CHILD WELFARE SPECIALIST

Exam. No. 1019

WHEN TO APPLY: From: February 6, 2002 To: February 26, 2002
APPLICATION FEE: $35.00
Payable only by money order to D.C.A.S. (EXAMS)

THE TEST DATE: Multiple-choice test expected to be held on Saturday, May 11, 2002.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES: Child Welfare Specialists, under varying degrees of supervision, with varying degrees of latitude for independent action, supervise children in direct foster care, congregate care or in adoptive homes, overseen by the Administration for Children’s Services, in accordance with agency policies and procedures.

SPECIAL WORKING CONDITIONS: Eligibles appointed to this position may be required to work shifts including nights, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

THE SALARY: The current salary is $32,043 per annum. This class of positions has two assignment levels. Upon satisfactory completion of six months of training and experience at Assignment Level I, an employee shall be assigned to Assignment Level II at the salary of $34,919 per annum. After eighteen months of experience in the title and satisfactory completion of probation, an employee will receive a salary of $37,330 per annum. These rates are subject to change.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, refer to the "Required Forms" section below for the form(s) that you must fill out. Return all completed form(s) and the application fee to DCAS Applications Section, 1 Centre Street, 14th floor, New York, NY 10007 by mail only. Applications will not be accepted in person.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

Education Requirement: By June 30, 2002 you must have:

A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college including or supplemented by 24 semester credits in one or a combination of the following fields: social work, psychology, sociology, human services, criminal justice, education (including early childhood), nursing, or cultural anthropology, with at least 12 of these credits in one discipline.

You may be given the test before we check your qualifications.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be appointed.

Residency: City residency is not required for this position.

English Requirement: Candidates must pass a qualifying test to demonstrate English language proficiency, both oral and written.

Proof of Identity: Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with the City of New York.
REQUIRED FORM(S):

1. Application for Examination: Make sure that you follow all instructions included with your application form, including payment of fee. Save a copy of the instructions for future reference.

2. Education and Experience Test Paper: Write your social security number, the examination title and number in the box at the top right side of the cover page. Fill out Sections A, A.1, A.2, A.3, and A.4 and include any degrees and relevant courses you expect to complete by June 30, 2002. This form must be filled out completely and in detail for you to receive your proper rating. Keep a copy of your completed Education and Experience Test Paper for your records.

In addition, if you were educated in the United States you must submit a copy of your college transcript(s). If you do not include a copy of your college transcript(s), your Education and Experience Test Paper may not be rated.

3. Foreign Education Fact Sheet (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education to meet the education and experience requirements): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Fact Sheet included with your application packet. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "course-by-course" evaluation (which includes a "document-by-document" evaluation) of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services no later than eight weeks from the last date for applying for this examination.

THE TEST: You will be given a multiple-choice test. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test. The multiple-choice test may include questions on reading comprehension; written expression; identifying problems; applying procedures to specific problems; synthesizing information; arranging information into a useful sequence; basic arithmetic; and other related areas. Only those candidates who pass the multiple-choice test and meet the education requirement will be summoned for the qualifying English language proficiency test.

ADMISSION CARD: You should receive an Admission Card in the mail about 10 days before the date of the test. If you do not receive an Admission Card at least 4 days before the test date, you must go to the Examining Service Section, 1 Centre Street, 14th floor, Manhattan, to obtain a duplicate card.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you meet the education requirement, pass the multiple-choice test, and pass the English language proficiency test, your name will be placed in score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Selective Certification for Foreign Language and/or American Sign Language: If you can speak a foreign language and/or you know American Sign Language, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this ability through a process called Selective Certification. If you pass a qualifying test, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this ability. Follow the instructions given to you in the multiple-choice test booklet on the day of the test to indicate your interest in such Selective Certification.

List Termination: The eligible list resulting from this examination will be terminated one year from the date it is established, unless extended by the Commissioner.

Assignment Information: Section 424-a of the New York Social Services Law requires an authorized agency to inquire whether a candidate for employment with child-care responsibilities is or has been the subject of an indicated child abuse and maltreatment report on file with the statewide central register for child abuse and maltreatment. State Central Register screening will be obtained prior to considering a candidate for employment as a Child Welfare Specialist. Candidates who have been the subject of an indicated child abuse and maltreatment report will not be assigned to any position which requires child-care responsibilities. Employees who have been the subject of such a report may be reassigned or terminated from employment from their positions as Child Welfare Specialist.

SPECIAL TEST ACCOMMODATIONS: If you plan to request special testing accommodations due to disability or an alternate test date due to your religious belief, follow the instructions included with the "Application for Examination."
