: January 5, 2022
To: January 25, 2022
APPLICATION FEE: $68.00
If you choose to pay the application fee with a credit/debit/gift card, you will be charged a service fee of 2.00% of the payment amount. This service fee is nonrefundable.

THE TEST DATE: Multiple-choice testing is expected to begin on Saturday, March 26, 2022.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS ENTIRE NOTICE BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES:
Associate Contract Specialists, under administrative supervision, with wide latitude for the exercise of independent judgment and decision making, perform complex professional/supervisory work involved in the development and management of contracts for social services programs. All Associate Contract Specialists perform related work.

This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.

THE SALARY:
The current minimum salary is $60,193 per annum. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO QUALIFY:
You may be given the test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the education and experience requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are found “Not Qualified,” your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive an Admission Notice or score. (For more information see Exam Site Admission section.)

You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after January 31, 2022 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period (January 25, 2022).

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:
1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university and two years of full-time satisfactory professional, technical or administrative experience in one or more of the following fields: program evaluation, contract negotiations/management, fiscal/financial management, or project management; or
2. A four-year high school diploma, or its educational equivalent, and six years of full-time, satisfactory professional, technical or administrative work experience in one or more of the fields cited above; or
3. Education and/or experience equivalent to “1” or “2” above. College credits obtained from an accredited college or university may be substituted for experience on the basis of 30 college semester credits for one year of experience as described in “1” above. However, all candidate must have at least a four-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent and at least two years of full-time experience as described in “1” above.

Administrative experience in one or more of the acceptable fields must include the authority to make critical decisions about matters of significance. Experience in one or more of the acceptable fields which primarily consists of basic clerical duties or tasks such as filing, typing and data entry, answering the telephone, sorting, and copying materials is not acceptable. Program evaluation experience must include determining a program’s compliance with a contract, identifying areas of a program’s strengths and weaknesses, recommending improvements, evaluating quality of services, and/or administering or supervising a program.

The education requirement must be met by January 31, 2022. The experience requirement must be met by the last day of the Application Period (January 25, 2022).

The high school diploma or its educational equivalent must be approved by a State’s Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional, or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. This is required only if you need credit for your foreign education in this examination. For more information see the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide in the Required Information section.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE
During the Education and Experience Exam, you may answer questions about your experience. If your experience was on a part-time basis working less than 35 hours per week, you will need to convert your part-time experience to full-time experience using the formula below. Once you have determined your full-time experience equivalent, use this amount to answer questions about your experience.

(number of hours worked per week/35) x (number of months worked)

For example, if you worked at a job for 21 hours per week for 12 months, you would make the following calculation: 21/35 x 12 = 7.2 months.

You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (January 25, 2022) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience and Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in the Online Application System (OASys). Once you Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys, you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information on your Education and Experience Exam online.

If you do not Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys by midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (January 25, 2022), your examination will be considered incomplete, you will not receive a score, you will not be invited to subsequent portions of this examination (if applicable), and your application fee will not be refunded.

You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after January 31, 2022 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period (January 25, 2022).

Vaccination Requirement: As of August 2, 2021, all new hires must be vaccinated against the COVID-19 virus, unless they have been granted a reasonable accommodation for religion or disability. If you are offered city employment, this requirement must be met by your date of hire, unless a reasonable accommodation for exemption is received and approved by the hiring agency.

Residency Requirement: Under New York City Administrative Code Section 12-120, you might need to be a resident of the City of New York within 90 days of the date you are appointed to this position. Since residency requirements vary by title, appointing agency and length of service, consult the appointing agency's personnel office at the time of the appointment interview to find out if City residency is required.

English Requirement:
You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity:
Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services.

HOW TO APPLY:
If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, apply using the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can apply to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts and you will receive a confirmation email with instructions to activate your account. For any account creation issues, you will receive onscreen prompts to contact DCAS. This review may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed and resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at: https://a856-exams.nyc.gov/OASysWeb/Home/Faq. Effective January 2020, the Online Application System is no longer supported on Windows 7 or earlier versions of Windows operating systems.

You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to apply for this examination online. However, you must schedule a customer service appointment prior to your visit. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, DCAS no longer permits walk-ins at DCAS sites.

When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services no later than eight weeks from the last day of the Application Period (January 25, 2022).

THE TEST:
The multiple-choice test will be given at a computer terminal. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain knowledge and abilities determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of an Associate Contract Specialist. Task areas to be tested are as follows: supervision, contract development, fiscal monitoring of assigned contracts, program monitoring of assigned contracts, and report writing and record keeping.

The test may include questions on knowledge of contract development; knowledge of fiscal monitoring of contracts; knowledge of program monitoring of contracts; standards of proper employee ethical conduct; and other related areas. The test may also include questions requiring the use of any of the following abilities:

- Written Comprehension is the ability to understand written sentences and paragraphs. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when reviewing Requests for Proposals (RFPs).
- Written Expression is the ability to use English words or sentences in writing so that others will understand. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when drafting reports to upper management.
- MemORIZATION is the ability to remember information, such as words, numbers, pictures & procedures. Pieces of information can be remembered by themselves or with other pieces of information. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when recalling specific laws in order to judge a program's compliance.

Problem Sensitivity is the ability to tell when something is wrong or likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem, as well as elements of the problem. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when evaluating a program site for compliance.

Mathematical Reasoning is the ability to understand and organize problem, and then select a mathematical method or formula to solve the problem. It encompasses reasoning through mathematical problems to determine appropriate operations that can be performed to solve problems. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when balancing a program budget.

Numerical Reasoning is the degree to which adding, subtracting, multiplying & dividing can be done quickly & correctly. This can be steps in other operations like finding percentages. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when reallocating funds within a program budget.

Deductive Reasoning is the ability to apply general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when evaluating a program for compliance with laws, rules, and regulations.

Inductive Reasoning is the ability to combine separate pieces of information or specific answers to problems to form general rules or conclusions; to think of possible reasons for why things go together. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when determining a provider's fitness for a RFP.

Information Ordering is the ability to follow correctly a rule or set of rules or actions in a certain order. The rule or set of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences and mathematical or logical operations. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when balancing a program budget.

Category Flexibility is the ability to produce many rules so that each rule tells how to group a set of things in a different way. Each different group must contain at least two things from the original set of things. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when drafting pre-solicitation documentation.

Speed of Closure involves the degree to which different pieces of information can be combined and organized into one meaningful pattern quickly. It is not known beforehand what the pattern will be. The material may be visual or auditory. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when identifying potentially problematic behaviors on a site visit.

Flexibility of Closure is the ability to identify or detect a known pattern (like a figure, word or object) that is hidden in other material. The task is to pick out the disguised pattern from the background material. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when identifying potentially problematic spending patterns of a program.

Perceptual Speed involves the degree to which one can compare letters, numbers, objects, pictures or patterns, quickly and accurately. The things to be compared may be presented at the same time or one after the other. This ability also includes comparing a presented object with a remembered object. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when reviewing data in a spreadsheet.

Selective Attention is the ability to concentrate on a task one is doing. This ability involves concentrating while performing a boring task and not being distracted. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when receiving a phone call while drafting correspondence.

Time Sharing is the ability to shift back and forth between two or more sources of information. An Associate Contract Specialist may use this ability when utilizing reference materials to write a report.

Certain questions may need to be answered on the basis of documents or other information supplied to the candidates on the date of the multiple-choice exam.
If you believe that your test part was rated incorrectly, you may submit an appeal of your score to DCAS, Committee on Manifest Errors, through the Online Application System (OASys). Your appeal must give specific reasons why your score should be higher. Your appeal may result in a higher or lower rating.

To access the appeal portal of OASys, please log into your OASys account at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs and use the following steps:

1. Navigate to the Dashboard for the Appeals tab.
2. Click the NEW APPEAL button to create and submit your appeal.
3. Select the exam from the Exam drop-down list, and
4. Select the exam part from the Exam Part drop-down list.
5. Select the reason for your appeal from the Appeal Reason drop-down list (if applicable).
6. Enter the details of your appeal by providing specific reasons why your score should be higher.

Note: You may attach up to 5 documents to support your appeal by using the attachment functionality.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS:

Make-up Test:
You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test on the regular test date(s) for any of the following reasons:

1. compulsory attendance before a public body;
2. on-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City;
3. absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City;
